The Word of God

… Here is what happened in the place of My old Jerusalem, where the holy place was, where it was the world that put Me on the cross. Oh, if I had come down there now, they would have put Me on the cross again. That is why I have come down here at you.

Sons, all cry for the completion and appeasement of the evil, but you will see that the conflict will break through in other countries. It goes round and round and I leave Romania into the middle, but if it does not receive its ruler, who has to come according to God's will, I will make Romania to go through pains, through bloodshed and slaughter. And about what I have here; nothing touches of what I have here.
