The Word of God to the King Michael (Excerpt)

… I announced Romania through the great prophets, through whom My Father was preparing My coming into the world. I spoke about a new people, a new thing and about a country of brightness, which is to be a trade stone among the nations of the world and which will receive the crown of victory at the fullness of its patience. I have this work come down onto the earth and I am in the middle of Romania through it, and the heaven is staying above Romania working and blessing from this little garden, in which I visibly spread the manger of My word. But I want to appear visibly and glorified over My Romania, for here is what your Lord is speaking to you, king of Romania. I ascended to My Father after My resurrection and I saw the plan for the country of the heavenly election into My Father's hand, for once with My incarnation among the people, My Father embodied Romania as well, and this is how a people, which followed Me once, was born, carrying in time My cross and the mystery of the victory, which I will come back with, before the nations of the earth.

It is written into the Scriptures about the mystery of My returning, for I made the promise of creation of a new heaven and a new earth, over which justice and truth will reign, over which life without death will work, and over which time rule will no longer. And behold, I want to come visibly and to breathe upon Romania the Holy Spirit of rejuvenation and birth from above, of heavenly birth, as it is written into the Scriptures in My conversation with Nicodemus of that time, for this is what I told him: «Unless one is born from above, of the Holy Spirit, will not be able to enter into the Kingdom of the heavens, which is coming onto the earth». Behold, I want to breathe a new heaven and a new earth, for those that are proclaimed come true and those that are promised are not taken back.

No nation has a more beautiful and everlasting parable over it than this parable spoken by the Romanian people. I was with My apostles of that time and I was speaking in parables saying: «To what shall I compare the Kingdom of the heavens?» And the disciples understood the parables and they understood what the kingdom of the heavens was like. But the Romanian people gave a parable out of itself and spoke from its soul about a king who has a kingdom in its own self, which will bring youth without old age and life without death. I am, and I have this kingdom into My arms to give it to those who lifted this parable up into the sky, and I fulfill nothing without speaking it first. And behold, I want to work visibly and to breathe over this nation a spirit of rejuvenation, resurrection and righteousness, for the time of the Scripture is coming, which says that the earth will give up the dead from it.

Behold, the heavenly trumpet has been sounding for seventy years in the midst of Romania. There have passed seventy years of foreign reign to God, and the red beast is scattering its last wriggles, (Through the chickens of the red beast – the offspring of the communists which will be at the leadership of the country, r.n.), and it is growing towards morning of that kingdom which will work out the justice of the Lord and the crown of the righteousness and of its sons. Wake up Christian, wake up well and then believe My work, and let you believe more than by now. I am in this work of new and good tidings and I am not alone in those that I work, for I came ahead of time and then I worked. For forty years I have been taking down the word in the midst of Romania, for forty years I have been paving My way with stones to come in a visible glory over this country which is born at the same time with Me in body and in spirit. It is a great mystery about Romania; it is heavenly and truly, My love. This is a great mystery with you. There is no wise man on earth to understand My mystery, but it is a heavenly wisdom on earth, and I am working with it over the faithful ones who do not deny My.

… I will breathe with the Holy Spirit to embody the holy heaven in those that are clean of the Romanian people so that the Lord may have clean and true pillars around you. I will depart from you those who love themselves more than Romania. I will work to distinguish the truth from the untruth and

I will strengthen the throne of Romania and I will give it good counselors with a pure heart and sincere love. Nothing is more pleasant before Me than the good and pure man in his thoughts and works. And I will do this work around you, I will strengthen My way among people, and I will give them the Holy Spirit, for the spirit of the world has come to an end.

29.05/12.06.1993