The Word of God to His chosen Irineu (Excerpt)

… When My Father gave Me the commandment, I brought the word at the manger of My word, which has been settled in Romanian, and I said that you would be a bishop. And because I said this word, I had to fulfill it then, for the Lord is faithful with His promises. I have sent the word over the one who is ruling today on the seat of the church and I told him: "Get up and anoint the one who is from Me for this time." (Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.) And why did I do so? I did in this way so that the law cannot say that I did not submit to the law; nevertheless, that one, willing or not, believing or not, went and anointed you as bishop, but God's Word anointed you and not that one, the word that was from Me upon that man, for the Lord works by the word and His work is called God's Word. And where is His work any longer into the midst of the church, which calls itself My church? Do you want to believe that the church is a Sodom and Gomorrah? Do you want to believe God when He tells you that there is no church, no dwelling of church or altar of church; there is no longer that place which is known as holy, without being touched by hands and body that have not been washed from sodomy and masturbation, from the sins of Sodomy and Gomorrah, whose cities were burned with the fire that came down from heaven according to the word of God which came to punish the uncleanness? Do you want to believe that there will be burned with fire the whole uncleanness from the earth? And what will really be then with those who have defiled the places that were dedicated to Me, to My Spirit and to the glory of My name?

Oh, My beloved one, anointed by God during this time; by God and not by unclean hands! Oh, My little and beloved one, you keep saying that you want to see My glory but I am telling you that you have already seen it. As many times you have wanted, as many times as you have asked it, you have seen and received it. And behold why I have added these words: there comes a hard and foggy test as there has never been since the ages and there will never be after that. The fire of God comes over the works of Sodom and Gomorrah, but it comes and begins with the house which calls itself God's house, for this is written: «I will begin with My holy Temple», (See Ezekiel: 9/6) because they say that they serve Me, but do you believe when I tell you that there are many priests and monks and bishops that do not believe that God is? Do you believe that from the people of that time, from those who crucified Me, there have arisen strings of priests from then and up to this day? Do you believe that the churches are full of servants who serve the crucifixion of the Holy Spirit? Oh, the Holy Spirit is severely crucified, well son, and the Holy Spirit cries and struggles to come out of the nails to avenge His cleanness and holiness that have been despised by the servants of the churches, as they are those whom the Lord will call to account, those who have sit at the head of My flock from all around all over the earth.

Oh, there comes My glory, My beloved one, but behold how is it going to come! It will come and if it comes in this way and not otherwise, then here it is the truth of the Scriptures that says: «Woe to those who wait to see the Lord's Day, for that day is a day of fire and terror as there has never been since ages and will never be after that». (See also Matt: 24/21) And what is going to be with that church which says that is with Me? Oh, the Lord will find it in the world and not within God. What is going to be with the one who will have traded filthily with the spirit, with name and with the garment that was ordained by God? For they brought in the Caesar and sold on money the gift on the altar, and much money have been gathered since then and up to this day, piles of silver on which the Son of God was betrayed and bought; and many Herods, many Judas, Annas and Caiaphas have arisen and filled the places which were taken from the fathers and robbed the holy things and defiled My vessels and My churches, and took into slavery the people broken by ignorance sucking its blood and life, as I am the life of My people, My beloved one; I, and if I was no longer able to stay in broken vessels, in unwashed vessels, in dwelling places, defiled and unwashed by the holiness of those who have laid hold of them, and behold why My creature has no longer had God, and if it has no longer had Him, then it died, because there is no life without life. And what is now to be done? Oh, the filthiness can be cleaned only by fire. Do you want to believe in those that I am telling you? Because it cannot be calling to godly service; this cannot be with money and violence and this calling to serve is not true, for the Holy Spirit is not given by human measure, but He is given by a heavenly calling, by heavenly revelation, working by the spirit of heavenly revelation, and behold what a string of priests has arisen, under the word that they were My following apostles.
