The Word of God for the appointment of the land of the garden of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

The peace of the Holy Spirit and the blessing of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit! Peace and good will and a spirit of faith may come down in the moment of this heavenly counsel obedience! Amen.

The God of the Most Holy Trinity speaks by the Word of the Holy Spirit, and all are worked out by the word, from the beginning to the end of this beginning, for behold, it is being worked out a heavenly mystery of a new beginning.

It is written in the Book of the Truth that, at this time, the end of the world, of the lawlessness and of disbelief is coming, and a new beginning of a new heaven and a new earth is coming; a new godly beginning is coming, as it is written by the prophets. The hour is coming for the Son of the man to be glorified and that is why the Lord started in this place the new beginning of the new work, which will give light from you from place to place and everywhere on the earth, so that the earth may be new, and that is why the Lord started into this place a resurrected life and a living and clean life; and that is why He started with you the work of a new land, which will be worked out through you from place to place and then all over, so that every soul may be a new heaven, and each heart that will be new among those that are made new, for the Lord brings the man to his life from Eden on that time, in the garden of Eden where the man was placed in the beginning. The new Jerusalem is worked out again, and the work of the New Jerusalem from heaven is being established, and it is being done quickly and wonderfully, and all the creature will be silenced upon this wonderful view which will shine quickly upon this people, for Romania is the land that is prophesied about, in which the Lord, Jesus Christ will come down in a visible glory at this time. This is the time that the kingdom of Israel may be restored, for Israel means a faithful people, a chosen people, a loved people, and it means a people which is called and blessed. This is the time when God works out the new beginning secretly, which will be shown afterwards upon all the heights of the times up to this time, for behold, the Lord is announcing his kingdom. Amen.

This is the place of the testimony for the beginning of God's kingdom, for the Lord is in this holy place and is speaking from here, and it is heard all over the earth, and the earth exults and renews itself from place to place at God's voice. And multitudes of people will come and flow from all sides to see and know the Lord's glory which will be shown upon this chosen Jerusalem, upon this heavenly Jerusalem, for the mystery, which is worked out by the word, is coming down from heaven into this dwelling.

From the very beginning God has been working everything by His word, and nothing was done without Him making it known beforehand, and then He set to work and He worked by His word through the prophets, and it was nothing worked out without His works being proclaimed by the prophets. It is written into the book of the prophets about these days too, when the Lord is getting up to choose the Jerusalem again, and to choose again all the faithful ones, and to come into them to be their God and to go with them presenting them as the light upon the world, so that the world may come to life under this light.

Here, I sit in a heavenly counsel with you, My children, that I gathered together to be with Me during this time and to work for Me and to be here now as workers together with the heavenly mysteries, which work to establish on the earth the things that will come down from God by the word. Neither of you are strangers here for you are chosen and prophesied about and have your election for this time since your birth, for this work and for this place which you were picked up in by a godly trumpet. I sit again with you in counsel, for the heavenly word is the roof, the power and the work for which you stand alive during these days. A very little time, children, and everyone around you, and all who struck you, and all who heard of you by the testimony of the word coming down here from heaven and spread all over, for which the heavenly word came down, a very little time, and everyone will see and rejoice of the work which was done by God with you.

I have the trumpet of this time and I sounded it and I put the sounded words under a mystery and a sealing; I put them until they are to be take over and proclaimed from the top of the roofs, as it is written by the word of God. I woke up the trumpet from its place, and I spoke by it on the earth, and behold, I raised then from that town a son and planted him out here, into this land, where this holy place is built. I came by the word and put the spirit and the holy anointment on the crown of this son and I made him an intercessor between Me, a prayerful man for the people which ate from this heavenly table, the people which spoke with God by this heavenly word coming down on the earth during these days; however, it has never been a more perfect work like this in all ages, for the people of Moses spoke with Me, but not like this people. And behold, this people has in its midst more than the people of Moses had, for the Lord spoke with Moses, and Moses spoke to the people the word of God, but in this heavenly work, the word of the Lord was face to face with the word of the Christian. The Lord spoke this time with Israel mouth to mouth, and the Lord will perfect this mystery upon this people, and then for all the nations, for all God's creature. I came down in a living spirit and a heavenly anointment on the forehead and upon the hands and in the heart of this son from here, and he said this: „Behold, Lord, I am your servant. Be it to me according to Your word", and since then the Lord has been resting upon this holy place, for this place is holy and this roof is to be feared, for all the hostile powers, and the hosts of the evil spirits cry far away from the bounds of here when they see that the end of their evil work is being prepared; when they see this thing which is being worked out among the walls of this holy roof.

This roof is the sealed mystery of the seven thunders which spoke in the hearing of John, the Evangelist, in the time of his apocalyptic vision, which is written into the Book of the Truth. This mystery was sealed until this time, as it was written, and behold, the time is coming for this fountain to be unsealed; this spring of work which flows from heaven into the midst of this people, for Romania is the New Canaan, which will spring now into the eyes of all the nations.

I had heavenly signs come down into this holy dwelling and I will rise with the mystery that I am working at now in this covering. I am preparing this path and I am with all the heavenly hosts at work over those from here and I keep them under a heavenly helm, and they walk completely according to the word that is among them from the heaven and are faithful to the word of God.

Behold the God's word for he, who is written down with his whole name on this earth here, for there is another name written down on this earth, and the Lord sees the name of this son that is written beside the name of God's chosen and anointed one. (It is about the earth which the monastery is built on, the owners being two brothers, r.n.). The son who has a heavenly anointment is Mine with everything that belongs to him. When I entered the Zacchaeus' house, he believed in Me and bowed down with all his heart before the Lord saying: «Lord half of my goods I give so that You may be the Savior of my kindred», but this son said this: „Lord, behold Your servant. Be it to me according to Your word." And, behold, My lovers, My word has always been since then before My son, and he has done it according to My word. He gave himself over not only with half of his goods, but he completely gave himself over with all he had from God. But the boundary of this land, sealed by God, and the boundary of this covering, sealed by the godly anointment myrrh, has another name written in it; the name of the son of this land contained within the sealed limits of this mystery. There is still another step, and these boundaries will be sealed even better, for the Lord is the Master of the sky and of the earth, and the Lord works according to the plan made out from eternity, and no one can stand in the way of those that are set from the beginning, for everything that is contained within the limits of this boundaries, will be a sealed land and will give light and share resurrection around and over the nations that will hear of this heavenly glory, and that will come closer, and will not be able to climb over the wall, for no one that is filthy, unclean, or accustomed to defilement and fornication of any kind will be able to enter; and he will be called the rock of foundation of the church for God's creature resurrection. Behold, in a few days we lay the witness rock of this beginning of the new church and it will be to raise an altar of witness, which will speak about those that have been worked secretly, according to the commandment coming down from the heaven.

In the book of the prophecy of this work that was made by the word, it is written that the new people, which will arise from this beginning, will be turned into a lamp upon the earth by the Lord and will illuminate with a heavenly light, for the heaven, came down in all the power of its work, is here; because here, the salvation for all creature that was and is, is being worked out; and it is also being worked out the salvation and a spirit of faith from this power worked here by God. It is heard and enters the heaven every word that is spoken here towards the heaven; and look, every word, which comes from heaven to be shared where it is given, is heard here.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Lord worked by the word and made all that are seen and unseen. God spoke the word and the word became flesh, and this way all that are were made. And behold, the Lord is about to finish His work, and He works now as in the beginning; He works by the word and what He speaks come into being, and as it was in the beginning so will be in the end of the work of the word. The Lord said: «Let there be light» and it was light. The Lord said: «Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters» and it was so. And the Lord said: «Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear» and it was so. And the Lord said: «Let the earth put forth herbs on a dry land» for the dry land was called earth, and it was so: and it gave forth grass, yielding seed after its kind; trees bearing fruit after their kind, and this was a heavenly mystery, a great and difficult mystery to understand; this work rising from the word. And the Lord said that it shall be a greater light to rule the day and a lesser light to rule the night, and it was so. The Lord said that there shall be fish in the water and birds and animals, and all shall have life in them, and it was so, because the Lord said and it was done, and all were made by the word. And then, God of the Holy Trinity, the Father, together with the Son and with the Holy Spirit, made the man according to His likeness and made him ruler upon everything that was done by the word. And the word of the Lord gave the man as his food all the grass with seed in it and all the fruits of the trees bearing fruit. And it was so.

My loved ones, the Lord worked by the word and made that beginning and then He rested however, the man spoiled God's work and fell from heaven, for this work was a heaven; it was a heavenly blessing; it was a heavenly Eden, and that happiness would have been forever, and the word would have been in all after that, to the fullness of this happy beginning, and sin and death had not entered upon God's work if the man would have listened to his Creator.

Behold, I tell you a new mystery: the Lord works once again by the word; He works once again a beginning; a new beginning. And what kind of beginning does he work? And why does He work a new beginning? He works to make the one that fell from happiness to come back, to raise him back into the glory that he fell from. God also works in this time by the word, and behold, God's word came down in this covering, and the Lord started from here the new beginning whose way goes back to the condition of the first worked out beginning. This is the work, prophesied to be in this time.

The work which is working in the covering, has spoken today to the other son who has his name written within this boundaries; for the one that did not understand God and did not follow Him according to the word coming down.

Be careful, son of these parents, for your younger brother belongs to the Lord with everything that he has; with all his life. Take heed and do not forsake the Lord Who is speaking, for if those from the beginning did not escape the punishment because they did not listen to the word which was speaking on the earth, how much more those from now who hear the word and depart from He Who speaks from the heavens. Take heed, take heed to God's word, for here is what the Lord is speaking to you: the land of this boundaries has a heavenly election, and the Lord has worked in this time and sealed it to be a holy land and only the clean ones may tread on it; those with whom the Lord works the mystery of this time. This election was from the beginning, and this is a land chosen by God. The eye of the Lord was all the time upon this patch of the holy land, and the work of the Lord, which was prophesied to be worked out on this land, came down in due time. This covering is holy, and it is worked in it a threefold sacrifice every day, after a godly commandment. There is still a little time and the Lord makes a great light and a visible glory upon this covering. It is the covering of the testimony of this time when the Lord was at work.

I raised from the town you come from, this working trumpet to the end of the world times, and to the beginning which comes after the end of the wicked things. I raised Verginica. I also raised another son from this town, whom, behold, I anointed with a heavenly anointment, and he is a son of the new covenant. Be wise with the Lord, for the Lord asks from you your word to write it down as a testimony. Here is what I write: this covering and this holy and sealed land belongs to the Lord's work; it is of the Lord's plan. This younger son is the successor of this foundation. His name is written in the right of the inheritance from here, for he belongs to God and only to God and he is the heir of this family which is written down as the founder of this land, of this covering which hides the Lord in his manger. Rejoice for the Lord raised a savior from the mist of this house for the salvation of this entire house. Amen. Speak your word for the Lord is here and is writing the speech of your word. Behold, your inheritance will serve from now on to the work, for which this inheritance was meant to be, as near this holy covering the Lord is building now a strong tower, a tower of testimony, a rock of resurrection and of the beginning of the holy and clean church; a new and righteous church, a dwelling of testimony over the nations of the earth, which will be here from all sides to see the glory of this land. All who live within these boundaries work for Me; they work after My word and belong to Me, and I will make them useful and to the salvation for many nations, which will bow down to the New Jerusalem of this time, for Romania will be the New Canaan and will have the leadership of New Jerusalem over it, which, behold, is coming down from heaven through the word; and behold, the heavenly Jerusalem takes life from this beginning from here. This land and this new covering has a heavenly dwelling come down, a heavenly and clean living, and this is the power from which a living life, a new heaven and a new earth will be seen upon the nations. They who live in this land can do nothing by themselves, for they are submitted to the heavenly power and to the word from heaven which accompanies them in any work which is to be fulfilled.

Behold your work that you have to do. I want to hear your word and to write down, for I am your God, and you know Me, but you do not want to walk in My steps. Behold, I will work salvation for you, for I owe this, but I will work with justice to save you. Behold, I speak a word to you: this land will belong from now on to the Lord. This is My word, and your word will be written and will stand either for or against you, but My word will also testify so. I do not want to judge ourselves, and I do not want this way with you. I want you well, but you should also do the same, for I am God and not man, and I have the heaven under My submission, and I have the strength to glorify Myself for power and greatness. And because you give to Me and to My work the share which is under you name, behold, say and I will write. What do you want the Lord to do for you? What do you want the Lord to give you? Say and I will listen and I will do according to your word and I will write your word. But let your word be given as My word and My plan is. Not many had what you put before from the Lord, but you should be careful, for the Lord is a mighty God.

When I arrived with My people Israel to the borders of Canaan, after I took it from the bondage of Egypt through Moses, I gave order to My chosen people to enter into Canaan, but that people did not open the gates so that My blessed people may enter. And I gave order to the priests to sound the trumpets seven days around Jericho and I said to My people to stand with their hands raised up to Me. And after the priests sounded the trumpets seven days, the walls of Jericho fell down and the blessed people entered the land, which was promised to their fathers through the word delivered by the Lord's mouth.

Get up with a mighty heart and with a spirit of faith and do My will, and I will be and I will remember of your faith and your inclination. Get up and speak and the Lord takes care and writes down those spoken by you. Say, what do you want Me to do for you and what do you want Me to give you? What do you ask from Me? The Lord asks you and waits for you to hear your word. The Lord is read to listen to you. But look, you will be saved or not saved by your own words. Choose the Lord and stand with your word for Him and not against His plan. I am God, and you are My creature. May it be to you according to My word! Amen.

Peace to you, and be faithful and humble, for your that was born under this roof is great! Peace to you! Be the doer and give to the Lord your heart, for it is made by Him.

Let it be fulfilled the word that came down now and let it not be opposed. Amen. In the beginning was the Word, and the Lord said, and all were made. Here now: the Lord said and will fulfill His word, and let those that I speak with, work according to My word and it will be well with them.

Peace to you, those from the house of this heavenly inheritance! Peace and fulfillment, as in heaven so on earth and upon you! Amen.

And you, with whom I speak now, take heed and forsake the idols and defilement. Get up and shake yourself, so that you may be able to remain reconciled to God. The emptiness and its idols are coming to an end, for a new light arises. Fight to get a clean life and to bring you to the condition without death! Help your father who gave you birth to give up all that separates him from the holiness and from the work which works salvation and separation between good and evil. Fight and help him, but do not stand in his way. If you have wisdom, use it for My service; do not give it all to those that are strangers to Me. Keep from it and work with it and for Me, for you work for your own good.

Peace to you, and fulfillment after My word! Peace and New Jerusalem upon your hearts, and upon your bodies! Peace and celebration with the heaven to be written on this day! Peace and joy from you to heaven! Peace and not disbelief or opposition! Peace to you and be faithful heirs for God's kingdom, which has come down into your midst! Let him who has ears, hear with them. Amen.

This is a day of testimony. Let this day be written by Me and by you, for on this day the Lord is speaking the name of the small one from this house, on the earth. Iliuţă, you should be with My name and with your name up to My glory upon this heavenly inheritance. You are the heir of this family and all your house will be saved by you if it follows Me. Amen, amen, amen.

25-06/08-07-1991

Document:

Concluded today, July 24, 1991, between Bunea Daniel and Bunea Ilie, with the occasion of the agreement for the use of the house of the first one, from Glodeni Vale, on an endless term.

Concluded today, in the presence of the members of the family, following that the legal procedures to be fixed afterwards.