The Word of God at the feast of the saint martyr Varvara (Barbara) (Excerpt)

It is celebration in heaven; it is a celebration of a new age, of new heaven and new earth and new man, born of the word from above. It is a celebration with the Romanians, the country of My returning to the people and of which I took out a people to have it cleaned and placed before the voice of My word, which comes with the clouds. I am coming to you, little Israel, taken out of the Romanians to be My people. I come and become news over the earth, and I become news and story with you, My people. I become a new message and I have the saints and glory of the angels with Me, and My mysteries are great, and My word crosses the air like the lightning, which comes out in the east and goes down into the west. Peace to you, My people, for you have My word and you know My voice. Peace to you, and stay with Me watching, for many will come and they will come into My name and deceive many, and many will stumble and sell each other because the iniquity is great and because of this, God's light is being put out, but those who are patient will overcome, for the Gospel of My new word and the message of My kingdom will be spread out and told all over the world as a testimony, and then I will come visibly and everything will be brought to an end, and then I will be, and many will flee to the mountains, for it is written: «My angels will gather those who are elected from one margin of the sky to another, in a sound of a trumpet, at the voice of My word», and there will be as in the time of Noah, for no one will know of that day. And it will be as then, for the people were eating and drinking and going to weddings and they had not known anything until the day of destruction.

Oh, Israel, you are happy, faithful servant, you who stand watching before your Lord! Watch, Israel son, and stay like that for My coming, for I come. Be always careful, for there have always risen false and deceitful prophets and they will make great signs and they will perform great miracles for the deceiving of those who are deceived and for the testing of your faith, My people, but you should not come out, you should not believe anyone but only in Me Who come as the lighting that goes from east to west. However, you shall run when you hear about signs and miracles, for it is written in the Scriptures that they will be for the deceiving of many. However, you have to be humble and low, son, because the false people will come and will be praised by the people and many will follow them, but you should not seek after the glory from men, as I said: «The one who seeks after his own glory, that one speaks from himself and not from God, and he who seeks after God's glory, that one is from God». Those who love glory are false prophets, for they do not know My humility and My work. Oh, Israel, I do not seek after My glory but after the glory of the One Who has sent Me, and this is how you are to work as well and keep away from the people of the empty glory, who have nothing from Me. You shall watch and watch again before Me, preaching Me to the people, for I am your glory, Israel. Amen.

… It is a celebration of saints in Israel on the earth. No one on the earth knows any longer to make a feast for the saints. The people speak about the days of the saints and they worship the idols on the days of the saints. The people celebrate each other on the days of the saints, and they eat and drink and go to weddings as in the time of Noah, but My word comes over the earth and becomes message and it comes. As the lighting comes out in the east and goes to the west, the same way the Word of God announces itself.

And you, sons of My word, you should always be blessed by Me to be able to stand before Me and to take and give My word to the people for the resurrection of the faithful on the earth. My word is coming to produce faith on the earth and to find it at My coming, as I have found it in you, Israel, My faithful people, for it is written: «My Father loves the one who believes in Me and We will come to him and make a house with him and have supper with him and We will appear to him», for the Father is in

Me and in My coming, and we will make the kingdom of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, a blessed kingdom from age to age.

The kingdom of the heavens was likened to the man who had three sons; the youngest of them watched and stood up so that it might not happen to him as it did to his older brothers, who did not keep a good watch and the thieves got over them; however, the youngest one knew well the time of his watching and the thieves were caught and the golden apple was brought on his father's table to the joy of the father and of the youngest son .

The kingdom of the heavens was likened to you, son Israel, little son, the fruit ripened in faith, the fruit on My table, as I am on your table, for we feed each other at the table of the heavenly love on earth, a wedding table, a table of new age, the feast of the heaven on earth, the word of God, food from heaven on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.
