The word of God to His chosen Irineu

Peace from heaven, peace and good strength from God! Peace to you, My loved child from heaven! Peace and blessing and empowerment in order to get up in faith and work according to the counsel of My will!

Get up and take heed, but listen to Me, so that you may stand up and work out My plan, for there will be not much time and you will confess the accomplishments that were spoken about beforehand by the spring of My words which you are feeding on as well, since I have discovered to you My work from these days, the work in which you stay and accomplish those that come towards you through My servants. Make yourself a book to write in all the words that I come to you with, for this book will testify in the days to come. And behold, add these words to this book too and work according to My well-made plan. I cannot take this spring to the surface; I cannot get it out now, but here, I work to share My work to be worked out.

I have come to you by My words and assure you that I am God, and I have placed you to be faithful to My work of these days. I have spoken from heaven and I put My servants to write on earth so that My foretold accomplishments may be seen by this heavenly thread, by this ray of light, from which I share light and life with Me and fulfillment. I am God from everlasting; and from now on, I am; I am and work the secret of the fulfillment of the times, and I do not find faith on earth. No one searches with My Spirit, and the spirit of the world has darkened the time so that the man may no longer search those that are written in all ages, and which testify about God and about His works through the Book of the Truth.

I met within the time of My body the Samaritan woman and spoke with her at Jacob's well, but she knew the words of the prophets and knew and believed that the Messiah's time would come, and when I told her about the fulfillment which was in front of her eyes the Samaritan woman believed in Me; she believed that I am the God Who was prophesied about, the Messiah, the One that was written about that would come and her faith remained as a testimony. Oh, and she belonged to a foreign people and still believed in Me, My child, and she went to her city and testified about God. She had a great heart and if I met with her, I let a light upon her, and My light remained in her, and she left and shared light from Me; she left with zeal and longing, with faith and love to share the light in the lands of her people.

I chose My apostles from Galilee and told them to follow Me and My teaching, and they believed in Me and remained with Me. And because they believed, My light remained in them, and then they spread the light into the world and shared My clean light. They shared Me, for I am the light of the world. I am, but who is still sharing Me today? Oh, who is sharing Me the way I am? Nobody, My child. I tell you too that no one has Me the way as I am, no one, and here are those words that once were saying: «When the Son of man comes, will He really find faith on the earth anymore?».

Those that say that they carry Me lie to Me; they who testify about Me lie to Me, as they are close with their lips to Me, but where are they with their hearts? Where? They are with their hearts in pleasures and liberties. They took the law of liberty and made it reign over them, and behold, they took over the power to share this law upon those that are disobedient. Oh, woe to the blind who is led by a blind guide, for the great horde of the chief men that sits as a judge over My creature reached to be blind too. Oh, who is to share Me anymore the way I am? Who, as from top to toe, all the body is full of wounds, wounds that give to destroy the last drop of the creature's life. Behold My child, the Scriptures which say: «Neither you enter, nor do you allow those that are entering in to enter My kingdom». I remind you now, of that Scripture which says: «I did not come to bring peace, but rather division. I came to make those that do not see to see and to make blind those that see. And the Pharisees felt it and said: „Are we not really blind too?”» Oh, and you saw what kind of answer they received: «If you were blind, you would have no sin, but because you say that you see, your sin remains upon you.»

Oh, My child, there were years when the unfaithful beast reigned, (The red beast – the communist dictatorship, r.n.) and when I was putting forth a priest above them who was speaking according to the truth and through whom I was calling out as through John, the Baptizer, as well, when he was saying: «You offspring of vipers, how will you escape from the wrath to come?» Oh, what will happen with a man like that? For he was taken and hidden into the prisons and My words of light were put into the darkness, the same way as it happened with John, who stood up to prepare My way and My appearing into the middle of the world.

There were years of fog and I came and showed Myself truly in due time, as I spoke by the words of this work by which I have been speaking today as well, in order to fulfill then all My word. I came long before and spoke through this heavenly thread about the foretold time for the crushing of the beast, and about the time spoken of by the Lord by those that were fulfilled in due time.

Oh, the Lord is hardly understood and believed, for those of today say as it was written that it would be heard: «Where is the promise of his coming?» But woe to the unfaithful people, for the Scripture says: «God is not a liar in His promises and will not be slow in coming. But He is long-suffering towards us not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.» Oh, My day is pressed on and all the old things will pass. Therefore, My child, I am looking at those in heaven for they are crying. But those on earth, instead of sanctifying themselves, becoming devout and hastening of My day, lie in disbelief and here, My coming is drawing near and is coming with fire, for this is written and every eye will see it. But I have a remnant which has to remain faithful to My promises and wait for the new heaven and new earth considering My patience as deliverance, but they should not let themselves fall from the strongholds where they are set by My promises.

I have come and always said by the words of this work: „Blessed is he who will not be crushed against this rock. Blessed is he who is washing his life into this vessel”, for the rock is the Lord, Himself, the One Who dwells in this mountain until the end, by the words of this work, for the teaching which will flow through this work will rise above the peaks of the mountains, so that the multitudes may flow to this river and drink clean and untroubled water from this rock and to wash in this vessel, in this saving teaching, for this is written: «From Zion the law will come out and from Jerusalem rivers of living and clean waters will flow.»

Here, I chose Romania to be Mine and to come and make Myself perfect in its midst and to stretch out My tent by this teaching that I will be speaking with once again and with the peoples, languages and nations. I chose this land to make Eden and Canaan out of it for the fullness of times; to make a heavenly Jerusalem out of it and to shed light from here over the peoples, so that they may see the entrance gate into Canaan.

I have spread the word to the peoples on earth to let Romania be known and that the people may believe in My work that was spoken about beforehand, for that is why I arose to speak to the peoples about those that I have to fulfill. And here, I am talking to you My child; I am talking with you as with a friend, because you are close to Me and to My work, and to My work which speaks in Romania.

I told this to My apostles: «I do no longer call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing, but rather I call you My friends.» You are My friend, you are My child, you are My love; you are with Me and on my side, as Nicodimus was in the time of My body. He too belonged to the Synod under the rule of Anna and Caiaphas, but Nicodimus was with Me and after I passed through the death; he went to Pilate and asked for My body to take it from the cross. Joseph and Nicodimus went with fragrances and did everything for My burial, for they were looking forward to God's kingdom and were hoping to see it. They remained with Me because they believed in Me. They were in the bodies in the times of My body; they were in the time of My passion, death and resurrection of My body, and here, you are in the time of the victory, appearance and glory of My Spirit through you; you are in the time that I have been working in the end of the fullness of times, after the counsel of My own will.

When I delivered this word to the peoples about what I have to fulfill during these days, I said that I would arise to judge kings and lords, the rich and powerful, slaves and free people, for My angels will release affliction and anguish over those who have not got the seal of the Living one, and I said that I would let My wrath loose over the peoples and the smoke of the fire will rise, in which the Babylon will burn. Behold, I said and I will fulfill, and I will rise the ephah between heaven and earth, for My words cannot be abolished.

My blessed child, the loved and faithful one, I am coming towards you again to confirm your steadfastness. I remind you, we both remember of the work of the faith of many tools of old, that in the time of My body I had Melchior behind Me, who was protecting Me of the masters of that world, and he was going behind Me from my birth to the time of My passions; the time when I had to be given into the hands of the rulers of the world for the fullness of time. The Lord was persecuted at that time as well as is now, and whenever I and My disciples were caught into troubles of the world which we were walking in, Melchior appeared presenting the royal seal and thus he was saving the Lord and His ones from the troubles of the law of the wickedness and disbelief.

I have come now with freedom for My faithful ones, (Freedom after the anticommunist Revolution from 1989, r.n.), but look, the sons of the light are striving and sacrificing for the freedom of the earthly life, and the sons of My Zion do not stand up to fight for the resurrection from the death of sins. The heaven is crying, the saints and martyrs, who shed their blood for the sake of the One Who gave Himself as a sacrifice for the world, are crying as well. But today, when the end and fullness of time is coming near, no one is resisting to blood for the sake of Jesus Christ.

Behold, I stay ready to show My appearance. I chose this earth to make a visible glory in it and victory upon the world, upon the spirit of the world, and here is what I find; that as in the time of Noah, the world is drinking and eating, marrying and giving into marriage; and here is I want to work in the midst of this people; I want to wake up workers; I want to make them know My power from the springing faith; I want to show Myself and to be the fulfiller of my words by which I addressed to the rich young man who wanted to follow Me, but did not care about his things. And I told to the disciples who were looking at My meeting with him: «What are impossible with men, are possible with God.» It is possible, My child, but I want to rise and sow faith upon many big hearts, for I cannot, son, I cannot work except by those that are faithful to the words and prophecies by which the Lord is making His works known. I cannot overlook those that are written, as this is written: «I fulfill nothing until I let it be known by the prophets.»

Oh, I cannot take the spring of My words out to the surface. Believe Me that it is not possible now, and that is why I have come towards you and let you know that I will seek to cover well My spring and My servants that I work through. Here, it comes soon that My word, which speaks about those that are called by Me, will be seen; they are not wise, powerful or with a good name according to the flesh, for this is how the Lord made the selection of those vessels, the ones by which He put to shame and have the head of those, who thought of themselves to be wise, go bald. The Lord raised the lower ones in order to bring down those that are on heights, so that no one may be able to boast against God. Behold, the darkness covers the face of the earth, and who can hold back the power of the evil? Let them stand up and hold it back. I will lose the wisdom of the teachers and I will exterminate it, and that Scriptures that says: «Where are the wise and the scribe of this age?» will be seen, for the Lord will reveal their madness and wisdom.

Stay with Me at work, for I want to use your faith, but I want you to stay well placed by faith, for I am faithful to My promises, My loved one. I will work with power of spirit from now on, but My Spirit is making Himself known by those in the body. Behold, I speak on earth, but I need bodies. If I had no hands to have written the words of My Spirit with, how could I have made My book, which is one as I am One, the Lord, Jesus Christ? I am the One Who fulfills everything, but by those that are worked out by Me.

Let yourself be worked out and then do your work, for I do not give you to work what you cannot do, as at the same time with the work that I give you, I also give you power in your work with Me, but rejoice with Me and work for Me with gladness. I cannot call happier another one, more than the one who works for Me and for My plan, for that one will be put over many things into My kingdom. Behold, I tell you that it is by you that I will share many words from Me, and you will be between Me and those that I will be working upon, for we will work much from now on and will prosper day by day, but we will not reveal My spring yet. This is how we should work, so that our work may remain, and this way we will hasten the good time and all My establishment, but this secret and My work needs to be kept well; I need to have protectors of My work even now, for the prophet Zachariah kept the secret of My incarnation; he had kept the secret of the time of My body since the time of John, the Baptizer's conception and until his passing to Me. Work with Me and you will have no greater joy, for you will be My witness before the peoples when I will come above with My secretly worked thing, by which I work out your salvation, which is to come soon. Be great in work and word where you are doing your job for God is One over all creature.

Romania has been Christian since its birth. Romania has been Orthodox, My child, and the Lord is one. It hurts Me when I see division in My Zion, but My Spirit will soon reveal My will over Zion in the days to come, for the church is the Zion. It was the same in the time of My body, but the Lord will work over this chosen land upon the church and will be victorious, and he will make peace in one single and apostolic church, towards the forgiveness and reconciliation of the creature, for God is One. Romania will be My queen and will be clothed in a single garment of glory and she will be great over many peoples through My church in it, for the Lord will have to be glorified in this mountain of blessing.

I have spoken with you My loved child. Oh, how much I want you to rejoice in your spirit! I want you to be faithful, for I am true in the work by this thread of heavenly work. The doubt seeks to come in and halve My power in you, but I clothed you with power of the spirit and faith, and let us remain well united and to overcome our weaknesses! Let us come, for I will continually strengthen you, as I did with Peter, who, although was seeing Me in the middle of the water coming towards him, he doubted that it was I, but I strengthened him if I heard him asking for My help.

Come, for I am! Let us overcome! Come, for your reward is great in heavens! Bring with the heart close to Me and to you your neighbor, that one whom I called her the apostle of My Romania. Bring her to My work, for I want to make her the apostle of My work. I will be the One Who is able to do what no one can on earth; I, for I fulfill them all. I give you a special power so that you may unite her with My work, for by this thing that I work in Romania, I will soon bring the glory and happiness of this chosen land. I want to make a good connection with My anointed one, for we will have to work according to My plan, as all heaven is with you. Behold, I go ahead with the word and speak with her now, but first let us finish this book with the sweetest word: peace!

Peace to you, child loved by heaven, and let you watch out with justice over the flock! Be empowered and blessed by the power of the Holy Trinity, for we will work and your victory will be great! Amen. Let My Spirit fill you up with comfort and peace. Peace upon you from My little Mother, who loves and protects Romanians! There is no victory and there is no peace without Me. Remain in Me for without Me you cannot overcome, My children.

I let My peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.
