

The Word of God¹ for the fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

I am above with the voice of My word so that I may enter the book and place in it the heavenly news over the land, and open to the Lord, you watchmen of the citadel of My word, and peace to you, sons, and peace over the land!

Rise up to receive and share, for we are now writing and sending the expected news for the celebration day at Maluri village, and for what the celebration and the guests, who are preparing, awaiting My call to the celebration, sons.

Oh, this meeting of heaven and earth has drawn near, and behold, sons of My citadel, you will gather together, those in the citadel, and those with whom you have labored for the creation and beauty of the garden of paradise at Maluri village, and who, like you, carry out day by day the fulfillment required by God for those who call themselves the people of My word in these days, and it will be held on Sunday in a week, on the feast of the Nativity of the Mother of Lord, My Virgin mother, and with the word of your prayers, holy water and a service to heaven will be worked for the sealing with the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit of the garden at Maluri village, sons.

All the work that has been done will receive the seal and name of the Lord, all of it, together with the surrounding enclosure, and the pavilion full of heavenly mystery, and again, the fountains in the garden and all and everything from here, sons. I, the Lord, will take the request from you and will mark with you and with the myrrh of holiness this citadel of stone and all its beauty, and its whole spirit will be seen more and more gloriously, more and more with the power of understanding of the heavenly mystery, carried by this garden of paradise, for so it was named, oh sons.

Then another week of preparation will follow until the celebration, and then is coming the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, according to the custom of our ancestors, on the 27th of September, when I, the Lord, and those in heaven, gathered in the air of the garden, We and you, and those gathered from all over for the celebration, will gloriously open the gates of the garden, the holy and very comforting feast for those in heaven, who have come to the celebration and who are looking from above from the clouds at the glory of My coming with the saints, oh, but this celebration is also very comforting for those on earth, who will gather near you on My day of glory with you, the day of celebration of the seventy years of My word over the Romanian land, and the whole story kept secret for decades, until I, the Lord, untied the bonds of the feet of those who were hiding from the enemies to come and strengthen their lives with God at the meetings, those who have been watched, but searched by heaven, so that the people of My word could spend holy moments and the book of the word gathered, could be written in the midst of those who carried Me and carried themselves after Me, and behold now great glory, for the days have come for the Lord to be heard over the earth with the voice of His word and with the people of this word, and seventy years of Jesus Christ are written on the Romanian land in the midst of this chosen nation for the Lord at the end of time, the land of the Lord's coming to the earth as word, My beautiful Romania, the cornflower, the adornment that will attract peoples and languages for the Lord's splendor on her hearth in a visible and known way, for I, the Lord, glorify Myself in her midst with the people of My word, the faithful witness of the Lord in this time on earth now.

And here, sons of the citadel, you will work on the Sunday after this, the service of sanctification and of the Holy Spirit's inscription of the garden of paradise at Maluri village, and for which you have labored day and night, like those in heaven, who have no longer had rest, awaiting this day of the glory of the Lord, and on that day we will set forth a word of news for the celebration of the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, but it must be known that the face and spirit of the celebration will be Romanian, and not worldly, oh, that this word is a great name in heaven: Romanian, it is very great, sons, and on the day of the celebration, the ancestors of the Romanian nation will stand in the air of the village of Maluri, seated separately at the celebration, and they will look at the way the festive clothes of those who will gather, will be at the celebration, oh, that the Romanian's attire has completely become distorted and has become alienated from the ancestors, taken from the pagans and have hurt the Romanian ancestors, because they, so glorified in heaven, do not have the joy of seeing their descendants following in their footsteps and sanctifying their path to heaven, to the eternity that is coming and taking the place of time, because on earth there is time, sons, and time keeps man under its pressure, under sin, under temporality, oh, sons, and time will stand still for a moment and there will be a heavenly celebration at the Maluri village, and on that day there will be great care for holy peace, for holy joy, for prudence, and all those who gather at the Maluri, will have to learn not to be tempters on that day, not to seek conversation in pairs, not to form separate groups, not to forget that above is standing the heaven of saints, and that holy modesty and contentment with joy are needed, and order as the celebration and seating at the celebration will require, and after all of the day they will all be seated and will watch the film of the holy history of these mysterious lands, in which I, the Lord, have blown My trumpet for years and placed My written word on earth, My beautiful story with Virginia from Maluri, the one who carried God the Word and raised up a people who would testify to Me, and the Lord remained on earth as a word behind her when she ascended among the saints.

Therefore, on the feast of the Nativity of the Lord's mother, we will set up and write the consecration of the garden at Maluri village, and on the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, there will be a celebration of the seventy years of the word of God on Romanian land.

And we will still set the word for the celebration in another week, and then we will wait for the celebration.

Now much peace to you, sons, for we have much to prepare for the celebration! You are restless, and therefore, I give you strength and freshness from heaven, for the body is weak, and the spirit must be able to do much now, sons. All united for another week and another and there will be complete fulfillment, and so will the joy, sons.

I want to be received by those whom I am calling apart to the feast, and I will appoint ministering angels for the fulfillment of My will. Behold, there is much to be accomplished, and work must be done from heaven to complete the glory of the feast.

Oh, sons, peace to you, peace I am leaving to you! Sit at the table and manage your tasks to carry and fulfill with advice among yourselves.

Oh, sons, how I love it when I work with you in such wonderful works! Oh, sons, pray unceasingly, for time is very short, and therefore, pray while working! I love you very much and I comfort Myself by loving you. Comfort yourselves also by loving one another for Me, sons. Those on earth love one another, woe to them! However, you love one another as I have loved you and as I love you, for love and its work can only be learned by man on earth from Me, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.
