The Word of God on the Feast of Lord's Birth

Blessed on earth is this holy feast day! It is My birthday every year for two thousand years and better. The Father is sending Me to earth as a word now, at the end of time, so that I may bless again the beginning of the end, the new birth of the world, announced by Me two thousand years ago that it would come, and that I too would come from the Father to fulfill this Scripture awaited for seven thousand years to come and to place all creation back in its original place, for it was shaken from its course, after man dared to place himself greater than God between earth and heaven.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, as I established Myself under this name when I came to earth as a Child born of a Virgin mother to establish the first kingdom of God in its place by My coming with it.

I am the Word of God, as I am now coming from heaven as a word to earth under this name, (Apoc: 19/13) after two thousand years since My birth among men in the midst of the people of Israel, the people who took Me out of it as a transgressor of God's laws, and now I am coming as a word to My new country and I am sharing Myself from it over the earth, over kings and over peoples, over trials and disturbances, over those faithful to God and over enemies, and I have a citadel of My voice resting place set in its book these days on your land, My country today, My Romania from the beginning, the land from which I took dust in My hands and molded man, breathed upon him and man became a living being so that I could place him before Me as My kingdom and enjoy the work of My hands, but this creature came out from under My dominion and did its will, oh, and since then I have been following it with a painful sigh, I have been walking for seven thousand years, because My enemy was born in him and man has been My enemy from then until today and I have not been able to use My creation and I am trying and keep trying to repair My entrance into this kingdom and to restore My love for man, for the one created by God to be My dwelling place and love and river of love between heaven and earth.

It is a sweet feast in heaven for those on earth, for on earth it is My birthday feast year after year, from the day I was born as a Child, until today. The minds of those on earth have dared to move this feast day and leave it behind, and no longer receive it on the table when it comes to its place on the calendar year after year, and it has been a hundred years since then. But I tell those on earth that they have erred as the adversaries that they are, and that they fight against Christ through everything they do and say according to their mind and choice; however, I am and remain unwavering, for after My resurrection from the crucifixion two thousand years ago, I clothed Myself with great power, because the Father gave Me complete victory and I said then: «All power in heaven and on earth has been given to Me», (Matthew: 28/18), oh, and since then I have been working a lot and always, but I am only with those who follow Me, and the others are My adversaries, because that is how they choose to do it.

It is My birthday, it is My and your day, My country today. I received you from the Father as a precious gift at My birth on earth and the angels wrote you then at My birth, so that we would be the same all the time afterwards, oh, and those on earth do not know, did not know and do not know this mystery of Mine and yours, and which I always give you together with the feast of My birth on earth year after year, and now I am sitting with a table of words for seventy years on your hearth and the Father is telling Me to reveal you and let those on earth know that you are Mine.

Give Me your hand to raise you to your worthiness from the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit! Oh, give Me your hand and let us step towards My table and yours in your midst, and then over the margins, for My story with you is beautiful in the Scriptures and is revealed through its fulfillment now.

I am embracing you with sweet words on the day of My and your birthday, for the Father molded you on that day as new seed and wrote you in heaven as holy yeast, so that you may then be at the end the new Jerusalem, about which the prophets of the Scripture and the saints, apostles and all those who had a share from God to know and proclaim your and Mine mystery, oh, My country from the end of time. I am embracing you in the word, because I have to speak over you a written word on this day, so that I may be able to fulfill it after its establishment in My open book, so that it may receive Me on your land since the year 1955, since I prepared My descent to you, My country from the beginning, when I stood on your earth and I created man on it and since then I made him a living being, after My image and likeness.

Oh, My sweet country, they are having fun like Herod once did, they are having fun under the dance of Salome, all those who have taken the helm and hold your fate in their hands. Oh, do not be angry that you do not have good and pure rulers over you, do not be angry with them. All those who seek for glory are the same, and you should not think that there could be anyone other than those who are ruling you now, and let them come and change your fate for the better. Oh, the good ones cannot climb to the helm for you, because those who would be better, those are not allowed to reach the top for the watchfulness later. However, you should take those who rule you as from God, for all things are known and permitted, but with Me, only those who have Me as their Shepherd all the time have been and are great, and the others are following Herod, Caiaphas and the hypocrites from below and above, following the steps, and each with his own, I with those who are Mine, and Herod with his and with the dance of Salome, for this is what the people deserve, who do not follow God and with life from above on earth.

Oh, I have never spoken to you before with such love and longing, as I am speaking to you now from above you, Romanian nation, so that I may give you from Me and that you may have and know and be able and walk, for even if you do not find out or do not stop to believe My coming in word above you, oh, it is a great thing that I can speak My word over you, and everything is then fulfilled according to My will and according to your merit, good or bad.

So, on the day of My birthday, listen, Romanians, listen from God, Romanian sons. At the creation of the world, I stood on this patch of land emerging from the waters with the top up, and the top is the land from which I took with My hand and created man, and since then this land has been called the beginning of the earth, and with this land I am beginning the rebirth of the world and I am speaking from above for this fulfillment.

I have work given to Me by the Father to establish on this blessed land with the first beginning. Therefore, listen to My word, for you are standing in the balance now and are about to make a dangerous mistake and do great harm to yourselves, and there is no one among you at this time who can put his hand into the fire to save you, and you, Romanian people, have opened a great abyss under your feet without knowing it and without being able to guard yourself from falling. The day is coming when you go back and forth to elect a man for yourself at the top, (The presidential elections, which were annulled by the Constitutional Court two days before the second round due to suspicions of influence by Russia and China through the Tic-Toc network, in favor of the "nationalist-sovereignist" candidate Călin Georgescu, who had a 60-70% chance over his rival, because no candidate from the major parties, currently in government, made it past the first round due to incompetence and, especially, arrogance and hypocrisy, r.n.) and you are now making mistakes without knowing it, because here I am looking down and I see the wandering of your mind, after you fell under the gaze of the man of lies, who has been charming you for a while and keeps delighting your mind that he is from God. Here he is, he still will not give up, he wants to be on top, he is determined to get you on his side, but his mind is not pure for you, and even less, so his heart.

Oh, Romanian sons, the one who wants to be great at all costs, someone like that is driven by the spirit of arrogance, believes himself capable, wants to be above at all costs, presents himself as God's messenger and speaks with the tongue of a lamb, but I have said and I say again: Jesus Christ is not a candidate on earth and should not be used by those who use God to be believed righteous and good. Therefore, listen, Romanians: This man is not for you hidden under the words of nannying in which he has seized you, many of you. He is not God's messenger as you are led to believe and as even the ministers of the church lead you to believe, poor ones. The one who is nannying you is the messenger, but the messenger of those who ar sending him to establish himself great over the Romanian nation. Oh, he is deceptive, he uses lies, concealment, misguided and misleading beliefs, even if he claims to be a true Christian. This is not true. Oh, how can you not see, how can you not hear, how can you not feel that he is being led from the shadows, that he is lying and that he is threatening you now, when he was pushed back by My strong hand, not by man, when he is trying to seem like this?

Oh, Romanian people, oh, Romanian sons, you have allowed yourselves to be too much fooled by the mouth of this cunning man, full of longing for glory over you. He has emerged as if from the ground, unknown to whom he serves, where he comes from, unknown even to those among whom he kept sneaking around to sit and obtain great and small positions, for this man keeps seeking high places.

Oh, what will you do, Romanian nation, if you fall under the burden and place this man above you without knowing what you want and what you do, and doing what he wants you to do, and then do what he wants with you? I am coming and now telling you news from heaven, a vision from heaven, a heavenly watch for you, Romanian son. You will sigh without turning back if you stubbornly refuse to take shelter from this bait, from this cunning spirit, which has been hovering over the Romanian nation for a good while. You have nothing in your hands to defend yourself. You can only defend yourself with the wisdom that you may gain if you bend down to know well what you have to do when you go to give your consent for the man who will be to ascend the first chair of this nation. Your weapon of defense is the vote that you have to use, but woe to you if you do not investigate, if you do not take from the wise ones of this nation, not from those with the politics of all times, (Professional politicians, r.n.), the ugliest step among people, but without which a people cannot go, only that all those in this class are the ones who will rise above the people and become rich overnight, and other people cannot penetrate among them, because they are removed to the margins or removed from the earth as in all times! Therefore, do not put your finger without considering it well, lest you put a yoke on your necks, lest you sigh later, as you are doing now because of those you have chosen, but now you are also mocking them with bad words, oh, and it is written in the Scriptures that you shall not speak ill of your superior, and behold, you must learn not to commit this sin, for the peoples are looking at you for doing this, after you cast your vote for those whom you then call unworthy, and behold, this behavior and complaint of yours is not beautiful, for you are dissatisfied, and you find them guilty for this.

In your body, Romanian nation, it has been multiplied the number of those who are corrupting their minds and losing the watchfulness, which needs to have those who go and choose their lieder. This war is not visible, but the damage left over those who only look out the window is visible, that lie day and night through the servants of lies, (Smartphone and social networks, r.n.), dress charmingly to drive many crazy, oh, and all stand in this consuming fire of souls and minds.

I am coming and telling you, Romanian people, that this one, who is clinging so much to reach the helm for you, is not good for you. He is not the messenger of God as you may want to say, and he is the messenger of those who have at hand the work of the spirit of lies and vanity.

Therefore, open your mind well and look for those who have a pure heart and are shown how it is, and do not be careless when you go to show your choice, but beware of error, because behold, you can make a mistake now and you can fall into the abyss, but come to advise you so that you may know how to beware of the cunning man, because not man, but I, the Lord, have hindered him from ascending the throne, for I watch over you and love you, Romanian people, but take from the Holy Spirit for your steps, because woe to you if you make a mistake now again and again! Look at his harsh gaze, look at the confusion of his tongue, open your eyes and look, Romanian son, and yield to wisdom, for I, the Lord, am awakening you and telling you this.

I have embraced you in the word on a day of birthday, Romanian sons. Let yourselves be healed from the poison of this hypocritical man. Do not take from the road so that you may know how to take the step. I am sending you healing from the blindness, which he has clothed you in, the one what keeps babysitting you in order to choose him as great over you. I hear many that they do not understand My word and what is to be understood from it. Behold, I have said now. This man is an enemy, and by no means a savior, but he is a danger to the Romanian nation, My nation at the end of time.

It is not good for the peoples of the world to know that the Romanian nation has not had yet appointed a leader over it, and this man is still stirring up trouble, for he is a dangerous man. Therefore, seek, as soon as possible, to proceed with the appointment of the greatest of the Romanian people at the helm, you, those who must work this in a little hurry, My sons, and I, the Lord, am going to watch over your work and will work with My angels and with the saints of this nation, for today you no longer have a Mircea, a Stefan, a Mihai, you no longer have. Today it is you, and you must defend the country from the spirit of the deceit of the lying man, and no longer delight yourselves, no longer lie to one another and no longer become dizzy if you sit on the seats of the country. You must be different than before, because behold, things are not well across the country, they are lurking from the sides to bring the country to its knees, oh no, and be careful not to make mistakes now, so that I can then shake Myself with a new blessing over the Romanian nation for My glory in its midst, and which all the peoples will see from afar and bow down, as it is written about the great fate of this nation at the end of time.

Now, I am going to sit in council with the people of My word and I will spend with the word in their midst for three holy days, birthdays, sweet days, people with a Shepherd, for woe to those not shepherded by God!

I am filling My table with the blessing of birth in the midst of those who receive My word on earth and then am sharing Myself everywhere. I am sitting with the saints and the angels. I have My Virgin mother by My side and I have now the witnesses of that time, the heralds of the birth of the Son of God.

We are spending holy moments, children of My word. Peace to you! I have appeared with you on earth with the feast of My birth and with comfort over many, sons. I have spoken this day to the Romanian nation and I have proclaimed it for vigilance against those who stand against it from the shadows through the cunning spirit with the face of a Christian. However, you know from Me the pain that I am bearing afresh in these days for the fate of the Romanian nation and I am urging you to stand by Me. Receive Me, so that I may speak and protect this nation from falling, for the time is coming for it to choose its leader and for the peoples to know him then, sons, and the one who will be to take this chair and stand vigil on it for the nation, let him bring honor to the Romanian nation.

And now, I am coming back to you with birthday feast days, for today We are receiving carolers, because it is birthday carol day and there are days with you from the days of heaven, there are days of the Lord with you on earth, oh, children. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2024/07-01-2025