

The Word of God at the feast of the saint hierarch Calinic from Cernica
(Excerpt)

I am coming with the clouds and I am becoming the feast of new heaven and new earth upon you, Jerusalem. I am coming with a feast of saints and I am making My entrance with My word into your midst, My people. I am, little son. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, Who made Me the Bridegroom for you, Romanian Israel, My bride in the last time. I have the heaven as guest at My wedding with you, and I have the saints of the heaven in a celebration with you on the earth, for they have always said to Me: «How long, Lord?» (See Apoc: 6/10)

I coming to you with the Jerusalem from above, My people, and I am fulfilling My Scriptures with you and My mystery with you is great, for I have always told you that the whole heaven have been waiting for you to be born of My word and to fulfill with you My coming with the saints in tens of thousands as it has been shown and proclaimed from the beginning through the Scriptures. I am coming with the Scriptures from heaven and their fulfillment is coming into view. The Word of God comes on earth and becomes a way for those in heaven, for those who are alive forever and ever. I am the God of the living and I come with the living ones; I come coming with days of resurrection and I come with the living ones. Amen.

Oh, Romanian Israel, I have the Romanian heaven with Me in My coming and great is your mystery on earth and in heaven. The Romanian heaven and earth get together and make justice to the saints who have their cups filled with the prayers for My coming. I am the Redeemer Who comes. I am the Redeemer of the living. I am the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, Who comes from heaven down on earth and becomes word and the heaven and the earth flee away and the stiff-necked hide from My face for it is written: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?» (Luke: 18/8)

The man does no longer look for faith and rather he looks for iniquity and because of his iniquity the faith and love of many will grow cold and it already grew cold. However, you should be patient, My people, for those who are patient, going to the end of patience, will be My saved ones and My messengers, who preach the Gospel of the kingdom of the heavens in all the world as a testimony, as it is written: «Then the end will come and the sun will be darkened and the moon will no longer give its light», so that the Lord may appear as Light, seven times brighter; the Lord, Who sends out His angels to harvest.

Oh, My people, there is no one on the earth to watch for My coming. There is everywhere as in the time of Noah. All the people eat and drink and go on with their wedding, and I preach the kingdom of the heavens and pass with My boat and call out to the man to come to Me, but he does no longer come, as in the days of Noah. I come with the angels and with the saints to gather My vineyard. My word is the harvester over the people; nevertheless, out of the people, one will be taken and one left, for I pass over the earth with the Gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, and he who wants, let him come after Me and not stay to make his own garment, for I give him a garment, only let him come. (See the selection topic: „The rapture (the abduction) of the Church¹”, r.n.) Man, do not look for your garment. Your garment is not good, but My garment is good instead. Come as you are, naked, but come, for I give you a garment. The one who seeks for his own garment when I call him, that one is a haughty man, whose nakedness is seen, for your garment, man, cannot cover your nakedness. I am the One, Who opens My garment and takes you in it and covers you when you come; and I cover your shame and I forgive you; I wash you and I give you a new birth; I give you a new birth from heaven by My new word, by the preaching, man, for it is written: «Who can believe without preaching?»

... Oh, My country, My country of wedding, the country of My pride! I have within you heavenly stars that shine forever. I have within you saints through whom I fulfill the Scripture and you do not know, but I become word in you and I reveal My mysteries with you and I open up your wells to drink of them and to become sound in your mind and heart, and you are to put on My garment and hear My word to believe that I am, and not to do as in the time of Noah.

Oh, My country of wedding, I am coming on a white horse to you and armies from heaven are coming with Me too riding on white horses. I am coming with your saints, My country. I am coming to work with a spirit of life upon you and to make you understand your mystery, which is written in the Scriptures. It is written in the Scriptures by Israel, and it is written by you in the Scriptures too, and you do not understand, My country. You have fallen from wisdom and you do not understand, but I am coming with your saints and I make them word from word upon you, and I am speaking in the Romanian language with you, and I have with Me Romanian saints and I am coming and shepherding you with a Romanian rod so that you may know Me, that I may not come unknowingly to you. I have never worked in an unknown way by man. I have come in a known way and worked upon the faithful ones and I have worked in a mysterious way upon the unfaithful. However, I am coming now and I am coming out of mystery and making you known My mystery, through those you know, My country.

I become a resurrection day upon you, a day of love, a day of reconciliation, My country. I come with the heavenly days upon you and forgive your iniquity and raise you from the dust and glorify you as My country before the people, and I want to wake up My people Israel through you, that did not know Me that I came from the Father through the Virgin, as it was written into My Scriptures delivered ahead of time. I come with your saints, My country. I come with the bishops take from you and lifted up by Me for you. I came to you with a Palm Sunday feast and brought you your bishop, Nifon, and he, like a Romanian saint, lifted you up before Me, for the days have fulfilled, My country. I came and had a reconciliation celebration, an agreement of peace between you and Me, for even today I have raised from you as a martyr a bishop, who raised a clean church before Me, a church after My own will, so that I may deliver the blessing upon you, My country. But the days are hard today, and little help receive those that are my messengers by whom I fulfill My plan over the earth.

Today I have had a bishop anointed by Me, but the disbelief of the great and mighty in power crushed him. But I am the one, who can raise the weak one from the dust, for My living church testifies before Me about My deeds in its midst, and My ear takes heed. I have a bishop in you, who fulfilled My plan and had a church after My own will stand before Me, and those that are established stand before Me for you, My country, and I made a heavenly agreement between you and Me and I wrote it in the Book of the Truth. I wrote Myself with you into the Book of the Truth, My country, and you will be loved by many and I work all that is good upon you, by My people taken from you.

I am coming with your saints to you, My country. I am coming with holy bishops, taken out of you. I am coming with the hierarch Calinic Cernicanul, (Calinic from Cernica monastery, r.n.) who is alive. I am coming to unseal My mysteries from you, for you are My land chosen again, My new land, for Israel did not give Me any dwelling; and I have made out of you a new land and a new heaven, and I am coming with your heaven of saints and work upon you. Your saints become word upon you and they unseal My mysteries with you, My new country, for I have made a new covenant in you, a covenant of love, to choose you and to write you as Mine. I am the Word of God into your midst. I am the One Who is, and I am with you, and I am coming with your saints and make them word of My word upon you, for I have spoken with them on your land as I spoke with Daniel in the time of Israel. Amen.

— You are coming Lord, and You are coming with Your saints. Amen. You are coming and Your saints are speaking from You, the dwelling of the saints, Lord. Your saints become word from You, and they become light over Romania, the country of its saints, the country of the saints, Lord. All the saints have received the good news, Lord, and the Romanian saints are loved by the entire holy heaven, because You have Romania in the plan of Your Scriptures, and You made an agreement with it and became word upon it, and You breathe resurrection upon it and upon many nations which will receive Your light from it.

I was Your prophet and I proclaimed the time of Romania, and I proclaimed Your church of New Jerusalem upon it. I prophesied the time of Your peace and I sealed through the word, the year of getting out into the world of Your word, Lord, the year in which, those little of Yours, raised You a new church of New Jerusalem on the earth, a new stone of new beginning on the old ones, at Your word, at Your command, Lord; however, the people still do not understand the mystery of Your word in Romania, Your mystery with Your trumpet, with Verginica, Your trumpet, Lord. But I am coming and saying that, on the day when You had Your word come down in it, I cried from the grave so that those who slept could hear and get up as I got up at Your voice, when You started the word of Your word in Romania, Lord.

I prophesied, in the time of my body, Your work of New Jerusalem, both about the bad ending and about the new beginning, and in the year of 1955, when You started to become word in Romania, I spoke from the grave and I cried out to be taken out, for I heard Your word into the middle of Romania, the country of Your returning, and Your Scripture was fulfilled, which says: «Those from the grave will hear the voice of the Son of God and will wake up». However, I got up and became the saint of the Romanians, so that the Romanians may pray to me to intercede with You for the Romanians. But now, I am interceding from heaven for the Romanians on Your behalf, so that they may hear and believe Your word, as I heard it from the grave and got up above to help the people. I am coming from heaven with You and become word from You over the Romanians, over my kindred, and I tell it that this is the work of Your word through which You are well pleased with the people of Your word, and which stands as witness before You, Lord, for it is not by its power, and nor by its might that this little and tiny people stands as witness for You, but it stands up by Your grace, Lord, and the Romanians will receive the spirit of life and become sons of God, born from above, of Your word, born at their faith in Your word, which is coming with the clouds as it is written.

Oh, my Romanian people, I speak to you: believe into the word of God, which is coming to you on the clouds. I prophesied in the time of my body the peace of God, which was to come on the earth. This word is the fulfillment of my prophecy, but the great people have hidden my words, and behold, they have come true and are fulfilled and they come out from the bushel. Amen.

Oh, priests and bishops of the church, I left much and good advice to my disciple for the eternal life. I speak to you as well and I speak to you from heaven: do believe into the work of the word of God, Who comes with the clouds. Lift up the voice of your hearts and cry out to God to give you the gift of the holy faith. Do not be like the Jews who did not believe in the Lord, Jesus Christ, when He came down from heaven to them. Do as I did, and believe as I did, for I lifted up my voice from among those in the graves at the same time with the beginning the word of God in Romania, in the year of 1955. Get up and believe, and turn loose the chains that you put on the bishop, who was anointed by the word, for you put the chains over you, not over him. You pushed the one who believed to deny the word of God. If you do not want it, and if you do not believe it, let Romania get up to God, the Word, for it is the Lord's country, for this is what I said when I was in the body, and I spoke loving God.

And You, Lord Word, wake up from the sleep those that are sleeping and graze Your flock, Lord, and give them Your word, for You are body and word in the church. You are the One Who speaks over Romania and let it know that You are coming with the clouds. Amen.

... — Oh, Israel of My word, I am the Lord, your God. I comfort you with the saints; I make you rejoice in the glory of My word and I become a tabernacle for you as you also become one for Me.

Oh, Israel, I long for My rest in you, little son. Oh, Israel, I long to make the man rest for Me. Oh, Israel, help Me to fulfill My longing, as it is only you who helps Me. Every man works for himself and for his own good, but you work for Me, and I for you. It was for this that I created the man, but the fallen man lost My wisdom in him.

Oh, Romanian Israel, I announce Myself with you, for you are My little and tiny people, and I am the Lord, your God. Blessed are you because you received Me on My second coming, for I come as word on the earth, and you are My manger; therefore, I will reward you forever, and I will dine with you and you with Me, and I will be seen with you and you with Me, Romanian Israel, My loved people.

I hold on to you and with you, anointed sons, so that you may be able to have a will in My word with you over the world, and many will understand better and better the fulfillment of the Scriptures, which are being fulfilled through the new word declared by Me, the Word of the Father sent on the earth.

I am the Lord of the living, and I brought out from the living the bishop Calinic, the Romanian, to speak from Me a word over the Romanians and over the church, to help those that believe to believe. But for those, who do not believe, even if someone rises from the dead it is hard to believe into God's works, which take a visible image over the earth.

Here is what I declare: let the languages of the people be confused, and let those who believe come out, like Abraham, from the confusion of the languages on the earth, and let them come after Me, for I have commanded My angels to come out for harvesting and to gather for My supper all those who will believe, all those from the four winds, from the margins of the heaven to the other margins. Let the faithful man come after Me and let My holy will be done, and let them come this way. Amen.

... May you be blessed, the one who makes Me come down from Father onto the earth, My people! I bless you with days of resurrection, dear Israel, and I call you the day of resurrection before Me. I will give you warm days. Days with sun and heavenly celebrations will be with you, but ask Me to give you, as I long for your voice to meet My voice and then to meet each other on the way, a new heaven and a new earth, those from above with those from below in a heavenly union. Amen.

Go Israel, go into the middle of the crowds and glorify Me and give My way to the people. Keep yourself clean. Take care of your little garment, dear son. Take care to your listening, and take care of Me in you, My little child. Be careful to know to have in you the heavenly joy for the humility of your heart. Be careful to all My words and do not forget anything, Israel, for you are My people, and you should have God as your Father.

Go Israel; go into the middle of the crowds, for you are My messenger. Go in obedience and do nothing from you. Go with Me; go in obedience, Israel. Go My people! Amen.

Israel, Israel, be My joy, son, and be My resurrection; be My eternity in you, so that I may be your eternity, well Israel son. Oh, Israel, My new branch, and go and announce Me that I come.

Oh, Israel, vineyard with good wine, sing! Sing the Son of God, Who is coming with the clouds! Sing Him and announce Him that He is coming, and wait for My meeting, Jerusalem, people of My resurrection, people of My love. I am with the clouds of My glory and I have always stayed upon you. I am with you, New Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.
