The Word of God to the Christian people (Excerpt)

… My people, My loved one, eat son, to your advantage the food that I give you though My wise and faithful servants who take from Me for you. Eat and do not give My food up, for it is hard without My word on earth. I have been telling you son, for more than twenty years that the denial of faith is coming and you have not known what this moment means. I told you that you will be forced to renounce God as the godfather renounces his godson of satan and you will be asked: "Do you renounce God?" I told you, My people, that if you are with Me and on my side, not even on your feet will you get wet as with Moses through the Red Sea. I told you that if you had a strong faith you would escape and if you were weak in faith you would attack yourself and deny God and then you would suffer, My people. But you did not understand what I told you, and you got frightened and walked away from Me, you who were left, the one who were scared. But he who stayed beside Me had a strong faith and when he was asked if he renounced God, he said that he would not renounce and escaped unharmed and unchallenged.

My children of this time, who pushed you to renounce God and the life with Him and His word full of life? The priests and bishops had fulfilled this requirement upon you, but when challenged you did not deny, for I strengthened you faith and helped you to remain with Me and with a holy life before Me. Your holy life helped you. The holy life, mind and heart prevent the man from falling down and perishing and from temptations, but those who did not love My holiness were very weak and let themselves be attacked by the Antichrists who were dressed like Christ's servants, as written, by false Christs who would draw from Me even the elected. But the fig tree caught summer and its branch became tender and put forth its leaves; and I am ready as I spoke with a sign for My approach. Verginica was My blessed branch and allowed herself for work and sprang forth leaves; and by this sign I am close, for the fig tree is a parable shown by Me in Scripture, and he who reads, let him understand what the parable with the fig tree means. The priesthood is the fig tree and when the fig tree has its branch tender so as to let itself be worked out then it puts forth leaves and the Lord is near.

I am a Priest forever after My Father's order through Melchizedek, and Verginica was My branch, and you are the leaves, you anointed sons in the little garden of My word, and I, the Lord, am coming according to this sign. You know sons, and let you be the truth as I am! All My servants who stand on earth into My name are a lie, and My law punishes falsehood, but let you be holy and upright, for only the ones who stand by their own sins against the truth, have a law. Be holy all the time, so that I may love you as the most loved ones. Be the truth so that you may always be My sons, for I am the Truth. Those who have a lying life are many and prolong the lying by their life, but they fall away from life as the rotten apples fall from the tree.

… There are two kinds of sinful people. There are humble sinners, and there are haughty and proud sinners. I give you My teaching, and you, My servants, give food to those without food in due time, for it is the time for Me to come, and to find you doing so. Amen.

The people keep a fasting for My birth's celebration. Some people fast and they do not know what fasting is; they do not know the ways of justice and of the cleanness of the heart before Me. I strengthen through the holy forefathers four times of fasting, so that the church may be a strong house with four pillars, strong and strengthened by fasting and soul watching, and the people, who set themselves as My servants on the earth, took one of the four pillars out of its root and made damage over the strong order. But I have turned your face to your fathers, My people, to be protected in the day of your visitation, as the people made bold to chance even the times, and the voice of the saints from heaven asks Me again and again: „Lord, until when?" but I told them to be patient until the fullness of times, until the fullness of My saints' number, down to My smallest ones. Amen.

In the time of My body I loved the fasting and praying to the Father. My mother and My saints did likewise. The fasting has to be accompanied by prayer, and the prayer has to be accompanied by fasting. But it is written into the Scriptures and into the prophets that in the last days the power of the church, the power of the holy people will be demolished from its place. It is written into the prophets that in the last days, when the crushing of the power of the holy people will be finished, then the fulfillment of the Scriptures for My coming will come to an end.

You should know, My loved people, that the power of My church is fasting and praying. You should also know, son, that the sons of the church are not the Lord's sons, if they are not clothed with this power. You should know son, that I clothed you with this power, to be a son to Me and to have you, and that you may not come to be without power, as those that do not have this power, are very weak, and at any test they stumble and lose their way, as it is written into the Scripture which says: «Many will fall away, they will sell one another, they will hate one another and will fall through the false prophets, and because of the lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold, but My Gospel will be preached into the whole world as a testimony, and then the end of everything will come and then My coming will be with power and great glory. Amen». And I will send My servants with the voice of a trumpet to bring together My elected ones, and behold, I send you to preach the word of My coming to all the margins, and blessed is the servant who will be seen by his Master doing so, on His coming, for the Master is not long in coming. Amen.

The people keep the fasting of the Nativity, and there are four times of fasting for the feasts of the heaven on earth. After that it comes the fasting in which the people prepare themselves for the celebration of My resurrection. Then it is the fasting established before the celebration of the saint apostles, and then it is the fasting established before My little Mother, and there are four times of fasting, established by the fathers and by the saints who strengthened My church on four strong pillars, but one of these pillars is no longer. It is written by the prophet Daniel that the power of the holy people will be crushed, and the people of the church of nowadays do not even think to turn their face to the fathers and to turn their fathers with their face to them, lest I come and strike the lawlessness and its children with a curse. The fasting before the feast of the saint apostles is no longer, for the people made bold to change the times, after it was prophesied that it would be. Oh, this iniquity over the church cannot be possible? Until when? Oh, really until when? I cry with the voice of the saints and the saints cry over the earth by My word: «Until when? Until when? Oh, until when, really?» I measured the time for the man otherwise. I set an evening and a morning as the measure of the day, and the people demolished My measure. Oh, where are the feasts of the saints? Until when this lawlessness?

Oh, Romanian people, you would not like to be a true Romanian; you would no longer like it. Where are your heavenly celebrations on your earth? Why did you get enchanted? Why have you been careless? Why are you no longer Christian, a true Christian? There have passed seventy years over you since you have spoiled your faith from the forefathers , and after seventy years I established back the heavenly celebrations on your land, and I announced you, Romanian people, to turn with your face to your holy fathers, who call out to Me: «Lord, until when?» I want to forgive you, My Romanian people, as you are My people to which I come on My second coming. I want to make an agreement of reconciliation with you for this sin committed against My saints and yours, and against your forefather. I want to forgive you. Amen. Be careful to what I tell you, as on your big holy days, your rulers make out an agreement of forgiveness for many guilty people who went wrong against the law. This is also what I want to do on My feasts. I want to forgive you, My Romanian people. I give you this heavenly commandment: come back with your face to your parents and put back into their place the feasts of My saints, as I put into your midst a new beginning and a stone of remembrance and reconciliation with the heaven, and you do not have wisdom enough to understand My times and their fulfillment.

Let it be four times of fasting, as this is from your fathers. Amen. Romanian people, be Romanian. Be Romanian, son, and be Christian, Romanian son. Amen. The scroll of the days fallen from your counting, are a scroll before Me as a witness against you, as you were deceived by a foreign people and did not watch before Me. But I want to come as word towards you and say: come back and be a true people before Me! No other people was so struck in its belief, in his holy law; no other one was more hurt than you. Oh, it is not good for you to sleep. Watch, son, start watching from now, so that the thieves of souls may not come and sell your soul in the time when you do not watch.

The time has come to forgive you, country with Bridegroom and bride. I am the Bridegroom and I have in you a bride people, and I speak upon it for you, My country of wedding. Wake up and do My will and be My wedding guest, so that I may have My mystery in you, My coming in the word over you. And again I say to you: wake up and walk and watch before Me, as I am in you with My coming, and I from you I am preached all over the earth and to all the people on it; I am preached from you for My coming. Amen.

And you, little children from the garden, who give Me the fulfillment in the word, you, who turn the Word into the word, be faithful and wise servants and give My food in due time, so that I may find you doing so. Amen.

The people keep the fasting of the Nativity. Some people fast, but they do not know what fasting is. Oh, people, who teaches you My holy laws to establish over you? I was taken by the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil, and I had fasted for forty days and forty nights to be able to overcome the temptations. However, I had been feeding on My word to the Father, and on the word of the Father to Me, and I did not let the devil tempt Me and I told him: «You shall not test the Lord, your God», as it is written. And when the devil wanted to give Me the kingdom of the world if I bowed down to him, I said: «Go, satan, as it is written: You shall worship the Lord, your God, and Him only shall you serve».

Oh, people, with what do you overcome the devil's temptations? Fasting and praying are heavenly power in the man, faithful and lover of God. Fasting and praying have with them humility, both inside and outside. Fasting and praying means to love God and not to have other god; it means not to steal, not to kill, not to be sexual immoral, not to give false testimony, not to strike your neighbor for those that belong to him. This means fasting and praying, and without these, the fasting from food does not mean fasting. Oh, who teaches you to do all these? The holy dwellings are full of dyed and made-up bodies without any kind of holy law, and they keep days of fasting without knowing what fasting means.

But I come out with you, My people with My word upon you, to give the people a living teaching. Your coming out into the world with Me, I know, son, I know that it is hard; I know better than you, I know, but we have to fulfill the Scripture which says that I will bring those that are Mine from the world from the four winds, and I will give you power over your power, as fasting and praying that you weave to make a bridge to Me and to You, these are your power, holy people, that still sanctify yourself, as it is written. Oh, love the law of the paradise, for I gave it for you to establish yourself in it and to be embraced by it and to embrace Me in it to have a place where to bow down My head in you, My people, My living church from the end, the one from My coming. Amen.

... In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the voice of God's trumpet calls out, it sounds from heaven on earth. Amen.

In Your name, good Lord, I get up with a sound of a trumpet to call out a spirit of awakening over the flock, pleasant to You. I also call out over those who sleep not watching for Your coming. I call out with the little angels; I call at the same time with them, for you spoke from Me with a voice of a trumpet, Lord, and You called me Your trumpet on the earth, and, he who is holy on the earth, is also living and active in heaven over those who remained laboring for Your great day, Lord. The heaven works over the earth and nothing comes on the earth but from heaven. The deceit is great on the earth; the spirit of lying is thick and huge, and the world has got used to it as to the truth, Lord. I miss very much to teach my people to stand watching before You, so that Your people, chosen from the world by the voice of a trumpet, may stay alive. I long for it, Lord, and I would like to leave my longing over the people, which is pleasant to You, to know how great its preparation, its watch and its work with You have to be on the earth. Amen.

May the longing of the heaven come down in you and burn in you, little children working together with the heaven on the earth, for the Lord wants to establish His kingdom on the earth, but the people of today are used to much lying and to its false life. The people cry because they do not have what to eat, and this is all their pain, all their struggling. They do not want to understand that all that is coming on them is coming from heaven because of their iniquities, as there has been in all the times over the people. The people do not want to stop sinning, but they want that it may go well with them, and the sinful man deserves punishment. Open the Scriptures and see what God used to do to Israel when he increased his sins and his wondering astray from the way of the truth. The Lord was bringing on Israel slavery, famine, death, oppression, plagues and estrangement. Behold the Romanian, too. The Romanian people did not leave to bring nations under their bondage for wrath has always come from outside since the Lord has always loved him and He has always rebuked him for his sins, as a son and as a loved people and chosen for love. But for more than seventy years, the Romanians have been eating each other, brothers have been killing each other and even the poor have been wicked, not to mention the greedy rich people, who have rejected the way of the truth for their greed! But God has also many good Romanians, and because of this remnant the Lord keeps within His hands this nation and this land, which carries God's word manger into its midst. Oh, that is why this country is so much protected, but the people in it do not know God's miracle carried by this land. Many nations of the earth long for it because it is the field with a treasure in it, and those who are seeking it do not know why they are looking for it.

... Oh, you tiny people and hard tried by those without faith! The priests of today wanted you to deny God and your life in Christ. They are those who fulfilled the world of the Lord, delivered in my time. This is what the Lord was teaching you: "You Christian will be called before him and will be asked: "Do you renounce God?" And you will say "Yes"; because of fear you will say "Yes"; for fear of what he keeps in his hand. The one who will say "No", that one will suffer. But as deep as this obstacle is, if you escape this obstacle, you will be with the heaven, and the heaven will be with you. Do not fear Christian; put away the fear, for the world and the priests will perish, not you. The antichrist and his army is dying; not you, Christian. Flee from the world Christians, for the world is dying. Search for yourself even in your head so that you may no longer have a single hair of the world, for the world with all the priests and protopriests (deans) is dying and it will no longer be known where the world was."

Oh, you tiny and clean people in faith, this is what the Lord was saying in that time, but the Christians of that time did not believe well into this words and behold their fulfillment. The priest knows that he has gift and grace and he scares you with these; he threatens you that he binds and curses you and that he blasphemes and anathematizes you, but the priest has a soldier rank in the army of the antichrist; he wears what a minister of Christ should not wear. But you, do not be scared, little child, for the little ones are taken on arms by the saints and angels and rather the little ones who have the Lord as their Master are to be feared of; they are feared because of their Master, for He is the real Master. The priests and bishops of the world are the Antichrists dressed in sheep's skins but they are not shepherds, for if they were shepherds, they would take care of the sheep, they would take care of the sheep and search them with the hidden wisdom in God. Be strong and do not falter, sons, for the justice came on earth to do justice, and the Lord is clothed with the robe of the judgment of those that are hidden. Amen.

My spirit longs to teach you, my people, to watch before the Lord and to have mercy on the Lord, Who works hard not to crush the wheat grain in the time of the gathering of the weeds, which will be put into the fire, where its part and destiny are. I am the announcing trumpet over the wheat and over the weeds so that everyone may draw back to its place, as the Lord comes and there are no hidings for someone to hide from His face with heavenly glory. Let it be strengthened over you the power for the heaven, fasting and praying, the power of the holy people. Amen. You should love fasting, not only from food. Fast from everything that is evil which move around you, as the deceit on the earth is great. He, who wants to save himself and cannot fight against the spirit of the world, let him stay quietly good and far from the world, so that he may be saved by praying to God for the victory of the salvation. Fast from food and from those, which are wicked for the mind and for the heart; fast also with your sight, with your hearing, with your smelling and taste and with all of your body. Learn to keep a perfect fast. Learn to be salvation to each other, salvation and not weakness, as the time of nowadays is chilly for the soul, and the soul needs a thick coat, an expensive coat from heaven not from the earth.

... Fast and pray incessantly. Amen. Do not eat to your full, as the full belly empties the heart of the Lord's fullness; it empties the mind of the Holy Spirit, for the body lusts against the Spirit, sons. Eat so that you may live. Amen. Eat so that you may not die. Do not eat to die and rather eat to live, sons, and everything you should do for building together, for the love in the Lord.

... Sons, My loved ones, be strong and do not shake, for I, the Lord, am the seventh trumpet as the Scriptures write. I am the One who bring to an end and fulfill God's mystery, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Learn My blessing over you. Learn the love of the heaven with you, for those, who did not deny God according to the unfaithful man's advice to My works on the earth, are with the heaven, and the heaven is with them at the heavenly supper on the earth, and they will no longer be hungry and thirsty. Those, who eat this food and drink of this water, will never be thirsty again. Amen. I am the wellspring, which flows with eternity over you, My loved people.

Who then is the faithful and wise servant whom his Lord set over His household to give them their food in due season? Oh, blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so when he comes. Amen, amen, amen.
