The Word of God at the Feast of the St. prophet Daniel
(Excerpt)

You sons from the manger be good! My glory and My garden are enough for you. Be quiet for I, the Lord, told My angel next to you, to clothe you in My mystery and strengthen My peace upon you. Amen. I dress Myself in the robe of My wrath and lie in wait in the way of the cheating man who wants now to deceive every man. I told you before that the antichrist, the man of lawlessness, is coming before Me for those who do not do My will, but I have My word with you, the breath of My mouth, which scorches those without law, for it is written in the Scriptures: «The lawless one will be revealed and the Lord, Jesus Christ will kill him by the breath of His mouth and will destroy him by the brightness of His coming». Amen. Gather together yearningly near My mouth, which teaches you and comforts you, for the faith denial brings with it the one who exalts himself above all that is called God. He, by the work of satan, deceives all sinners who did not receive the love of the truth for their salvation.

I came in due time and delivered the word against faith denial but no one listened, for all believe a lie and all fall under damnation, and to you I tell you expressly to save yourselves from the wicked men, as the faith is not for all. Here, the antichrist prepares his end by his lying, for who rises against Me, falls under damnation. His perishing is My word, the breath of My mouth. His damnation is My coming with brightness. The reward of the godless and of all that did not receive the love of the truth for salvation, their reward is the appearance of the antichrist by the work of satan, accompanied by signs and false wonders. I said that everything man has done will turn against him and each one will carry his own burden. I feel pain for the man, but it hurts Me in vain, for he did not want to know of My pain for him, and clothed Me with the robe of the wrath. I called out so that every man may hear, and he will hear Me, for man set himself against Me, and will hear Me when I tell him this.

30-12-1999.