

The Word of God at the feast of the devout Parascheva (Parascheva of the Balkans) (Excerpt)

I have come, sons from the garden. Amen, amen, amen. I am with the clouds of My glory above you, for it is written: «He is coming with the clouds».

No one waits for My coming any more, for the Scriptures of the heaven are no longer read and believed. I am always been with My coming upon you, but the people have loved themselves for seven thousand years and have no longer called for My coming; they do not want Me to be with them and to dwell with them; and if they want, I cannot come as they want, and I come as it is written into the Scriptures: I come with the day of My glory, and it is a dreadful day over people, for people have their own living, pleasant to them, and My word with you is My great and dreadful day. Behold, all the people are afraid of it and they always flee from My word that is with Me upon you, for if I come, I speak the word of the day of My coming.

Amen, amen I say to you: the word I have spoken upon you is My great and dreadful day, it is My zeal and My pain, which cries from within Me because of the longing for man who does no longer want to have the true God upon him. The man does no longer want Me to reign over him as a true and great God, and I cry, for this is what My word has spoken to the angels: «Those who did not want Me to reign over them, take and cut them, and cast them out». (See also Luke: 19/27) The people are afraid of My coming, and behold, they are afraid of My word that comes with Me, that comes with the clouds and which every eye sees, and the man closes his eyes before Me so that he may not see Me.

Sons, I am coming to you with the feast of My word and with My saints at the feast of word upon you, for the heaven is My throne and the earth is the footstool of My feet. I am coming to you for I have made you faithful to My word. I am coming and perfecting Myself in you and I am also perfecting you in Me and in My coming, for My word upon you is the day of My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

Sons, I have with Me a feast of the saints, martyrs and pious, and we speak in heaven and on the earth about the pious Parascheva. (Parascheva of the Balkans) She loved the poorness in spirit and flesh, for she loved My spirit and body, which I left to those loved by Me to have Me and to be holy as I am holy. I gave Myself to the disciples before the glory of My passion; I gave Myself to remain with them, and then I gave My body into the hand of the sinful man so that he may sacrifice Me for the forgiveness of the sins of those who consecrate themselves. I gave My life to the disciples to have it in them. I gave Myself to them and they did not know the mystery of My offering. I told them: «Take and eat from Me, for this is My Body and My Blood, which is broken for the forgiveness of your sins». They did not know then what I told them, but after three days they saw the truth of My brokenness for them by the hand of the sinful man, who knows to kill God, so that he may no longer have him, for God is only One. Amen. He who has got Me is holy; he who does not have Me is sinful.

For three years and more I had trained My disciples that I chose from the people to make them God's saints and then I forgave their sins before giving Myself for the life of the world. But the world did not want the life, not even after I gave My life for them, for the life is God in man with His life; the life is man's likeness with God, Who gave Himself to be sacrificed and as an example of life for the people who become saints through My life. I told My disciples to eat and drink My life, Body and Blood, to have life, My life, for I am the everlasting One, and he who takes Me in him has everlasting life; he has the Lord, the everlasting One, in him. I told them afterwards to do this for My remembrance, for My remembrance in them, and I told them: «Whenever you do this, you declare My death, My body and blood, which was broken by the hand of the sinful man for the life of the faithful who sanctify themselves through My life in them, by the forgiveness of their sins, to be without sin afterwards» Behold, sons, what church means, what God's temple in the faithful man is. The apostle Paul told this to the saints of his time: «Do you not really know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you and that you are not yours?»

Oh, My little children of My coming, the strength of My church was big in those from the beginning of My body in man. My apostles were awake day and night upon the saints in My body, who were in them by the hands of My apostles. Dear sons, I missed to bring together the beginning with the ending. I missed to have a holy church in the end as then when I sanctified My disciples, becoming one with their body before My passion. I did it with My body and My blood from bread and wine, for great is the power of My word, which becomes God through speaking, and only after that I showed Myself as the One Who fulfills those that I spoke, for this is what I spoke: «My body and blood is broken for you for the forgiveness of the sins». Then they knew that I was their God, that One Who is holy and denies himself through My life in him. The one who show My life in him, that one is he who denies himself and to him I give the power to become My son, the son of My Father.

Oh, little children from the garden, let us divide My power towards the thing for the antichrist's judgment, My adversary, who washed his garment in the blood of the saints, but its stain still remained. I want to tell antichrist that he is My enemy and his church belongs to him; it is not Mine. I want to tell him that he is not My servant as he pretends to be, deceiving those without knowledge, for My church has been falling down from its beginning and until today through the hand of the antichrist, who has been sitting over My church into My name tormenting the saints and holding their tongue so that they may not confess Me in their bodies of saints of Mine, for the antichrist is jealous of the My saints; he is jealous because he cannot be a saint anymore since he has taken My reign from the church. But he is without mind as My church is made of the saints and not everything is My church.

Here how much church I have in heaven! As leaves and grass is My church from heaven, which was tormented on earth by the agency of antichrist, who dressed in an ecclesiastic coat to be able to torment My saints, who had Me among them for My remembrance on earth. I was longing to join the saints from heaven with the saints from earth and that is why I made you My saints, you sons from My garden; for I am longing to have saints for My coming, for My word which is My great and terrible day, My coming with the saints above, to wage war against the antichrist, the executioner of My Christians, and to redeem the blood of the saints, the blood of My church, which sacrificed itself for My name on earth.

Children, we close the antichrist's mouth so that he may no longer speak into My name and if he speaks let him speak into his name, for My name is holy; it is not like his name. He always stood on holy ground and killed My church, the same as he is doing today, for he hears you because you are on My side and not on his side. Oh, if you came over to his side, today I would not have any bride; I would not have any bride to welcome My day. But I made you single-minded and I took away the fear from you; for the fear is with those that are guilty, and they are hiding into the caves and into the rocks from the face of My coming.

Sons, what does antichrist say about My coming? He says nothing. He says about his coming in the time of My coming, and there is a war between Me and him, and you are My army and all My heaven of saints and angels are with you and I am with you: God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and These Three are one, amen, and They are everywhere as all over the earth I have little souls that are pleased to Me, whose love of God I nourish; and I will bring these to Me for My angels travel from one side of the heavens to another in order to bring all those who are pleased to Me to the feast of My great day. Amen.

Behold what a beginning and an ending, you working church through the love of God: those from the beginning with those of today, and we will catch the enemy of My church in the middle, as he wanted to be stronger than My saints, stronger than My church, which is serving by love, the one which has sacrificed itself for My truth on earth. I said that the evil man would arise to overthrow My church but we would overcome him.

Sons, we point out the stain on the antichrist's robe. Amen. Sons, we pick up the weapons. Amen, amen, amen. You are My army and I am your weapon. I am the Word of God, the two-edged sword which is coming upon the earth to punish the lie and trespassing, the antichrist and all his army which means the transgression of all earth. Do not be afraid. I am the One Who is leading the big war, a war which has never been since ages and there will never be. Wake up and let us go to fight against the enemy of this age for My light rose to rise and to reward the saints. Have great love, as once again I wake up to proclaim My truth which I delivered in the time of My first disciples who gave Me to the world for the forgiveness of sins, to those who were baptized like them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

My Holy Spirit is the One Who descended into the Virgin and overshadowed her to be able then to make Myself flesh out of her in order to sacrifice Myself as man for the sinful men of seven thousand years. My Holy Spirit Whom I gave from heaven to the disciples, that One I gave you too and it is by Him that I renew you every moment; and I will not take Him from over you as I gave Him to you so that you may carry Me to the margins of the heavens for the confirmation of My Scriptures of My second coming from near My Father and yours also, and for the antichrist's judgment, the man of lawlessness of all earth. My Holy Spirit is with you for you are few but keep My truth as it is; the same as I am.

In My name, get up and accomplish the work of the antichrist's destroying, for My Word upon you is the weapon which will cut his lying word, which he arose to spoil the dogma of divinity with. He roars like a wounded lion and rushes at Me to separate Me from the Holy Spirit Whom I gave to the saints who overcome by My holiness in them.

You sons from the garden take the anointing from Me and mark with it the work against antichrist. He will scream in pain and then will fall down, as My name upon you is great. Then take your hands which I keep into My hand and put them upon those that are upright in their hearts so that I may give them power through you to work out into My name the death of the lie which has set as a god over those without understanding in heaven. They who will receive My anointing to fulfill the sign of the attention on the way of the antichrist's lawlessness, let them put on the breastplate of faith and the working power by My Holy Spirit. And I will give them from the glory of My victory, and to you I will give My kingdom to raise it between heaven and earth before Me.

... May your victory with Me be blessed. The saints and the angels are always with you and with those who work for Me near you and with you for My name. I have always been with you and I am your weapon of victory for the freedom of the kingdom of the heavens between heaven and earth. Amen, amen, amen.
