The Word of God to Marian and Victoria Zidaru (Excerpt)

Peace to you, new and little and tiny Jerusalem! However, you will be great, son, for I will fire up everything with a spark. I have come to cast fire on the earth, and how much I would like the fire of the Holy Spirit to be lighted now, which gives light to the My inner being! It is about this fire that I speak to you, children of the Holy Spirit. Behold what an adoption, well children, children of the Holy Spirit of the Holy Trinity, Who is in the Father and in the Son, children from the end of the godly work. I have come to speak among you so that the word may be fulfilled; to cast the fire of the Holy Spirit on the earth and to be lighted now; to prepare the path of My glory beautifully, with the fire of the Holy Spirit, and that I may come and stand in the middle of the Romanian people and to shepherd it with an iron of peace and justice, sons. This is how Verginica is praying; she is praying to Me to let the Holy Spirit come down over Romania and for Romania to see it and to come out to welcome Him. But first I have made the spark come down, so that I may not come unexpectedly, without speaking it first.

The garden from you and the Holy Spirit in it, this is the spark, and the whole land of Romania will catch fire from your fire. Blessed are those who put on the shirt of holiness, for their shirt will not be taken away and neither will it be burned. Blessed are you when the mountains and roofs will come bowing day by day asking for the river of life and to learn the laws of holiness, for there will no longer be as it is now, because the Lord will work otherwise now. He will work visibly; He will work with those from heaven, which have never been seen by now. For if the heaven will come down on earth to be established as new heaven and new earth, according to the promise from the Scriptures, it will otherwise than in the time of Moses; it will be otherwise now, in the end of the fullness of God's work, because the man will not have to ask one another how it is or how God says, because the Lord, Himself, will be, for I will come visibly towards the creatures, for if the fire of the Holy Spirit comes down over the creatures, then the eyes of the creature will come to be opened and they will see what is beyond the things that have been unseen by now, and then the kingdom will be in the Lord, the One Who made the heaven and the earth.

… The word has tried so many times to become work! So many prophets who have been speaking from God! However, they have also needed a people to fulfill the living word. And behold, I set Myself to work and we are speaking, and the word becomes work and it is worked the life from Eden, and the Holy Spirit blows into this spark until fire spreads all over and everywhere, and death will be swallowed by victory and it will no longer be. And as for you, strengthen yourselves and work, for My word and I work. It does not matter if satan works day and night because God works ten thousands more, and there will no longer be night because only God's day will be, that with no sunset, and the Lord will give light to the new earth.
