The Word of God to His chosen Irineu
(Excerpt)

Here, I tell you a new mystery, for those who believed in Me so far, those who testified Me in front of the kings and of the world rulers, who were serving foreign gods; those have suffered martyrdom in their body and reached to the right hand of heavenly Bridegroom. But those from now, who belong to the work for the end of the wickedness and the one for the new beginning, these are martyrs in spirit and sigh in spirit and suffer for all creature. Here, now the world is rejoicing in its spirit, and the children, the bearers of God, sigh in the Spirit of God, but that Scripture is also written and says that, «All nations will mourn, and you will rejoice then». And «When you see those that are to come over the world, rejoice, for your redemption is approaching».

My child let your sadness not worry you. Do not get frightened, not even if the world spirit presses upon you, for it presses, you need to know that it presses. Bear the weight and carry it with joy and with patience, for there is a little time so that we may become like them and then to win them over to Jesus Christ, Who wants to complete His loose body of His creature, and here, the Lord helps you, for the Lord cannot be seen without the body now. Do not grieve over your power and do not let yourself under sadness, over the power of your heart, for there is no temptation to overcome your power, and if it comes, God comes towards you and gives you a hand and gets you out of it. It is the time of martyrdom in spirit and this martyrdom in the spirit is much more valuable for God. Here, you know that it is written, «Do not be afraid of those who kill the body and are not able afterwards to do anything, but be afraid of those who can kill the spirit, for this would be the second death». That is why the reward is higher for those who are martyrs in the spirit. The reward is high and comes from God, and the Lord will redeem through these the blood of those cut and killed for the testimony of Jesus Christ, for through these, who are martyrs in the spirit, the martyrs in the body will rise and will get the reward of their faith. It is written this way, «At the present trumpet the dead will rise incorruptible, and the living, who will be, will be changed», and shall enter the rest of the glory, seen by all God's creature, and then the joy will be full. There is still a little while, beloved child, frail child, a little while, and there will be a sweet and eternal condition, and this will be the reward for the sons of the New Jerusalem and they will sing together, those in heaven and those on earth, the song of victory.

… We will do great things and be great, and the Lord will also be great over the little ones, for the little ones will be the greatest in the kingdom that is coming from God.
