The Word of God at the Synod of the Saints Archangels Michael and Gabriel (Excerpt)

An angelic feast from heaven and the word of God, on this day of feasting for the rulers of the angelic hosts, Michael and Gabriel, are coming down.

The Most Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, is carried by angels and a song of Their glory is being sung to Them: «Glory to the Holy and to the One of the same being, the life-giving and undivided Trinity, from ages to the everlasting ages of the heavens!» Amen.

The chiefs of the angels, Michael and Gabriel, are in front of the heavenly hosts and they celebrate with the entire host the feast of the resurrection, the feast of the Annunciation and glory over the dwelling of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, which has come down from heaven, from God, with a new beginning into the middle of Romania, which is blessed and well chosen among the nations of the earth. The Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Great Father, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, is proclaiming the word of the feast of today.

… I am speaking to you all these and I am also speaking to you others, so that we may understand how comes that I set apart for the Lord this heavenly bedding. I am speaking to you these, and I am also speaking to you others, so that we may have boldness during these days and as I am so you need to be into this world, because there is not fear in Me. Otherwise, your hope and love would not be completed if fear stood by them, for fear involves punishment, and if you were fearful, you would not be perfect for Me. The Christians who do not have Me, those have fear and the fear is seen on them, that is why I said that I raised this ship and I enclosed it with the seal of holiness, so that I may search the heart of this people who hid from the Lord and did not confess the Lord by its living. And the time has come to be seen, and it has already come, and it is seen that every spirit which does not confess Jesus Christ in the body, it is not from God rather it is the spirit of the antichrist which is in the world.

Oh, this Scripture fits in with the Christians of this people, that if it does not understand My people how comes that it shall confess Jesus in the body. That is, the Christian to confess Christ in his body and heart, and the light of Christ and the life and will of Jesus Christ, so that the Christian may be from God. And if he does not confess the Lord this way, then it cannot be said that one like this confesses that Christ came in the body and it cannot be said that the Christian, who does not confess this with all his inner being, is from God. One like that has nothing to distinguish the Spirit of the Truth from the spirit of lie with. If this experience was lived by the one who said of oneself that was from God, then he could be truly named a son of God. I came as the one sent by God on earth and I listened to The One who sent Me and I was in the Spirit of the Father on earth in My body and I did not hide anything from My Father, for who can hide from the face of his Creator? And this way My Father revealed Himself greatly in Me, for The One Who was in Me, was greater than the one who was in the world, and My Father was not overcome in Me.

I am speaking to you these, and I am speaking others to you, so that this lesson may be learned; the lesson which teaches how the Spirit of Christ is distinguished from the spirit of the antichrist, which is in the world. And because the world lies in the spirit of the antichrist by its deeds, that is why I said, let us choose a people and accustom it to the Holy Spirit and to be a people of the Holy Spirit. And if the chosen people did not love the Spirit of the Truth and neither wanted it to learn to love the truth so that this people may remain free, behold children that this people remained in the spirit of the world and I had nothing to put aside from this people so that the Christian may be with God. And behold, I am coming soon, and my people does not know what it means to be with God, and the nations will learn this lesson and will believe and will be baptized and will listen to God, and the Lord will not be deprived of fruits, for the Lord won the victory by his mighty arm and pitched a holy tabernacle on earth and a heavenly song of resurrection will be sung over the earth and the church of the living God will be glorified as it is written.

... Together with the holy voivodes who are celebrated today, behold, with them Virginia (Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) is telling you: stay well with awe and with attention, for the hard trial is coming, the change is coming, and it will change the face of the world and the face of the world will be terrible. However, the change of the face of the glory of the Lord is also coming, and the Lord's glory will be seen openly and every brightness will lose its face under the brightness of God's glory.
