The Word of God at the feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother (Excerpt)

… The man who consumes his body grows old and ugly and passes away, but this is what I have done, Jerusalem! I formed you and set you as a boundary between hell and heaven and I have taught you to put an end to death and timelessness. I divided the ages and wrote beginning and end. I am the Alpha and the Omega, I am, Jerusalem, and I wrote beginning and end, and I want you to be a day of rest for Me, for man does no longer knows what a day of rest means. Day of rest means My rest in man; it means man in My image and after My likeness, in which work I rest.

Dear sons, how can one speak of a day of rest? For behold, I am working, and My Father is working as well, as you see that My Father speaks in Me. Do not stumble, Israel, when you see that My Father speaks in Me once with Me, for this mystery is coming to be revealed, just as My mystery will also be revealed in Virginia, because I was speaking through her. I was in her and she was in Me, and soon you will see, Israel, what this body was, for it was My day of rest, and it was not a day or two, but rather was for a long time, for what does it mean to God a day, ten years, a hundred or a thousand years? But the Scriptures is not understood by man and, therefore, man has divided himself into many interpretations. And where does it from? Because there is only one interpretation, for when the seventh angel sounds all interpretation will be over and we will enter into rest again. However, I am telling you, sons in Jerusalem, that I have entered and, that behold, I have a place where to rest and from where to work to establish the heaven everywhere and a river that will spring up and water the paradise, that from here, from this garden a river springs, (Apoc: 22/1-4) and this river is taking now veins and arms and is divided into four parts and it waters the earth. I made up this garden and this stone and I wrote on it Alpha and Omega, beginning and end, and I am working to put an end to the lawlessness and death and I am beginning a new age, and I am starting with you, Jerusalem, people worked by Me and born through My word, spoken from heaven over you. I work by the word and I am working as in the beginning but man does not know it and he does not want to know. Only when people truly want to be the sons of Jesus Christ's church and when they will prepare themselves according to the commandments to work the fruit of life and the sons of the church to eat it, only when the church will no longer have unprepared sons, only when all will love holiness, only then it will remain one spring and one teaching, one vineyard, one flock and only one Shepherd, and man will no longer be a shepherd, and the Lord and His staff will be, His word. This is what I want to prepare for you, Israel, My people, so that you may no longer eat from foreign hands, son, and to eat of your house and to understand what your house means, for the priests of the church who are mixed with the world and with the violation of My commandments, those I do not know, I do not know where those are from, for they do not even teach themselves let alone teach others!

… The entire heaven rolls up when I speak with Israel, so that those in heaven may find out of God's mysteries. That is why the heaven loves you; not because you deserve it, Israel, but because I speak with you. The heaven eats at the same table with you, Jerusalem, and Abraham rejoices within the accomplishment of the promise made on him. There is still a little bit of time, and I will put My veil aside and those that are not seen will remain uncovered.

The work of the preaching of God's work is being blessed. Let the world take and taste and let the world be preached, so that I may not come unexpectedly. The preaching to Romania is being blessed. Let Romania come at My table, at the table of the faith, lest I come and find unbelief in it. I come longingly to preach and then to fulfill, and you, those who are preached, those who make the word spoken by Me on the earth come into being, I give you power, health and a spirit of gratitude from heaven, and I give you peace.

… Let no one despise what I have done, and as for you Jerusalem, come to obedience, for without holiness you will not see the Lord. Israel, I search out your mind, work, will, faith, your rest in Me and My rest in you, and I will work with justice, for I have taught you how to stand before Me at My coming.

This work puts an end to the false prophecy and to its heads, for I will come soon and no one will have any word to add or any other word against it. I will soon come upon all the creature and all who wait will rejoice, for they have been waiting for a long time. Abraham is waiting sons. I soon come uncovered. I come soon, soon.
