The Word of God at The Feast of the Lord's Ascension

The Son of the Godly Trinity delivers a word upon His garden prepared by the word to stay before Him and to hear His voice upon His chosen garden. Amen.

I am the Word. Peace to you, as My name is the Word! Peace and ascension to you, for it is a feast of ascension! Behold, My ascension to the Father was that I may go and to be able to come to those that bear My name in them. And the ascension of those that believe in Me is My coming back to them and for what is there, that I may be with them, as where they are I may also be. And behold, I am with Mine, with those that believe and hear the Lord, for such work has the Lord in this time.

Peace upon My Romania and its ascension to Me, so that I may come to it, as I promised, that on the day when I ascended near My Father, I saw the plan into the hand of our Father and I saw the birth of a people and the glory that My Father gave it at its birth, for this people was anointed from its birth, and since then and until now the heaven has been working at its glory.

The opposing spirit has no longer had rest and got up to persecute this people and Romania was under its cross all the time, but the anointment from the beginning has kept its seed healthy and the Holy Trinity came with Romania, and the time is coming that its patience to be rewarded. And you, those that are established by Me to stand before Me, strengthen your hearts and your knees in the hope of this promise and stand with your hands up, so that Romania may receive its glory. It is a day of ascension. Exalt your hearts, faith and crying and stay well in the name of Romania. Stay into My glory; stay with Romania in front of Me and carry it to Me, so that I may come to it and give it My glory.

I come down to you with strength and power to give you from them so that you may be able to overcome, My dear, for I do not let you without heaven; I do not let you without victory and you will be able to overcome with Me. It is because of this that I went to My Father, so that I may also come to those that are Mine, to be able to come to you, who stay before My glory, which is to be seen upon Romania.

Let your hearts not be troubled for Romania's searching out. I am, and I am to wake it up and not to find it without watching. I have mercy on it. I came with a shake but I mixed the mercy and I work to wake it up. I sent a letter to the anointed one of Romania (The King Michael, r.n.) and I told him that I will come to wake it up and I did not work until I spoke first. I told My anointed one that I will be ruthless to prepare his coming. I told him that by the power that I let over this garden I will work powerfully and he will come to his place. I want to come and to leave a letter again so that My letter should reach him and that he may be in those things from Me, and that it may be worked with the heaven for the new path, but lift up the voice of those that are promised and stay under My power to spread a true faith for the work of this garden; for I am.

Let Him Who speaks at you, be heard and not denied, for behold, the heaven works together with the earth. The Lord works a new heaven and a new earth, and this victory has been waited for by ages, My dear. I want to embody the holy heaven in those that are chosen of the Romanian people, so that the Lord may have pillars around His anointed one. Oh, I look upon the wise of Romania and it hurts Me, and I want to call them out and to tell them things from Me, and that they may be like Me not like them, for I have the heaven into My arms and I want to set it into those that are Mine and to work miracles and glory that have never been heard of before.

Oh, if you, My Romania, if you knew to receive Me as your own good, I would glorify you without tasting the reward of disbelief and of not waking up. But look, I pass over you and call out to lift you up so that you may know how your staying and walking should be, and to learn how to distinguish your left from your right and to embrace with your Creator, Who comes to you like a bridegroom; and to come within the first love and for a feast at the table with Me. For I will spread a heavenly table into your midst and a multitude, thirsty for God, will come to see you, but your law will be from heaven and the law of the holiness will be upon you; and it will be a clean Eden in you, and the Holy Spirit that works and shares from Me through you, through those that want to be with Me and like Me, but get up, arise and look towards Me and put the unbelief away from you.

Oh, the loved of My garden, blessed are those that are faithful to this godly work, which is born into Romania, and those that do not believe, will be taken with fear so that they may come to those that are worked by God into it.

Let it be a feast with peace. I give you My peace; to you who stand before Me; to you and to those that came to the spring, so that you may drink and be alive; to have the Holy Spirit and to share it for the glory of Romania and for its ascension towards a visible glory. Behold, I breathe upon you and upon the little sweet hearts that came to the spring. Let their sweetness and the heavenly sweetness become a heavenly vessel to be taken from it, and let those that take from it come to life. I touch My heavenly hand, which is not visible, and I put peace, eternity, love and invincible power on the head of those that drink from heaven on this day of heavenly testimony. I am. I am by the word. I am from everlasting to everlasting and I work in those that are being sanctified to receive the Lord.

Christ, the ascended Lord to the Father and Who is not separated from those that know to believe and to work with Him, gives you a Christian greeting. The Lord is speaking from those that are in heaven: Christ is ascended! This word is true, for if He did not ascend, He would have not come to His people to be with them and in them with His everlasting kingdom. And behold, the time of victory and of the appearance of the visible glory is coming from heavens and it is being prepared coming.

Behold, I am with you! Blessed be your love, faith, watchfulness and the celebration of this heavenly moment and with all that you bring to My name and into My name. I catch you, I embrace you I and warm you up and breathe a heavenly Spirit upon you and upon those that are together with you, who take from the Lord, to have and to be spiritual and holy for the time of the great glory.

Verginica is with the host of the saints and angels and is working above Romania and sings together with the heavenly Mother and the song for Romania will not cease:

„Oh, holy Lord, heavenly Father,
Keep the Romanian crown with Your hand!”

The heaven is singing at you and in you. Do not wither under the blows thrown at you.

What can the man do to you? Ask the Holy Spirit upon those that mock the place of the manger of My word; ask that I remove their scales and to be able to see; ask and they will receive so that they may leave their weapons and take My holiness and stay in it, and through it they will believe.

Peace to you! I give you the peace and rest in Me as to some little children. Peace to you and to those that will believe through you! He, who receives the word that is proclaimed, will have a reward of the news giver. Amen, amen, amen.
