The Word of God

… Make the best of you to get rid of these dogs, for this is how the beast seeks for her food. See, you Christian, not to fall into the mouth of the beast, as God sends His angels, but you do not want to be on good terms with them and run away as from other defiled beings, but I tell you that whenever you hide, God's eye sees and discovers you, to be cleansed of your committed sin. Come to your senses, as this is how I told Noah: "Noah, do this and that!", and Noah was working according to My command, and when the plague came, neither his sister nor his lineage and no one could be received. And they stopped saying as they said until then: "Noah is mad!" Now you do not want to obey and do not want to conform to the way of Christians.

… How the legs, which today make men crazy after them, will scorch! How the lips, will scorch! How the eyes and eyebrows made by you will scorch! How those fine hands that men like will scorch!

… My Holy Mother says: "O, God, my child, look how the good man and the bad one eat You like wolves and they do not believe, they do not believe that You are God from heaven! Oh, my Son, what will be there, what will happen on this land? Before Your arrival there were no such things. Tell me, my Son, what will happen to the one who eats and drinks Your blood but he does not want to be the angel of heaven, who does not want to join Your army?

Oh, you Christian, how long have I wept for you! Oh, you Christian, how long have I kneeled and prayed to my Son to forgive your great sin, for no one can take it away and there is no place under the sun for your great sins. I do not speak for the foreign countries, because they are pagans. I speak to the Romanian country, for it is not pagan, it is a Romanian country, in which God shall make His plan, plan that He has to make. "Wake up, Christian, from the dead sleep!"

The Lord asks you not to receive this devilish sign, and fight the right fight, so that he may not deceive you. Take care of the children, for the antichrist is rejoicing greatly to bring them into his union. (U.T.Y. – The Union of the Communist Youth, r.n.). Keep this secret and do not sell one another, for this thing is not from you, but it is from Me, from a God that no one can see, but only the one who is with Him. For the time is coming that My host may stand there and the wicked one, over there, and they will stand face to face and you may know that these will not fight with a sword rather they will fight with an invisible power. The enemy will be kept under your foot, but be a truly Christian. Do not dye yourself, son.
