The Word of God at the feast of the saint hierarch Nicholas
(Excerpt)

… I have the saints with Me at My coming down, and the hierarch Nicholas stands with his both hands above you, blessing you with My blessing, Jerusalem, sanctified by the Lord and by all His saints. A bishop blessing from My blessing, for I am your heavenly Bishop according to the order of My Father. I am the One, Who is holy above you. I am the One, Who rules you with an iron rod, with the word of the Holy Spirit, My people full of graces and gifts, for I make My blessing, its graces and its heavenly gifts to spring over you abundantly. Become a feast before Me and always stay in a feast with Me, Romanian Israel, with Me and with the heaven, for no one, no one on earth knows how to celebrate Me and My saints any longer. The people celebrate themselves eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage as in the time of Noah, and My coming will be as in that time, as in the time of Noah, as My word in the Scripture was. I am coming but you should always be ready for My coming and then I will come and I will be with you forever, for I am the reward of those who are saved, their Savior. I am happiness and I am love; I am comfort and I am love; I am everything that you are going to have forever, for all the fullness of your eternal gifts is in Me, those from heaven, My people.

… The people do not value Me. The people do not know how God is. The people do not look in Me to know Who God is and how He is. They want to believe that I am as they perceive with their minds, and they do not want to believe how it is from God and to believe.

Oh, My people, the people do not know what faith and life in God is. Oh, My people, the people do not have a right guide. Oh, My loved people, become path and light, bread, water and salt and garment for the people. Let the man look at you and understand how God is and what God wants from man. Let the man look at you and receive power to come after Me, as you do, and looking at you, people, to understand Me, My path from earth to heaven. You are the path for those on the earth, in order for the man to know the path to God. You are My burning torch, and I go with you through the darkness to bring the man out of the darkness into the light and to rest from mourning. I have to plough, sow and harrow with you, so that My seed may come under the soil, and that its thread may come out to light afterwards, and that I may rejoice over a new people like you; however, I want to fill the earth with it in order to redeem My work and all that are seen and unseen, which were made in the beginning by My word for the man created by Me, as it is for him that I came down from the bosom of My Father, in order to take him in Me and to give him birth from Me, so that the man may be born of heaven, as I am, and so that he may take Me in him and give Me life in him and from him, and this way to be the God of the man born from above, for the saints are born from above at their belief and they are given a heavenly and eternal home by God.

My word has become a feast into your midst, for all the heavenly hosts are with you, faithful Israel, so that I may reach into the hearts of the people with you and to prepare the feast of My second coming on the earth. Amen. The people busily prepare themselves for the Christmas feast, but they do not get ready for My birth within their inner being. And definitely, the human kind does not get ready for My second coming on the earth. But you should always prepare and always be ready, and do not get tired waiting for Me and believing that I come, for I am coming through you, through those that are faithful to Me from the earth. Amen. Be always prepared for the birth of My word into your midst. Be ready day and night for My coming, as I do come, My people, and My word is true.

Oh, what beautiful it will be My coming for you! I will come, My people, with an eternal celebration between Me and you, and My day with you will never dusk. Amen. And the heaven, the air, the earth, those from water, and the deep, will see My celebration with you, the everlasting celebration, son. But I want you, My loved child, to be the first who sees, and you will see My coming to you and to all who love Me and you, and they will become one people to welcome Me, and I, with those who are wholly faithful, will live forever, united with the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

19-12-1997