

The Word of God on the second day of Passover

(Excerpt)

... Christ has risen! I am He Who proclaims Himself. I am He Who has taught man to say this: "Christ has risen!" for I was resurrected from the dead and those in My time preached about Me.

Oh, the mystery of resurrection is beautiful! It brings with it joy and resurrection to those who have fallen asleep. The mystery of My resurrection had worked wonderfully before My resurrection, for as long as My tomb had been closed under the seal of the Jewish bishops, I went into the dwelling of the dead and opened the graves for many, (About these see Gospel of Nicodemus: Part II. - The Descent of Christ into Hell, r.n.) and they came out and appeared in Jerusalem confessing the truth about Me, coming from the Father to lay down My life for those who were to come to life. Those who came out of the tombs stayed in Jerusalem and appearing alive were telling everyone: "Christ has risen and we have also risen together with Him out of our tombs and we are confessing the resurrected Christ."

When I called out to the Father from the cross, at My last word the Father thrilled. Then the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom, because the earth shook with power and the stones of the tombs split at My voice on the cross. Then those in the grave saw their Savior on the cross Who came to them through the gate of death and to take them out from the dwelling of the dead, and in the Scriptures it is written this: «The earth quaked and the rocks were split. The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered into the holy citadel and appeared to many». (Matt: 27/51-53)

... Oh, when I, the Lord, will appear with My entire light, you will see many of those who say that they are Mine on earth how they will hide from My light so that it may not expose them with those they hide. And not even at that time will the man humble himself; and then man will try to lock himself up, he will try to hide and become a tomb for his being that mysteriously asks for the resurrection and for the opening of the door for resurrection. Let those who love Me not be afraid, for I, the Lord, will work their resurrection, the opening of the seals of their graves, and they will come out for the work of love, the mystery of the freedom within Christ. He who works love has eternal life, and death has no power over him. He who gives life to love, that one is rich, and shares of its fruit and is alive by it.

Learn the mystery of the open door. Come close and listen to the mystery of My saints. Be open houses, for those who close themselves in their houses, they close themselves to work in the darkness, and the work of the darkness is sin which hides from nature. Behold, man hides from man; he hides within himself and I say: oh, men, when I am going to open your graves and look into them, then what will you hide? What will you do then? There is still a little while and I am going to fulfill the resurrection of the dead of those under the earth and on the earth, and I am going to look into their graves, into their bodies, into their hearts hidden in their bodies. The hour has come for you, those in the graves, to hear the voice of the Son of God, Who sounds the resurrection and the opening of the tombs so that those have been kept there may come out.

The hell will give up the dead who are in it. Death and Hades will give up the dead who were in them. The sea will give up the dead that are in it, for it is written into the prophets: «He will throw away death and Hades forever». (See Apoc: 20/13-14)

... I am He Who had been wandering away through the wilderness of the human kind for more than forty years. As long as forty years I had been working mysteriously the work of the resurrection of the creature (1955 – 1995, r.n.) and I had always had servants to work for the plan of My coming with the saints. After forty years, I came out overcoming the latches by which the lying man has been keeping Me silent; he has kept Me out of sight before people. However, I have come out with My people during these days and I have asked it to sing on earth the song of those who are redeemed, My song, My word, which calls to life every man, the trumpet of resurrection, the seventh angel, the Lord, I and the book of the judgment of the creature. (See *The Book of the Lamb \(The Book of Life\) - The Word of God*¹, r.n.) For forty years I had been calling out by the word to man to come out from judgment and to come out alone, for I come to his help with heavenly exhortation. I told him to come out because I am going to come as a Judge soon, soon. I told him to come and then I came out victoriously above with the word of resurrection, as the word cannot be bound, and it walks gathering under its vineyard those who have sided with Me.

Here I am, I have come! I am wearing a mysterious robe on Me. The mysterious robe is My word. (Apoc: 19/13) It covers Me and it becomes the robe of a judge so that when I take it out to be Savior. Amen, amen, amen.

I am He Who said: «Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. The Word will judge and accuse you, for you have not followed him before I came». (See John: 5/45-47) Behold, in the last days My word is My mantle that covers My body, that changes My name and calls Me The Word of God, My mysterious name, which takes revenge against the pride of the kings and servants, against the pride of the great and small, for I want to put an end to the man's pride and I want to give him humility instead. His pride makes man see himself that he is great, intelligent, brave and wise in such a way that man may waste his time with those that are not, for humility has no place in man once with the pride in him. However, humility brings to man love, mercy and resurrection from God. The full humility brings God as inhabitant in man with the light of the resurrection and the repentance for resurrection. What kind of dead man, who was once resurrected, would like to die any more knowing where he has come from? Which bone coming to life would let itself get dry? Behold My mysterious name, with which I have come to redeem the creature. I cover Myself with My word, making it My robe of Judge, as then when I will be without it, to be Savior, to be seen as a Savior. In the Scriptures of My coming it is written: «He has names written and a name written which no one knows but He Himself... His name is called "The Word of God."»

... Out of His mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it He should strike the nations... He has on His garment and on His thigh a name written, “King of kings and Lord of lords, the Judge.” (See Apoc: 19/12-16)

... Christ has risen! And behold, the Resurrected One is coming: He is coming and reveals the mystery of His coming, the mystery of resurrection. The Resurrected Lord is coming and He is coming into His garden; He is coming through the open doors, giving His life to everyone. Amen, amen, amen.
