The Word of God at the feast of Beheading of St. John, the Baptizer
(Excerpt)

It is written that I work with My blessing over all those who live together for brotherhood in Christ. Brotherhood for Me is the mystery that you should speak with Me about, sons. Tell Me about it, speaking through My book, so that all man may take teaching, for I made you teachers from heaven upon the earth and sit like Me upon all things, for you have and share them from heaven, sons. Tell Me about the brotherhood in Christ, about the living together of God's sons. Amen, amen, amen.

− This deepened mystery in heaven does not find his living among those that are brought together in the name of the Lord, if those that are coming together assemble in Christ's body, in the body of the church. He, who comes to be well with God, is not in the body of the church, because the church means crucified sons, sons enlightened in the oven of troubles. They, who really are together, are those that always search their spirit and living, and then of the others who they live with, not disturbing the Holy Spirit which is working in their midst. They, who really are together in the spirit of the holy brotherhood, each one take care upon them and receive a helm upon them for the blessed work by the gift of a holy submission. They confirm their guard upon them by love, by the work of Christ, by the goodness in their heart and mind, for the glory of God among the brothers of the same kind. They let themselves be healed of the vices of their flesh and work in the hard work of God's testimony upon the men who seek to come to God.

The Spirit of brotherhood in Christ is the Spirit of Christ, Which lives in the one who gives himself, as Christ gave Himself for the life of the people by living it. This spirit dwells fully in the one who has within himself the spirit of a holy wisdom, the Holy Spirit, Who makes the saints perfect. Amen.

− Oh, your speaking with Me is My joy, as I can glorify Myself in you, sons. Speak to one another about the spirit of the holy brotherhood, and this way I should find you at My coming. I make you careful for watching, sons. Ask for the thought of Christ in you, and work it out in the light. Ask, for I require you to ask. Amen. I am forever with you. I made a burning bush of you, and I stand in its midst and speak on the earth. Live among you the deeds of the teaching from the Scriptures about My coming, for he who works the truth is shown with his deeds that they are perfected in God. This work strengthens the spirit and the mystery of the brotherhood in Christ, and those that belong to Christ have the thought of Christ in respect to any word or deed. Amen.
