

The Word of God to the priest Stephen and the priest Gheorghe, from Prahova
(Excerpt)

I have stood up to call out over the people nourished by Me with words from heaven, over the people blessed and empowered with heavenly power thousands of time, but this people has not rightly used this power which was from heaven over it, and behold, it is right for it the Scripture which says: «These are mistaken because they do not know the Scriptures. These are destroyed for lack of knowledge». (See Matt: 22/29; Hosea: 4/6) Oh, only if faith were on earth! For this is what I said: «Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?» (Luke: 18/8)

I have come to you, My loved people, and behold, I have come to pass through your midst, Zion, and you take stones and throw them at God. However, now I am not going to hide and I am going to fulfill those that are written for you in this time of the heavenly glory. Behold, priests have arisen around with false testimonies and no one of them has understood the mystery of this settlement which I erected and sealed and put over it the laws of holiness and of the preparation for the glory that comes, for they have come and trampled on the manger of My word and climbed up some other way and not through the gates, for the gate here is the law of holiness, which is set from Me over the place of My glory. They have come and spoiled My manger, for they do not believe that this holy citadel is not from the earth.

Get up and put your shoulder with Me, for they have trodden down to the ground the fence of this vine that sprang of this work of the Holy Spirit. I have given word for My kingdom to be established and the word has turned into action for this is how God is; He is by the word, for everything has been made by the word, from everlasting to everlasting, and behold the fulfillment of the heavens, and behold, no one can wake up the loved one to get up and to listen to My voice. Sit down near My messenger. He is the only one among those who call themselves bishops, but they lie, for their body is full of swellings and words of blasphemy; injustice and oppression is in their heart. They tell the prophets not to prophesy and they say that the seers do not see, and I am filled with compassion for My sheep, because they do not take care of My flock and have made an unjust profit on the wool of My sheep, as it is written into the Scripture. Oh, I did not sit on the seat of the law, and I rather sat with the poor, with the gentle, with those who are neglected, to teach them to live the law of holiness and to feed on the word that comes from God.
