The Word of God on the sixth Sunday after Passover, of the blind man
(Excerpt)

… Oh, Jerusalem, I grow with the word upon you. I multiply the blessing from Me. I multiply your bread and water, peace and power, My people. I multiply your faith and love for God, and I work upon them to be to My pleasure, as I do no longer have a place to take faith and love from the earth according to My will. I increase your power within all My things, for I have great work with you, Jerusalem, because I have told you, son, that you will be the height on which I will appear over the earth to call the man to My will and to My way, as only My way will remain, My people. Oh, do not become sad that I have put you to work at My way and will. My way has to remain renewed from foundations and I need a new man with whom to work, as the old man is like an old skin, and it bursts out no matter what I put in it and it cannot hold anything. Every man on earth works only for himself and for those coming out of him. Every man is bound on his way from dawn to dawn, but I kidnapped you and I have taken you away within Me, My people. I was not went out with you over the world when I was telling you that I would do unspeakable miracles with just a little bunch of people and glorify Myself through them on earth, and that I would come to the end with them for My entire work, for My entire coming. There has not been any word that I spoke and not fulfill it, and it all of My words will be fulfilled. You are this fulfillment, you are the people that listen to the Lord, and My word is upon you for you to fulfill it completely. That is why I have given you thousands of angels to help you, and they serve you as they serve Me, Jerusalem son. Which father has and does not give everything to his son? And in the same way I give you. I give you, for I have, and no one has as much as I have, for I and everything that is are eternal, and you are the dearest of what I have, and the Father and My mother love you, and the whole eternal heaven loves you, too, for I have told you that you will the dearest one and man will give all his gold on you to have you. However, you are Mine, and you are the most valuable in heaven as on earth, because this was My word and it is fulfilled. Amen.

… Oh, My people, I have always blessed your birth of Me, your birth for Me and only for Me, for he who is born of Me has to be born for Me and this is the love for God and it is not otherwise. The love for God is the life without death, it is the way from the earth to heaven and from heaven down on earth, and it is the work of God, which is poured on earth out of man. This is how you are to be, Jerusalem tired for Me and for My glory over the earth. If the old Jerusalem prepared the way of My death, then you, the one of today, chosen by Me, prepare the way of My heavenly glory on earth, the way of the renewal of the world, My people. This is how you are to be, and this is how you are to live between heaven and earth, for I will give you all My glory at which you are working hard now. Amen.
