

The Word of God at the feast of the Holy Cross Ascension
(Excerpt)

Behold food for the soul, sons from the manger. I have always sought to give you food so that it may be known that you have food from heaven. I have always sought to give it a good taste so that you may eat it with pleasure, with longing, with benefit and satisfaction. I keep on seeking to have satisfaction for My hard work between heaven and earth. I have always come after you and for you, like the bird that gathers food for its chicks. I have always come, because I must not be without work. I keep on coming until My coming is over and then I do no longer come and I remain forever with those who are helping Me now in My coming. Amen. My coming becomes harder and harder, it is more and more painful for Me, more and more sorrowful, and more and more difficult for Me. You should be wise and understand what I want to say, for I am saying this with deep pain.

... I am the man's joy, but man does not have this wisdom so that he may no longer have another joy and not to stay without his true joy. The man without joy from heaven is an ugly man; he is a heavy man for those in heaven, for the heaven waits for his joy and it comes from the earth. The heaven has no other joy than that on the earth. The man without understanding imagines in vain that there is joy in heaven. The table of joy for those in heaven is on earth not in heaven, and the table of the heaven's joy is empty and no one puts on it for those in heaven. The joy of those in heaven is not eating and drinking as on earth human joy. Oh, the table of joy is not so for heaven. It is the Spirit of the Lord, working and speaking at the table. The table of joy for heaven is God's love, working at the table; it is the new birth of the man who comes at this table to be born of heaven for those in heaven. This is the joy of those in heaven. The heaven is waiting from the earth, they wait from those in the body and they wait as in heaven. The heaven does not wait from the earth as those on earth wait from heaven. The heaven waits as in heaven. The heaven waits heaven from the earth. The heaven waits the new man born of Me and receiving image and likeness of Me. The heaven waits for a new age on earth, a heavenly age on earth for Me, the Lord, and for My saints, that wait for the redemption of their bodies by the spiritual work of those on earth who are holy in their body, in their soul and spirit. Amen.

... Oh, sons, there are so many to do for the life of the church! I, from the heaven, and you from the earth, and let us work as the time requires, well dear sons. Look in the Scriptures of My coming and see how this time requires. The bride needs a bride dress. The body of the church needs an ornament and a crown, sons. The weather is very bad outside, but in My church there should be a shining sun and heavenly ornaments. Amen. My speech is spiritual, and I ask you to work a spiritual thing. Keep alive the body, the soul and the spirit of the church which is let into your care, for I come soon. Blessed is the one which is given to you and is left for you for the care of the life above, as I give you for the one who takes from Me through you. He, who does not take is seen that he does not take. He, who is great, does not take from you and does not have, and has himself, and it is seen that it is so, but he, who takes from you, that one is, and he gives you work for his new making, of the new man, and who I wait for to be. Amen.

... Behold, I have been giving you food. Let no crumbs be wasted, but let it be fulfilled. Amen. Eat everything that I am bringing you, work everything that I am giving you, for only the good and whole thing has a reward. Be holy. Amen. The holiness in you is the Spirit of the Lord always, always in you, with you and among you, and let no other spirit be with you, as it is right with the saints, and give Me power to come and to bring you power, because there is no life without food. I will visibly serve you, soon, soon, and now I will serve you more and more in My work with you, for many things are to be done for My work with you, and no one knows to help you for My pleasure, because there is no longer any man with a humble spirit to love Me for Me and not for himself. With every passing day I will release more power to your help for Me with you, to have help at you for Me and that I may reach out My hand after the man who wants to be born of heaven and no longer to die after that.
