The Word of the Lord, at the celebration of the St. hierarch Nicholas
(Excerpt)

… «The Lord is coming», this is what the Scripture says, but those who call themselves My church, only for My coming do they not care, only for Me do their heart not burn. Conceited people, who do not have the Spirit, set themselves as rulers upon My flock and no one gets up to come before me at my coming. «The Lord is coming», this is what the Scripture of My coming says, which does not wait for Me to come, for it is written: «The Lord is coming with His tens of thousands to make judgment against all and to rebuke all who are not faithful of all the deeds of their paganism for which they commit lawlessness, and of all the challenging words, with which they, the sinners and not fearful of God, and were delivered against Him».

Now, you little children of My garden, let us work a celebration of the word, for My word became a heavenly celebration, a celebration for the saints in heaven and on earth. My word over you is a new word, and their waiting came to its end. My saints labored on the earth for the Jerusalem from above, and I come down from heaven in a work of a New Jerusalem on the earth, for this is the reward of My saints, who have always asked Me: «Lord, until when?». Behold, I answer them: until now. Behold, I make them all new; this is what I answer them. But the man is hardened, and I work hard, and you work hard, My saints, for the man does not call you anymore to work by the life of the holy man, by the faith of the faithful man, but I declare you a new word and say: behold, I make all new, for this is written in the Scriptures about the Lord, Who sits on His throne and speaks the work of New Jerusalem, saying: «Behold, we make them all new». Amen.

Always be renewed in the love of the Holy Spirit, children of My word, for I hurry the renewal of the creation, and I help Myself with you, because I have not found faith on earth now, at My coming. I have put faith in you and I have sealed it so that I may come by your faith, to receive Me when I come to you, for I come for every creature when I come to you, and I am «a stumbling stone and a stumbling block for many, and I am for the rising and falling of many», as it is written about Me in the Scriptures. Have a great heart for My coming, for I want My zeal to burn within you; I want to burn within you with the zeal of My coming, for I protect you, preaching the word of protection over you. I command the heavenly powers to protect you, and you should protect My way so that I may come, coming. Strengthen My coming, for it is for this that I have made you. Soon, soon, you, who are weak and without name, will be My crown into My hand, and I will show Myself with you near Me before those that do not believe now that My work with you is My coming, the book of My coming, the book by which I judge the creature. Soon, soon, «all the nations of the earth will beat their breasts and will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the heavens with great power and with much glory of saints and angels», as it is written into the Scriptures or My coming. And behold, I send My angels with a resounding trumpet voice, so that it might be heard, from the margins of the heavens to the other margins, the gospel of the coming of the Son of God with the saints. Amen. The heaven and the earth will pass away, and the words of My Scriptures are coming true and I will come as in the time of Noah, as I said through the Scriptures, and no one will understand until I come. Behold, I call out as in the time of Noah, and the people see to their own things, and no one takes care of Mine until I come. You should stay in the work of My coming and always build yourselves in your holy faith for My coming and preach about My coming, telling it from end to end that the Lord is coming, coming, and He has been preached through the angels.

… I will shake from its foundation the house, which has My name on it, and I will ask all the watchmen of their fruit for Me, for they grazed themselves and sat heartlessly and with a human glory upon the multitudes, hungry of life and comfort. But here, I am the Shepherd Who cares for the life of the sheep, and feed them on the word of life and on the word of the resurrection; and the shepherds who come under the roof of My house, close the door and take My house, but I will take their flock, for it is My flock, and I will call them to account of the life of My sheep. Amen.

«The Lord is coming», this is written in the Scriptures of My coming, but all obstructed My way so that I may not come. But you, make the way of My coming even, sons of My word, for I worked out My work all the time with those that are not taken into consideration, and I put to shame the mighty ones through the weak ones, who I had no room in by their humility. A little while and the mighty ones will be put to shame of My coming upon them, for I will come to ask the fruit of their work; I will require them an answer for My house and I will make room for Myself, for I am the Almighty One.
