The Word of God to the bishop Basil of Târgovişte

The first word: Peace to you! Through open doors, peace to you, My confessor! Peace over the church in this city in which I have set you in this time, for this city will be the first freestanding church over Romania, as it was before, because those that were will be again! You should not doubt of Me, for I am by the word, as it is the order set from the beginning. I am; I and My messengers, and we will work together to restore the kingdom of the good and faithful Israel.

This is what I told those who were with Me before My ascension to the Father and who asked: «Lord, are You now restoring the kingdom of Israel?» And I answered them: «It isn't for you to know the times or seasons which the Father has set within His own authority». (See Acts 1:6, 7.) And behold, The Spirit of the Most Holy Trinity, Which perfects the fulfillment of the Lord's times, has worked during these days, He has worked out the fulfillment, My loved one, for this mystery is within the Holy Spirit and the Scripture cannot be abolished, that which testifies about the word of the angels who spoke at the time of My ascension to the Father, and they said this: «This Jesus, will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (Acts 1:11)

Oh, I will work and untie the knot, which I set over the church in this city. I come soon, and I will make a New Jerusalem, for this is what I said: «I will choose Jerusalem once again», and I will fulfill it in this time. Romania is My chosen one, and I will set a blessed Eden in its midst, and I will make it into a new Canaan, and I will set over its walls sounds of heavenly trumpet and I will let it be known about Me with new work, with the new fruit, which comes from God. Behold, do not be afraid, for I will work, and you will know that I will work, and I will unknot the knot, which is put over the church in this city in which you are freestanding. It is a knot that has to be untied, and if you are with this spring, which flows from Me, then I will come and tell you what to do for this knot to be untied, and that we may be able to start building this city on a great height, because it will be the freestanding city over Romania and I will be with great generosity over it, to the announcing of the glory of this nation, to the glory of My Romanian blessed among nations.

Behold, I speak through this spring and I fulfill by the word, for I gave a commandment and I said that I will fulfill by it, and behold, those who are My faithful ones gave body to My commandment and raised in this time the stone of the new beginning by which My power is going to work over Romania. I have made these children stand watch over this garden for the law of holiness to take effect, which will work holiness over those who will take on the way of life. However, they are gentle, they are small before the rulers of the world and they are hated by the Herods and by the Judas of this time. Stretch out your mantle over them and I will be with you and I will work and lift you up, but let yourself be modeled, My loved one, for what is not possible with you is possible with the Lord, as it is written in the Scriptures. I would like you to be in the same way as I want to appear from this garden, but let yourself be worked, for this fulfillment will be to go to all the margins and many will stream to this mountain and will ask to drink clean and untroubled water, for I will make a clean and life giving spring come out of this rock. I want to unseal this well, for I want to restore those that are removed from their place. I want to appear in the same way as I have dwelt through this manger.

Be in Me and then live in Me. Be one with the one who is of My church, with the one who believed the Lord and founded this establishment of this foundation of living stone. Be together working within this heavenly mystery and you will rejoice among those who stand over the churches in Romania, and your name will be made known to all the margins. Stand up and write this stone on earth, for the Lord submits Himself to the authorities on the earth to bring living and working light over this nation, from which the Galilee of the nations will take light. I love you. I love your heart and I want to stay in it, but be careful, My loved one, for I am a jealous God and I want to have a whole generosity in your heaven, in your heart. Be wholly within Me, for I have looked into your heart and saw a favorable bed for My kingdom. Let Me clean your heart and let Me set My heaven over it and over your being and over your church, for You are church for Me; but behold, I stood up to take away the devastation from My church

Come, My loved one, keep the trace of My sheep. Let us make a new thing, a New Jerusalem over My creature, for I come with My kingdom and I come to My Romania. This is the new work, which I want to be seen coming out of this chamber, of this holy settlement, which I want you to watch well, to be after the settlement which is laid at this foundation. I do not leave you; and you should not leave Me either, and no one will take the crown of those who will be workers over the darkness of the time now. Let us love each other and let us encourage one another. I am and I will be by the word and the word cannot be bound. Israel's fathers saw these days from afar and had hope in them, and behold, they rejoice seeing them coming. I want to see Myself within you in the midst of the crowds and I want you to be as I was. Give Me your heart. Come to be with Me and I will make you a new earth into the kingdom, which will be settled in the days to come. Take out from the hiding My clean spring, and I will untie the knot, which is set over the church in the city where you are free-standing and I will raise this city on the height.

Peace to you! However, you should not deny Me, for I am true by this spring. Peace and New Jerusalem over your heart, over your being, and we will rise with the new things. I am the beginning of the resurrection of My creature, and he who is with Me lives forever, as it is written. If you deny Me, I will come back into Me, but I will work in this time as it is written in the Scriptures, for I am live through those who are alive, through those who were live in Me, and he who has served Me from generation to generation is not for death. Behold, those who stand as sacrifice at the foundation of My church, those are the saints of the heaven, they are alive, and are not in death those who, by their death, keep the truth of the church, which comes through the church that is one in God. Amen.
