

The Word of God at the feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother
(Excerpt)

I do no longer have hope in anyone on earth, for the hell reigns everywhere with the man, and I have no place where to set the foot of My coming. I do not have any clean place to let My body be carried on earth. I am coming visibly in My body, soon, soon, and I have to walk on clean earth, but the man does not clean the earth so that I may come. I said that the earth is My footstool, but the man does not want to hear what I said, and he keeps Me in the air with My body, he walks in the air with his creations and boasts against Me that he has got the heaven and the earth in his control. Oh, with whom shall I mourn over My pain? The man stands against the truth of My word and against its fulfillment. With whom shall I mourn over the pain that man inflicts on Me? How was the man able to learn to cause Me so much pain? How comes that he has not learned to let Me great over him and to stay little in My hand, under the work of My creation?

Soon, soon, I am going to come in My body on earth. I am preparing My footstool and then I am coming. I am coming soon, soon. Amen. And you, children of My coming, stand nicely before Me, for I always speak over you the creation of the new heaven and the new earth, as it is written in the Scriptures about the renewal of the world. I have you as the dough of new age and I am making with you holy things from place to place on the land with you. I have put you as dough in three measures of wheat until all of it will rise and comprise everything from place to place.

My mother Virgin is comforting My apostle and they are embracing each other for the feast of today. He is covering you with the spirit of the holy watch, for she is waiting for the sight of My glory with the saints to be revealed over the earth. She is exhorting you to have life and to have much of it, for it is great the mystery of life, which is poured out from Me over you for your eternity, children of My coming. My mother is getting sweet with you, for the longing of those in heaven is great. My mother is telling Me to bless the food for your being and I am coming back with you into the book so that she may give you warm and sweet teaching for great and holy watch, because she sees My coming to you, she sees My coming and is setting over the earth the cleanness so that I may walk with the foot of My coming. The man does not clean the earth for My coming. However, I am going to clean because the man does not do it. I do no longer have any hopes in anyone on earth, for the hell reigns everywhere, (Apoc. 12/12) ¹and I do not have any clean place to walk in My body on earth, but it is written: «Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire, and the earth will be My footstool», (See Apoc: 20/14; Isaiah: 66/1), as it is written. Amen.

¹ «Therefore, rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he only has a short time.» (Apoc. 12/12)
