The Word of God

… Not even when I was on the cross, was I so sad as I am today. Sons, I do not give you brandy. Brandy is from the devil. I give you grapes but drink with measure. I have given you the plum as a fig, not to boil and turn it into brandy. Little children, behave yourselves and do not spoil the things of the Lord. Woe to you plum tree for you yielded the plum and you were turned into brandy. I speak spiritually. Listen carefully and buy wisdom if you do not have it. But you buy only pigs, cows and horses. Buy wisdom too. For you worship both God and the evil spirit. You fast but at the same time you lie. You do charity but you steal as well.

Nothing on earth can save you on the day of judgment. The earthly judgment does not resemble with the heavenly one. Heavenly witnesses and lawyers do not receive lots of money, but take you on the basis of the book instead. They do not overlook anything. It is only the Blessed Virgin Mary who is merciful, for this is why the mystery is done on earth, so that she may pray for you to have her as an intercessor. That is why I say to you; do not commit any more sins!

… Open your heart, because otherwise the fire comes from Sodom and Gomorrah. For tomorrow morning you will see as your house burns and as all your cattle run away with terror with fire on their back. Take a good look for all those that you see naked and talking with guys, you will not see them anymore, for these have brought the end on earth. Sons, do not let these things to enter in your houses. Do not let fire to enter in your house. Let God see the sign at your window to escape. And if in your house you let your daughters to be naked and your sons as those in Sodom, of the world, then you will not get away, you and your house and your cow and your things will burn.
