The Word of God at the feast of the Lord's welcome (Candlemas) (Excerpt)

Israel, Israel, you should not make the one who watches over you go wrong, for you are a spiritual Israel; you are promised to Abraham through Me, the Son of the Father; for Moses also said when I wanted to lose the rebellious Israel to raise another Israel from Moses, and he said: "Lord, remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, for You promised them that You will multiply Israel". Oh, I promised Israel to Abraham, but the promise was for a spiritual Israel and not for a fleshly one, after the flesh and not for the one which walks in the flesh, and I am the One, Who keeps My promises, and that is why I make you from flesh into spirit and heaven on the earth, Israel that are promised to be.

Oh, My people Israel of today, no matter how wretched you are on the earth, you are the blessed one, for you have been waiting for Me to come, as I also promised that I come and that you will see Me coming. The heavenly one does not doubt of My promises and rather he prepares renewing himself by the Spirit.

I have become a feast in you, My people, and I will have the feast of My second coming come down in you on the earth, and you will be the people of My welcoming, and I will make you a sign in the midst of the peoples, as I made Israel in the time of the gentle and faithful Moses.

Keep in mind, My people, that the Lord your God is God in the heaven above and on the earth below and there is no one besides Him to do you well. Keep in mind, My people, that you are the My sign before My great coming, for it is written: «After the distress of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will no longer give its light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken, and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven. And then all the peoples of the earth will mourn and see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven, with power and much glory». Amen, amen, amen.
