The Word of God on the fourth Sunday after Passover, of the paralyzed man (Excerpt)

… However, you, My people, who believe that I am the One Who have come to shepherd you as I did with Abraham, you should stay, son, under My advice to be comforted and strengthened by it. Do not stumble against the one who left as Lot left Abraham, and rather stay close to Me and wait for Me in obedience and faith, for soon, soon, I will stand visible into your midst. Stay close to Me to have you as the beginning of the new man, of the new age, for I will add a great people at your table with Me, son. A great multitude will eat at his table of resurrection, at the table of My word, for the man will live eating My word, and God will grow in man. Amen.

… The God's voice is coming down on the clouds and lets itself be heard in Romania. The Lord's voice is being proclaimed and God is speaking from the sky over Romania. Amen, amen, amen.

I have My word come down from the cloud up to the manger of the word, up above the garden of the word. Peace to you, watchmen of My word! Amen, amen I say to you: the time has come to feed the multitudes of the supper of My word, which I make it come down to you. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am speaking over Romania!

Peace to you, My Romania! Peace to you, Romanian, My people, born at the same time with Me to be My bride at My coming! I am the Lord, your God, the only One born of the Father before all the ages. I am the One Who was resurrected two thousand years ago after that Israel gave Me over to death on the cross. And if Israel forsook the One Who came from the Father, here is what Father gave Me after I was resurrected. He gave Me a new Israel, a new people, which Father made it My kindred, and since then I have had you from My Father, Romanian Israel, for Israel means a faithful people, a chosen people. My Father chose you from My birth, as Father knew that Israel, the chosen people, would forsake Me and crucify Me on the cross; however, after My resurrection, Father gave Me a new gift, a new people, born of My word, of My new Gospel.

Christ is risen, Romanian Israel! I have a little garden full of love into your midst, and on which I let the rain of My word from the end come down. Romanian, Romanian, you should not be unfaithful. You should believe son that I have been speaking for forty years from heaven over Romania. Romania, I have a little people into your midst, taken out of you, and they are called the people of God's word, and this people has heard My word from heaven and has written My word on the earth, and the word has been testifying as two thousand years ago, as seven thousand years ago. I am the Word. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father of the heavenly Trinity, Which is called God. My name is the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.)

Romanian Israel, My Romania, you have heard son, about a multitude of gods, for your enemies have surrounded you and have come to you in a sheepskin and they have prowled to get you out from Me, and your shepherds have been asleep, My love. But do no longer bow down to foreign whispers, for I tell you not to have other god besides Me. I am God not only because I tell you, but because I revealed Myself as God. The gods which are being proclaimed now have not appeared as I have; they have not come down from heaven like Me, and they have not ascended like Me and they are not like Me, from heaven.

Oh, Romania, My Orthodoxy, you have kept My portrait, the portrait of the kingdom of God, and no one has kept it like you have, after I was resurrected like a God. You were born of Me, Romanian Israel, new Israel, and you are the Jerusalem of My coming, as that one was the Jerusalem of My passion, the Jerusalem of My pains. I chose you to be the Jerusalem of My glory, and behold, towards the end of My waiting, I have raised a bride out of you and I have clothed her with new garments and I have breathed over her a spirit of new man, in My image and after My likeness, as I worked in the beginning, and I have prepared in you a celebration and a heavenly wedding and a heavenly wedding table, and I want you, Romania, to be My wedding guest, people chosen by God.

I have been hiding with My Spirit for forty years, (Since 1955 – the beginning of the trumpet sounding through the Holy Virginia, r.n.), and with the voice of My word into the midst of a little and tiny people, taken out of you, Romania; a witness people, as Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Elijah and the prophets were also My witnesses, and later My apostles and disciples, witnesses of My resurrection and ascension to My Father. And behold now, the disciples of My returning within the word declared from heaven upon you, Romania, blessed by the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit! I do nothing without announcing it first through the Scriptures. My name is the Word of God, from everlasting to everlasting. I am the living One. I am the crucified God, and the resurrected One. I am the One, Who said that I would be with those of Mine until the end of the age, but now I am and I am speaking concerning a new beginning and no one understands My name. My name is the Word of God, and no one understands My name. (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.).

Oh, Romanian son, I stand before you with the first beginning, and I join the end to the beginning with the word from those of heaven, and I make a new heaven and a new earth, and I want to let you know what I do. Those that I declare from heaven have been writing on the earth for forty years, and I commanded My witnesses to lay the word of My supper on your table, Romania, My people since two thousand years. Your anointment from Me is as long as two thousand years. Your secret anointment, the one according to the order of Melchizedek, as it is My order, your anointment draws you to Me, Romanian country. I would like to come and tell you what the Romanian country means, but I want you to come too. I come, but you should also come, My love, to be like Abraham, who believed in God and who was called the father of faith. I pass with My word through you and I say to you again: get up! Listen to My whisper! Get up, My love, come Romania, and take heavenly water from the river of life and wash your ears so that you may hear Me, for the sons of the garden of My word hear My voice, which is coming on the clouds! Take water from this river of life without death and wash your eyes so that your scales may fall off them and to be able to see Me, and wash your face and your body too, and take on the Romanian beautiful garment and get up before Me, for I announce you that I come to you and you will see Me that I come, but get used to see Me with heavenly eyes, and do no longer be earth, and rather be earth and heaven, as I created you from the beginning. I am your Creator. In the beginning I made the heaven and the earth, and in the end I made you, Romanian Israel to prepare you to stand with a new heaven and a new earth before Me, at My coming. I want to put on you a new heaven and a new earth, worked out by word. I was the Word in the beginning. I was the Word in the beginning, and I am now too, at this end. In the beginning of the end, I was born of My mother, the Virgin, to be Man and to turn the man into God, and I made you into a people, and I called you Romanian, son. And behold, as I raised a couple of disciples out of Israel and I made them salt on the earth, the same with you, Romanian people, I made martyr witnesses who carry My word coming on the clouds, to have witnesses now as well, on My returning on the clouds, as I promised that I would come back. And here I am through word over you, Romanian son, and I want you to get up as My former apostles and to be a Samaritan son, Romanian, My people. Receive My word and look into it, to see Me and to know Me that I have come through the word, as I give you My book of this time. Behold, I stand by your door and knock, people loved by God. I went into the house of My Father with My word, (The church of the world, r.n.), but the watchmen of the house did not open to My word. Behold, I stand by the door and knock, and no one answers to the One Who calls. I have come to you, Romania, as I came to Abraham, when I told him about the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, and I did not destroy anything until I let it be known first. I do nothing until I let it be known by word, as I have worked through the prophets in all the times.

Come to God, My Romania! Come, Romanian and do not stay in unbelief, for you have in you a people like that in Sodom. Come and listen to My voice, for I have sons in you who believe like Abraham, who are promised to be. Come and wake up, for the godless man has no eyes and ears to hear Me. Come, My church, to hear My voice and became an example of resurrection over the man who is not watching. Watch and sound the trumpet and let the Romanian flock know to love its true God. Wake up your shepherds, My Romania, and put them to watch over you, for false gods have come into your hearth (house, rabble). Your hearth is holy, and your hearth is My hearth. Shake and brush My hearth in you, as I come with a heavenly supper to you, Romanian son, and I give you to eat word from heaven.

Here is the book of My word, as I have spoken from heaven into your midst, Romanian Israel. I have come by word to advise you to the kingdom of the heavens, to remind you of a warm and fresh advice from heaven. Take My kingdom on you and take My kingdom in you, to know that I come, and you will see that I come. If you do not believe now, I will also tell you that I come again; I will tell you when I come. Oh, I would not like you to be naked when I come. Do not throw aside, son, My advice, as I cross the air with it and I come. For forty years I have been coming with My advice on a hidden way, on a secret little path, so that the enemies of the heaven may not catch those that are nourished from heaven. I have always been coming in a whisper, and I have always been hiding with My word into your midst, but now I am crying out loud. Wake up Christian; wake up Romanian, and pray to the Lord, your God, as you, Romania, has got a blessed crown on your forehead. Kneel down My loved people and pray as My Mother, the Virgin prays. My Mother, the Virgin has been praying for you, Romanian country, from your very beginning and to the end of the wickedness, and she cries aloud:

"Oh, holy Lord, heavenly Father,

Protect the Romanian crown with your hand!"

Romania has a crown from God and she is a queen.

Oh, Romania, I want to give you back the fruit of your blessing, which you have estranged from you. Listen to My word, to the voice of the Lord, your God. I am speaking from heavens above you. I have a blessed mountain, a mountain of heavenly mystery into your midst. Take the book and eat it and drink water from the river of life, which flows from My throne over you, as you, Romania, have to prophesy to the people and nations and languages and kings, the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, the news of a new heaven and a new earth over you, chosen country by My Father, the news of the renewal of the man, the news about a new man, born of heaven. Amen.

Peace to you, Romania! Behold the book of My word. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this is the seal of the living and true God, which stays on your head, My Romania. He who is from God listens to God's words, and he who is not from God, does not listen to God's words. The one who is with Me is not against Me.

Amen, amen I say to you, I am the Word of God. I let My body on the earth, and he who does not eat the bread coming from heaven, does not have life in him. The one, who does not fulfill God's commandments, has no life in him; that one cannot have My life in him.

The Spirit of God is speaking over Romania. God is speaking the Romanian language. Peace to you, Romanian, My people! Let My pace and My wisdom come down on you, Romanian son, Christian son. Blessed is the one who believes in God within the work of holiness and resurrection.

Peace to you, Romanian Jerusalem, who proclaims the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens! I am the Lord, your God and I am speaking over to you and say: illuminate yourself, Romania; illuminate yourself, New Jerusalem, as My glory arises over you, and you will see My glory, and you will give it to many for a day of resurrection, for a beginning of new age, in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.
