The Word of God

... This servant, Irineu, is My child, and I protected him wherever he went. He is the servant of My church.

Oh, My son, I give you advice to serve in order to come with your service to heavens. I looked after you wherever you have been and I watched the way you acted and I brought you back and I made way for you to be in My boat. When you miss My caress, come and I will give it to you.
