

The Word of God at the feast of the saint hierarch Basil the Great (Excerpt)

... My word that comes with Me to you calls the man to his eternal age, to the age that is to be; it calls the dead and the living, but those who do their will are caught by it and they cannot escape to come. The dead are listen to this word better, the word that call to life those that were and those that are. The dead do no longer have their own will, but those who are alive do, and they are submitted to it, they are submitted to the will of their body, which brings into bondage the man's spirit, soul and body. Happy is the man who pulls himself out and comes to Me to receive My will upon him and then the reward of the eternal life, for whoever does My will has eternal life and it has with it the reward of gladness, the Lord with those who are saved.

... The work on the earth of My word calls the man to those that will be on the earth soon, soon. I command the earth to be clean. Amen. Let it be adorned within a spirit of feast for My coming. Let the earth be clean and holy, for the glory of My coming is coming on it soon, soon. It is coming with eternity, which has been waiting for seven thousand years for the new heaven and the new earth and upon the righteous who will adorn the age that is to be and the life in it. Amen. My word is a new creation. My word does not pass as the man's words do. My word is fulfillment for it carries in it its fulfillment. Amen. Let the earth be clean for the fulfillment on it of My word of new heaven and new earth. Amen. May the earth be a house for God, so that the heaven may come and dwell visibly on it, in the visible glory, in the glory of the age that is to be. Amen.

My coming is descending with the word, which penetrates like the lightning from the east and to the west to show the man the voice of My word. There comes first the lightning in the sky and then its voice. There comes first the Word on the earth and then Its body, and then My body, that which was resurrected two thousand years ago. My resurrected body prepares its coming from heaven on earth in a visibly way. The invisible heaven, which is preventing Me now so that man may not see Me, the heaven is My throne, and soon, soon it will show its glory, for this word is written to be fulfilled. Amen.

Oh, it is good that I, the Lord, have something to travel on the earth with to do My work. By My word I have always wanted to gather the man under My garment and to protect him. I worked My word through the prophets. And after that I, Myself, came down for man. Then I went to the Father again for man and I have come back again, and I, Myself, have been calling out to man by the word, not by the prophets. I call the man under My tent, and he hears but does not come. Man does not come to life, and I have to clean the earth from the wilderness on it to open the man's eyes and to clear his ears, for soon, soon, the angels will dance and will sing with the saints of My coming and they will say: «Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord!» (Matt: 23/39) Amen. Then the man will no longer have his will to be able to come to Me then. Then only My will be in heaven and on earth.
