The Word of God to the Bishop Basil of Târgovişte

Peace to you from the Lord, Jesus Christ, and let My peace remain upon you! I am the peace and the patience of those who believe in Me, and from now on I am.

Go, go into My name and write this stone on earth, for I am this stone, and you will see that I am, as the word spoken from heaven was.

I am the Word and the Word is God, and all are worked by the word, for I have spoken the word and the word has turned into action and I am true by the word and I work by the word. I am the truth over those who believe in Me and I will be true by faith, and those, who will believe in the Holy Spirit, Who perfects the threefold work of the Godly Trinity, they will be and will do the works of faith and it will be counted to them as justice worked by faith. Do not be afraid. I will go before you and I will smooth your way with My peace by the one who is great over the church.

Peace over the one who sits on the church seat, for God, the threefold working One, sets heavenly peace in this council.

Peace to you, My loved one, My apostle and confessor! It is written into the book coming down from heaven: «I go away but I will come back again. I go away for if I do not, I cannot come to those who believe in Me» and behold, I am with those who believe in Me, with those who do not stumble against Me, and I am with the gentle ones, with those who are neglected, for My Spirit is being made perfect in weaknesses, as it is written in the Scriptures. Behold, I put this stone before you, for you are set over the church in this city. Get up, command the storm and calm down the waves that smash against this stone, for I am this stone. I am the stone neglected by the builders; I am the cornerstone, for My Father called Me by a great name in heaven and on earth and He established Me to be the head of the church and through Me the whole body of the church is made perfected and knit together through that which every joint supplies for the wholeness of the church body within the being of the church body.

Behold, I open and no one is able to close, and who is able to damage what I do? I am One God over the whole creature, but behold, the time of visitation is with Me and My creature does not know to distinguish between its right and left. «Behold My children and I, and I will make signs and wonders over Israel», as it is written. I am the God of Israel, for Israel is the one who believes in Me. I am by the word, My messengers and I, for who can come out from under My power?

When I sent Jonah to preach My word, he did not want to go into My name, but My power was made by Jonah's sign and I prevailed against Jonah and he went for Me. Get up and stand before the storm which smashes against this stone, worked out by the word, and stand up with outstretched arms and protect this little remnant from those that do not believe. Stand up and keep this until I come and do not let this planting to be crushed, for whoever will stumble against this stone, that one will be smashed by it.

I want to set peace over Zion and I want to put to shame those who share the Lord, (In worldly churches, r.n.) for I am One, and I am One everywhere, for there is neither Jew nor Greek in Me, and all will be in One, as I am One, for God is not divided against Himself.

I am the same now as I was before through the prophets, for this is the godly order; it is through the prophets, it is by the word, but behold, the Israel of today does no longer know Me and no one wants to hear from the Lord any longer. My Zion is far from Me in his heart; and what use has been the praise of the lips of My Zion for Me, if it has chosen its freedom and let aside My justice? I suffer from the wound of My Zion and I want to bind its wound and I want to heal its iniquity, but there is no longer any clean place, for the whole body is full of wounds from top to toe. Stand up and do My will, for I do not want anyone to trample over this vineyard and I want you to protect this stone for Me, for I laid at its foundation a covenant of holiness and of heavenly mystery, and I will fulfill by those which stay under this stone of testimony, which is set by Me over this time of darkness.

I love you. And you should love Me too. I receive you, and you should also receive Me. I protect you, and you should also protect Me. Let us serve each other, and I will remember you then when I will speak out justice over the world. Be like Nicodemus in the time of My body and do not take this manger to the council of the scribes, for God is not believed, the One Who works in the Holy Spirit of the Godly Trinity.

When Balaam headed for Israel to curse it, I blessed by the unspeaking animal and I brought the evil to a stop, to protect the one who was with Me and with My laws. This is what I told those who were with Me from the world: «Go, and he who believes in Me will do greater works than these, if he believes in Me». Blessed are the one who does not stumble against Me. Blessed is the one who believes in the spirits of the heaven!

Peace to you, to the one who sit on the seat of the church! Let My peace work upon you, and if you deny Me, then let My peace come back to Me. Peace to you, for I have set you over to protect this nestle and to keep it away from those who want to crush it, from those who want to trampled over it, for they will be marked by Me hand. Watch for Me and I will write you as the protector for this settlement, which I want it clean from everlasting to everlasting. I am the head of this stone and I am in the Godly Trinity by this settlement, and I am in its pleasant order, for God is not divided against Himself. Am have put this sign over Romania and I have worked wonderfully, for I have worked miracles from everlasting to everlasting for the fulfillment of the heavenly times. Seal this mystery until I appear with power by the settlement coming down over this stone. Hide this spring, for Herods and Judas have come out to spy on this settlement pleased to Me. If you do not deny Me, I will keep on knocking, and you will open up for Me and we will have supper together, for everything is possible with God.

The sweetest word for you: peace to you!

Peace and New Jerusalem over My Zion, and over those who went into My name, peace!

Peace and good order, as in heaven so upon the faithful ones! Those who are faithful are God's settlement. The heart of My believers is My heaven, and the clean and unspoiled body of these is God's bed, for the Lord rests upon them. Amen, amen, amen.
