

The Word of God at the Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day

Peace to you, My little garden with disciples! I give you My peace to understand with it that all that serve Me and you to My meetings with you and with those who seek Me as word into your midst.

I am the Lord your God, My bride people, My people of Romanians. Here it is what I have done. I have commanded the rain to get out of its chambers to confuse the joy of those who come together today to the place where My name is crucified among robbers, among pagans (The International Ecumenical Centre from Vulcana Băi, r.n.). And as for you, I have gathered you as in a pavilion, as then when My apostles and I were coming together and I was feeding My disciples with the word of the Father so that they could learn the good taste of the kingdom of the heavens with them on earth. I am the Word of the Father. I am the Alpha and the Omega. Amen.

I have been looking today over the place where My name was sold on silver. The spirit opposing to Me took a known brick and laid it on the ground and on the left and on the right he has built gods that are not gods.

Ecumenical Centre – Synagogue – Church - Mosque

Sons, your place from you shines before the heaven, for I am its light. The evil spirit got angry when I built the garden from you and went to the rulers of the church from Romania and showed them the silver purse and bought with it My name and built it a house, as they say, a house of prayer for My Christians. The evil spirit arose then and built right and left; and it will build again, as he says, so that afterwards it may write peace between Me and the gods which are not God, for they who do not have Me as true God, they have false gods, and worship them; and this worship is not worship but paganism and idol worshiping instead. But I come down to you for those who put among the pagans My name to make peace between Me and their gods, and proclaim right and left that they are with the Father saying: I did not come to bring peace. I came to bring a sword to separate the faithful from the unfaithful; Christians from pagans; they who serve Me from those who serve the idol of this age; the liars who called themselves Christians from those who are pleased to Me. I came to bring a sword and I brought it. The little garden from you is Mine and you are also Mine, and I placed you from My side as a landmark between the light and the darkness, between the Romanian and the pagan, for My church is not a liar. Amen, amen I say to you: the Romanian who makes peace in My name with the pagan and with those of other nations who serve the idols, that one shall be cursed. Amen, amen, amen. I have in you a living church. If I, the Lord, did not descend to write Myself on the earth and in heaven with My church, which is you, those taken by Me out of the Romanians, I would have no place to bow down my head and let My kingdom with its word upon the earth. That is why I told you that the old ones have passed away. Amen.

The church from Romania, which called itself the true one, the Orthodox one, is no more, for it is united with the pagans, as My people Israel did, which held together with a foreign nation and was no longer with Me, and thus fell from God and became a pagan people. This happened with the church of nowadays. Oh, it was not only that it belonged to Me only with its name or that it had no love for God, but it also denied Me making a covenant foreign to the parents and violating the covenant of its fathers.

Oh, My little garden of anointed sons, who loves my name in you, as he says, that one gives into My name, not in you, for I am the workmanship of this garden. He who says that I, the Lord, am the evil spirit in this garden, that one is an evil spirit which strikes God and does not see Him. Behold, sons, the tower of Babel was built on the earth near you, (The International Ecumenical Center from Vulcana Băi, r.n.), the confusion of the languages that I, the Lord, sent it upon those who blasphemed My name, which is yours; and they blasphemed My name, which is upon you speaking from the clouds about My second coming on earth. It is written that it will be said: «Behold, Christ is in the wilderness. Behold, He is in the rooms». I said this in time of My body, but who is attentive to what I said then anymore? Sons, I live by you and with you. I am not in the chambers, for what do I have to hide to enter the chambers? He who has something to hide is hiding and is giving no light, but I come and give forth light. When I spoke to Moses I was in the mountain and spoke for the people as I am doing today. I give My word to all the people and blessed is the one who recognizes Me in this word. Amen.

My mother Virgin embraces you within her heavenly shelter, as she was embracing Me when I was a baby. She becomes word over those who love Me in order to bring them the news of the kingdom of the heavens into the hearts, that is I as King over the living creature. Amen, amen, amen.

Sons from the garden, watch into My way, because I come with word over the earth, and I come with My mother Virgin to tell everyone on the earth that this is the holy mountain of the coming of the Son of God, and many nations will come to learn from Me the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens with the people on earth. Amen, amen, amen.
