The Word of God at The Feast of the Assumption

Be attentive to the voice of God, which comes from above. The heaven speaks to the earth. I, the Lord, speak from heaven upon the faithful ones. I, the One that I was resurrected and ascended into the heavens, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, speak from heaven on earth, into the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

Peace to you, My people! Peace to you, sons; to you from My faithful people! The world does not know how I speak above you. The world does not believe in God as you believe. The world has its world and it does not know what I work on the earth during this time, but I pass with you through the world, so that the world may hear that I, the Lord, have a people taken out from the world and I speak from heaven into its midst and exhort it to the holiness of the spirit and body, that I may speak with it and fulfill My heavenly plan for My second coming. Be faithful, as I, the Lord, raise this work of word between heaven and earth from now on, so that the world may know the people that has been speaking with the Lord for forty years!

Peace to you! May the kingdom of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be blessed! May you also be blessed, sons of My people from this time! May the celebration of the feast of the ascension into heaven of God's Mother be blessed! And behold, I, the Lord, and My little Mother, and My heaven, are above with tents of little angels and with glory. Sing My people; sing son; sing to God; and the heaven is singing above you, faithful people. May this day and My word proclaimed from heaven on this day be blessed! And behold, may the overcoming cross, raised by the sons of the garden of My word, be blessed! May it be blessed and sanctified by all the saints and by all the heavenly powers, to the joy of the work of the New Jerusalem on earth.

The word of God is proclaimed: this cross is blessed and sanctified, in the name of the Father, of the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. My meeting with My faithful people is blessed and sanctified. Be attentive, you, watchmen of the word; receive from Me and give to My people, which believes My word. Be attentive to the voice, which comes from above upon you, upon the garden of My word. Behold, I come upon you with My word. Take it and make it come into being into this book, as I feed My people and accompany it with My voice, the same as I accompanied the Israel people from the beginning; the one that was faithful from the beginning, and the one that is faithful in the end is Israel from the end. I was with Israel from the beginning on its way with Me: by day in a pillar of cloud, and by night in a pillar of fire, and I was going with My word above and I was speaking with the prophet Moses, and I was speaking with Israel.

Peace to you, My people Israel! I am above you and I come with you by word, as I was with Israel in a pillar of cloud and fire to the land of the promise, but I come with you, with My glory by word and I call you Israel from the end. Behold, Israel, I come to meet you with My word, declared for you above the manger of My word. Israel means faithful people. Be faithful Israel, as the remnant of Israel was, the remnant that remained after Israel forsook Me; for I made the salting food, which I ploughed the ground with, sons, from the faithful remnant of Israel. And who were those from Israel's remnant? They were Peter, Paul, Jacob and John, and all My apostles, who preached My name and the kingdom of heaven to the ends of the earth. My people from today, I made of this remnant of Israel a host of apostles and prophets and saints and I salted the earth with the salt of My word, which was flowing by the mouth and spirit of these heavenly servants on the world. I salted the world with My word through them, as after My ascension I told them this: «Go and preach that God's kingdom has come near. Go to the ends of the earth and baptize those that believe in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit». Amen.

And behold, My people, you are the people from today that God speaks with on earth, as after I arose to life, I remained alive and I remained for the man, but the man did not understand what I said in the time of My ascension into heaven, as I said this: «Behold, I will be with you to the end of ages». But how shall the unfaithful one believe, or the one slow to believe? How, Israel, shall the unfaithful believe that I speak from heaven upon you? That is why I want to come with you before the world, so that the world may believe that you are My messenger into the world, as I sent My apostles then. And you, like them, go now and tell again what they said. They said that the kingdom of God had come near. And what is the kingdom of God, Israel of today? Did My apostles Peter and Paul, who were the first from the apostles, really lie? Were they lying when they said that the kingdom of the heavens came near? They said this, two thousand years ago, and you say this today, son. But what is the kingdom of the heavens? But what the kingdom of the heavens is not? Oh, sons, the kingdom of the heavens is not eating and drinking, it is not marriage and given into marriage. The kingdom of the heaven is eating of God's word; it is holiness and cleanness and it is the word of the Holy Spirit. The sons of this age marry and are given into marriage, but those that are worthy to be the sons of the kingdom of heavens, live an angelic life in their bodies; they do not marry and are not given into marriage, and live like the angels in heavens, and the heavenly Father, Who is their Father, takes care of them. The kingdom of the heavens is with you, My people Israel of today, because you have My throne in you, My word into your midst. You are My people who has Me, the Lord, into your midst with My advice, with My commandment, son. I do not give commandments but to those who chose to listen to God, and those that do according to the will of their body are not God's sons; they are the sons of this age.

Tell My people, tell to the world, and do not be silent; tell to the man from the world not to say that he is with Me. If he is with the life of this age, if he does not keep My commandments, let him not say that is with Me, as it is written: «Those that belong to Christ crucified their body and fleshly lusts, their desires and vain glory, which comes from man». Teach, My people, the one who comes and asks you about what I speak with you; tell him as My apostles said; you should tell him that the kingdom of the heavens has come near, and you should tell them what the mystery of this godly word means.

Israel child, do not go out from My kingdom; do not go out from it, as outside are dogs, blasphemers, liars, fornicators, exorcizers, servants of the flesh and false prophets, who say that there is no God. Be careful, faithful Israel, as the false prophet of today is more deceitful than within the past ages; as he uses My teaching to make you believe that he is with God. Be careful, as he comes with signs and miracles to make you depart from My kingdom, as he is jealous of Me when he sees that you love holiness and he does not. You get into his way of false work, as you prove him a liar. The word of the one who speaks about God and does not love holiness and godliness and the truth with a holy life is a lie. The false prophet borrowed a humbled face and uses My name to defile My elected ones, those that chose to serve Me. Where did the false prophet borrow his humble face from? From lying, sons. The humble face is lying, sons. A Christian that loves the heavenly kingdom has a clear face, holy, sweet and full of heavenly light; that one is not ashamed before the people. A man like this shares the holy heaven to those on the earth. The man with a humble face is a liar, sons, and does not know humility. That one exposes the lie from his inside and is exposed by the faithful one who has the Holy Spirit in his inner being. There is still a little while and the false prophet will do the last signs and miracles, with which he will demolish those that are staggering now. A Christian of My kingdom does not look for signs and miracles; he does not search the mysteries of creation, and does not tempt God, the Creator. Here what the false prophet did, as he taught the man that there is no God. He did not tell the man that there is no God, but rather he told the man lies. I am the Creator of those that are seen and not seen, and the earthly man will not be able to perceive with his knowledge into the mysteries of the Creator. The Lord does not allow such things, and that is why the man of the age is a liar; the man of the science of this age is a false prophet.

In Abraham's time, when God saw that the people erected a tower to climb into it to search out the Creator, what did I, the Lord, do? I confused the languages of the people then, so that they might no longer understand what they spoke and what they wanted. I confused the languages of the proud people and I do the same today with the people; and I do not allow them to perceive into the heavenly mysteries. Behold, sons, that the people received the confusion of the languages; that curse fell on the people who tempted the Creator's mysteries. You should not believe Israel; you should not believe what the man tells you, as the man is a liar, My people. The man who searched those that are made by the Creator, remains on earth and gives birth to earth, but the man who lets himself be born of God, gives birth to heaven and Holy Spirit and to paradise and heavenly fire on earth; he serves to the Word of God and does nothing without the Word.

You, Israel that have your Creator into your midst, you should flee from the man who speaks things from himself, as that one raves. You should flee from the man your hear speaking about God without knowing him, without seeking him with passion; that is insistently, that is by fulfilling the holy commandments in his body. But you should also flee from the unknown man, Christian, as the Lord does not come to you in an unknown manner. Remember that the apostles chosen by Me, My Father made them known to Me, and then I saw that I knew Myself in them; I saw that My Father knew them. Flee from the man who is not known by My Father; flee son, Christian, as the one who is unknown is a trap for you. Do not take after man Israel, as the man made a kingdom for himself, that keeps him worm here; and he is taken out of it, and it does not keep him warm. The false prophet is coming; the one with the last lying signs, and he will say that the dead comes to life, and he will raise him right in front of you, but that one is not the dead, and this lie is something else. He is coming to make you believe that he works into My name, but it is not true. I am the One, who will raise the dead; I and not the false prophet, who brings the body of his lie in front of you. Woe to the man who has not got the Holy Spirit in him to see the lie of the today's liar! As the men have been getting up for seven thousand years to set up as God, to set up as wise men, to make a name for themselves; that people may deceive each other, as this is has been happening to the people who get out from under God's tent. The man has courage in life and does a lot of things. The man with courage today does one thing, tomorrow another, until he forgets about God, and then he has no other guide in front of him and becomes a guide for himself. Do not take after the man, My people, and keep hold of My word, which teaches you about holiness and heavenly kingdom. The man has got into the earth to search; he has ascended into heaven to search; he has gone down into the sea to search; he has entered the man to search son, and the man says that he knows. Oh, poor of him, as he is only body without soul, and I will make the haughty man be ashamed, as I will take the sun from the sky and put it into the faithful, and the dwelling of holiness will receive light from the son of the faith; to reveal what the wisdom is. The wisdom is the fear of God. The wisdom is in the man who has the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit stays into a clean vessel, into the clean man, a man after God's image and likeness.

Oh, My people, I have been staying for forty years into your midst and feeding you from heaven by piece, by My word; I feed you with the fire of the Holy Spirit, so that I may use you for the cleanness of the earth, to clean the man from the earth of simplicity, of lie and haughtiness, in such a way that the man from the earth may know from you that to be and to be eternal means something else.

In the time of the faithful Abraham, I came down upon the people and I confused the languages of the people who were tempting the mysteries of the Creator. But now, here is what I have done, as I came back to the earth again and I chose a people that My Father gave Me, and I make the languages on the earth clear into its midst and reveal their lying cover; I reveal the skin of the lying tongue and bring the Holy Spirit to My people. The Holy Spirit is the knower and not the man. The garment of the Holy Spirit is expensive and the man cannot afford to buy it, as he has to give everything that is evil for it, not everything that he has as good. And how comes that? It is so, sons, and this is a great mystery. Man, you have to give for the garment of the Holy Spirit everything that is worse; every lust, every desire, every lie and carelessness, all the power damaging the soul and the wisdom; all of your sins you have to give in its exchange; you have to wash away of yourself and take on the garment of the Holy Spirit. I am this garment; I, with My life in you; I, with the light of the Holy Spirit in you, as the man, unless he gives himself away in return of the Holy Spirit, he cannot have the way under his foot. One like this, steps into the void; one like that is not. That one may became a living man by the death of his lusts and desires. Behold Israel, My loved people, this is how you have got Me, and why, the unfaithful one, who does not believe that I speak with you from heaven, really marvels at you? I speak from heaven and you hear Me, but it is not you that hear Me but the Holy Spirit, Who speaks with Me in you and above you. You came to the manger of My word, and I take from the manger and give you food and make your glad, My people; and I come down from heaven above you and let My word upon the manger of the word. This is My nest where My word is given as the food to My people.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am your Shepherd, Israel, My loved people, and it has not been such a heavenly work on earth since age. I am the voice; I am the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) and I chose a poor and forgotten vessel, and I breathed the Holy Spirit upon it and filled it to the brim, until the river of life upon the earth started to spring from it; as from this little village I raised a little fragile sprout and I poured water at its root until it grew into a big tree and all the birds of the air nested into it. Who is this tree and what are the birds of the sky? I, the Lord, am the tree, Who dwelt with My Holy Spirit in a working tool, in a heavenly heart, in a little girl, a trumpet that I sounded on the earth in this time of the end. In a little sprout from this village, I dwelt into her heart and by her mouth; I, the Lord, spoke My word to a people called to this heavenly work. And the birds of the heaven are the hearts of the sons of My people, who dwelt with their spirit in My Spirit, listening to My word and fulfilling it. And behold, this girl sprout is now taken into heaven and is working from heaven near the saints, as there is no one to work for the Lord and not to live forever. The same with you, My loved people; you will be alive forever if you listen to Me until My coming on the clouds.

Oh, Christian people, I, the Lord, have worked to give freedom to your faith and I helped you to be with Me today too, fulfilling My will, as if I took Verginica into heaven, I also prepared you further to arrive with you up until the days of victory; to remember your steps that walked on the secret little paths of this village when you were coming to the spring of the heavenly word. Then you came by stealth, (In the time of the communist dictatorship, r.n.), and now you come singing; you and all your sons, people loved by God. You were coming by stealth to protect My vessel that I spoke through with you, to protect My trumpet that I was speaking the heavenly word from, as the hunter of the antichrist was staying into your way to give you into the hands of the persecutor, to bring My tool into silence, into the prison, My people, as this is how all that stayed into My heavenly work suffered. I endured within the man, within the man who carried My Holy Spirit in him, as Verginica was the dwelling of My Holy Spirit and the world did not know it. It was only you, My people, only you son, that knew and saw what I have worked upon you, and you are My witness and you are with Me, as I passed you through a foggy time and I brought you to your days of feasting, and behold, My word is coming down today before you as well, as Verginica has her fruit within her feet; she has got disciples and disciples of disciples.

Blessed is he who has believed until today into My heavenly work, which I have dwelt in this village with, in this village that I spoke on the earth by. This is how the sons of the faith have been among unbelievers and this is how they have gone further with Me during the time. This is how I have you, My people, the sapling and the fruit of My work, which started in this village in 1955, and behold, there have elapsed forty years of walking into a spirit of unbelief, and I come back today with you and I make room for you to testify of My heavenly work and of My prophecy time, as I had prophesied through Verginica, and I come to fulfill those that had been prophesied for forty years through you. It was I that I prophesied, not she. She was the vessel in which I had dwelt with My Holy Spirit, with My word by her voice, as two thousand years ago, when I came down from heaven, I also came by a virgin to take on a visible body among the people; the Virgin whose name is God's Mother. And now, I have also come by a virgin into the midst of a faithful people, for the birth of My Holy Spirit, and I also nourished you Israel, My people, by a virgin. My little Mother, the mother virgin, if she had Joseph as a companion, her fiancé, it was to take care of her and to protect her and her Son, that is I, sons, during My time as a child. And Virginia, if she had a companion with her, whom all this village knows too, the company was not in the flesh, but rather in the spirit, for protection, for the covering of My mystery; however, she was a clean vessel for God, for the Holy Spirit, Who entered her body for My speaking through her. The word of the Holy Spirit has been born through her for as long as twenty-five years, starting with 1955 and until 1980, when I, the Lord, came and took her into heaven; and now she is working from heaven, near Me, upon My people, upon her people, as she gave birth to this people, she, from My word that dwelt in her; a people born by My word, a people born from above, from the word coming down from heaven into a vessel chosen by God.

This is My work through Verginica, My heavenly work of today, and today I let My word come down on the clouds upon the manger of My word, upon this little heavenly garden, which is called the garden of God's word, and they, who stay at the mouth of this spring of word coming down from heaven, are the watchmen children in the way of the word. My word from heaven flows like a river upon this garden chosen by Me to be the manger of My word by which I may prepare My people for the glory of My coming back on the clouds. The angels who came at the time of My ascension into the sky, told the apostles who saw Me rising upwards; they said that «This Jesus, Who was received up from you into the sky, will come back into the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». And here I am coming by the word, as the word is coming down from heaven to prepare the path of My coming back; to prepare the holiness and the cleanness of the people who will meet Me at My coming back. Behold, I am coming back; I am coming back soon, and I will find the world not prepared, as the world does not want to prepare her life; even now the world is drinking and eating, getting married and given into marriage; it is being born and has no time to get ready. He, who does not love God, does not clothe himself for God, but you, My people, you love Me and hear My heavenly voice and feed you with My word and grow up and come to life more and more, until the day when I am to be seen into the clouds, and then into the midst of those who wait for Me to come. And you will be the one, who will sing, Israel; on that day, you will sing the song of the angels, who will announce My coming, as on that day the heaven and the earth will sing: «Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord!». You are the one who sing today too around the manger of My word. Sing, son! I am above you with the heaven and I always write you down into My book, and this book will testify that you are My people.

The world sings too when coming together in the church, but it does not know what it sings; it does not feel what it sings, as the world has its own world; it has its own god, and it does not have Me as God. The world loves the sin, and I do not stay with the man who feeds himself on the pleasure of the sins. I am from heaven; I am sinless, but the world does not want to forsake the sin and to choose Me. The world has no time for God. Instead of going to church on My day of feast, the world goes to the market and fair and it sees of its own affairs, and this sin will not be forgiven forever; and it will be atoned by those that stay indifferent to God, as this is how they are to be found in the day of My coming. My day is coming as trap and it will catch into it the one who had not time to take the Lord as a father. The stomach is the god of the world; the stomach and the work of food and that is all, as the worldly man forgot his purpose and forgot about God, about the Son and the Holy Spirit.

My loved people, My loved people; be an example for the world, My people; and be example of holiness and a little gate for the worldly man, so that he world may come to God. I enshroud you with the voice of My word, and you should give to the world the living water of My world, so that the world may come after Me and after you, Christian people. Let the servants of the people see you and find out, what the Orthodoxy in its own living means, and no longer blaspheme you and no longer speak evil about you, as he who speaks evil about you, speaks evil about Me, as I am with you and feed you with My word that is coming down to you on the clouds. My word from above is your guide which brings you before My glory, in the day of My glory, as you, My Christian people, the people of My word, make haste of My visible coming. I promised your victory with Me, and behold, they who were following and shackling you, today they protect you on the way of your glory with Me. Behold, your judges lived to see the garment of you glory, as you were hiding with Me and with the work of My word, and now you are alive in the spirit and in the body as you have listened to Me, and brought Me days of heavenly feast, with the singing and joy of your hearts, loved people by God. And I will make a great people, as you will feed the multitudes with the dew of My word, which is coming to you with the Holy Spirit and warmth. Do not be afraid My people, do not be afraid. Sing from now on! Sing and wait for Me! But call Me out to come, as the voice of your prayer is sweet for the heaven. And why so? Because you love cleanness and holiness and the Holy Spirit.

It hurts Me deeply; I have My wound deep, as the servants of the church do no longer love cleanness, holiness and the Holy Spirit. The heaven is crying under oppression, as My church, which was born two thousand years ago, has had little life for the Lord, and it has had more life for itself instead. But now it hurts Me deeply; it hurts Me deeply, as I go and leave wounded from My meeting with the soul of the church, as My church gathers together only with the bodies, but it is weak in its spirit; it is devoid of the Holy Spirit, as the Holy Spirit, sons, does not find its broadness and work in the man who is mixed up in his own sins, and in his fleshly delights. You cannot tell those that they wound the Holy Spirit; you cannot, as they feel in control of the Holy Spirit, of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and you, who stay under the rain of grace of My word, are not know by these that you are with Me.

He, who loves you, has got the Holy Spirit. He, who does not love you, My people, does not have Me, as it happens with you what it also happened with Me, as they did not love Me either, and nor did God's servants receive Me; they did not know Me. And why did they not know Me? Because they were in their own spirits and not in My Spirit. The same is with those of today from the church; they reject you; they speak evil about you, and they, who sold you, My people, were known, as they fed you with a little spoon, and sold you from behind; and by all means, they wanted to destroy you. Yah! But I exposed them and I got up to protect you and to show to the servants of the church, who persecute you, to show them your Orthodoxy and your education from Me, as they do not know My book and My life. He, who knows My life, stands up to fulfill the work of the Holy Spirit; that one has the fruit of life and heaven, but he, who does not have this fruit, does not know Me.

Do not be afraid, My people; I was also persecuted by My people; I was given into the hands of Pilate and Herod by My people. And it happened to you the same; the same is today. Do not be afraid My people; do not be afraid. Stay under My tabernacle and come always to Me, to the Lord, your God, Who brings you up and loves you and protects you. You will be the one that is protected and loved, and the beasts, which try to bite you, will have their teeth set on edge, and they will remain without teeth and without tongue, as the tongue that bites you today will go rotten alive, so that it may not bite the sons of God's word. Come son with a manhood of the Holy Spirit; come to victory! Leave the unfaithful and look into heaven, and pray for those that bite you. It is a time of disbelief; it is a time of darkness, but go with the light of My word before you and leave Me to protect you sideways, as I have always brought with Me a cordon of angels and saints, who enclose you round and round, and do not wonder at those from the church, do not wonder at those who hit you. I, the Lord, will bring them with their foreheads to their feet and I will urge them to repentance, but without any kind of inclination, I cannot forgive the one who does not come back with repentance, as this is written: «If the one that wronged you comes back with repentance, forgive him». But, if he comes back, forgive him, and if he does not come back, whom are you to forgive? Whom are you to draw from the perishing that will catch under it those that are not faithful? To be faithful means something else than what the man of the today's time understands. To have God as father means something else than what the man of this age understands. The man of this age does no longer have teachers from Me upon him, as the teachers of today do no longer have power to lift up a man from his sins and carelessness, since they do not like to stay within the Holy Spirit of the heavenly knowledge. I would like to forgive every soul if it comes back to Me, but the man does not know what it means to come back to a godly life, as the man sold his body to the lusts and greed of the beautiful of today, and he does no longer feel the true good.

Do not grieve My loved people. I come to comfort you by the Holy Spirit, by the holy word. Let the Scriptures that are written long ago be fulfilled with you, as then, a long time ago, I spoke on the earth among the prophets about My coming among the people, and then I came descending from heaven and I fulfilled what I prophesied by the prophets. I prophesied that My people would crucify Me, that My servant will sell Me, and that those that were prophesied came true. Let the Scriptures be fulfilled with you, as My Holy Spirit prophesied by My mouth that you will be driven out from churches; children of the people chosen and distinguished from the world to be the people of My word. And you should know that I prophesy a new word to you, and you should look for its fulfillment. I prophesy to you from heaven that any temptation coming against you is a path for your own good and glory, people of My word. My name is the Word of God, and you are the people of God's word. I prophesy to you about those in the church, about those that took hold of the keys of My kingdom, that the keys will fall down from their hands, as they did not know you, who are with Me, and rather they blasphemed you as a wonderer and as a godless people. I did not work this way, and they do not have a work to resemble God's.

The day to take into account the workers of My vineyard is coming, and I will ask for their fruit, and I will ask for their harvest, fruit and talent, and on that day, they will be empty-handed before Me, and you will be prepared to give My vineyard into your account; however, I will stay with you at the table and serve you as you also stay today in My name before My word. I will fulfill the Scriptures of today with you, people of the Lord, and I will give a sign to the unbelievers, but I tell you that I have already given them, and they did not even look at you, and if they looked, they did not recognize you; who do you belong to, people of the Lord, as I have stayed with you under the bushel until today, but I come out with you, sons, and you will be signs among the nations of the earth.

Oh, people of the New Jerusalem, even the pagans of the nations had prophesied about your coming into the world; that you are born by the Word of the Holy Spirit; you are born by the baptism of the Holy Spirit of My word, which I have shaded you with for forty years. Only those, who stay into My name upon the church, do not want to know you that you came from Me, people of the Lord. When I came incarnated from the Virgin, the Magi of the Gentiles came prophesying to Israel about My birth, the birth of the King of the world. They were forecasters and readers of the heavenly signs, and these prophets of the signs of the times were counselors of the kings of the Gentiles. And I sent My archangel in the image of a star to lead them on their way, and rather the prophets of the Gentiles believed that the heavenly King was born in Bethlehem, but Israel did not believe those who had My archangel as a guide up to My manger. Many prophesied today too about the birth of a holy, clean and righteous people in his faith, and behold, you should know, My loved people, that the pagans will know you more that you are My people, born of My word, and I will no longer tell anything of My mysteries to those that say that are Mine. I do no longer make clear any mystery to those who hid the Scripture of My coming in the clouds, and they will be taken by surprise by the glory which comes with Me and which will catch under it all the human and fleshly haughtiness.

Come to the glory of the heaven, My people. You will not grow pale, but on the contrary, you will turn green and blossom and produce fruit, as I will water you by the heavenly food, by the manna of My word, as the place of My garden where you come together, is called the place of the Word of God, Who is coming on the clouds. I have the clouds for ascension and descent; I am not a weak God. I speak into Romanian because I want it this way, and no one can spoil My plans. I give tongues of the Holy Spirit; I give the Holy Spirit upon the Romanian language, and the sons and daughters of Romania will prophesy in front of the peoples of the earth, as I chose Romania to be My country. My country crucified Me. The people that I chose at the beginning took Me out of their midst, and since then I have embraced Romania and the land if its country, and then I have worked with My Father and I have given birth to the Romanian people; I gave it birth and worked it out once with Me, and I made it Christian with My name; and I chose Jerusalem and I called it Jerusalem again, like the one that crucified Me. That is why this country is called New Jerusalem, because if I left from the things that were Mine, I took with Me the gifts and the wealth of My heavenly gifts, which were from Me upon Israel and upon the Jerusalem of My Israel; and I laid at the foundation of the Romanian people all My heavenly wealth, and I gave birth to this people and I anointed it by the hand of Melchizedek, to be a people of saints for the time of the end, for the time of My approaching with My coming again on the earth.

I, the One Who passed with My body through the death, I, Who was resurrected in the crucified body, I, the Lord, Who are with My body ascended into heaven, I will soon stay above Romania with My revealed glory. I do no longer sent My archangel, but rather I will be coming accompanied by My body taken from the Holy Spirit and from the Virgin, and I will be glorified with a great glory upon the manger of My word, upon this little garden, upon this new and holy stone, and there will be heard the songs of the angels from heaven and of those on the earth: "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord, God, Sabaoth, Who comes of the name of the Lord!", into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit!. Amen.

I, the Lord, chose Romania and who can thwart My plans? This is how I was pleased; I, and not you, My people from the midst of Romania. I came to bring you My word and to call you to be My people, little people and distinguished from the world, to be the people of the receiving of My today's word, of My Scriptures that are written today by the haven and by you. I prophesy and fulfill a new heaven and a new earth. It does not matter if the servants of the church do not want to come with Me. They will remain with the walls and the walls will cry out against them. My church is not a cold wall of stone, but rather it is a living and heavenly spirit. The church is not from the earth and it is from heaven instead. Only the church is heavenly on the earth; it is come down from heaven, as the sons of My church, the sons of the church of Jesus Christ, are born from heaven, from above, as I said to My scribe of that time; as I told him: «He, who is not born from above, from heaven, cannot be with Me; he cannot be the son of My kingdom», and behold, the sons of the church are no longer of this age, and they are of the holy heaven, and the holy heaven is the companion of its sons. This is how it is called that the church belongs to Jesus Christ and to the heaven. Otherwise the church is from the world; it is not from the heaven.

Loved people, be as strong as the heaven; clothe yourself with the heaven, My loved Israel, My new people, My little and tiny and most precious people. This is what I said: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?». Why did I say so then? Look, I was true in what I prophesied, I, who knew and saw until the end of the man's age. But I have a little seed of faith, and I will seed with it and fulfill the Scriptures about the New Jerusalem by My power, which is coming down from heaven, as I said that the sons of the church are from heaven and not from earth.

People of the New Jerusalem, stay, son, to fulfill My Scriptures; stay under the rain of My grace and sing, My people, My loved Israel of today, as this remained the name of the people which believes in God, Jesus Christ. Israel, people of the heavenly Jerusalem, may you be blessed by the Lord, your God, the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit.

It is the celebration of God's Mother, the celebration of her ascension into heaven, to her Son. Jerusalem, sing to My little Mother a song of glory; sing the song of the heaven, New Jerusalem. Let Romania hear, My people. Let Romania be born of the heaven and let it be the country of My choice. Let My heavenly Romania and her anointed one from Me be blessed, as the anointed of Romania prays for you, Romania blessed by the Father and by the Son and by the Holy Spirit.

You should sing Jerusalem; sing from earth to heaven, as your song of glory is taken by the wings of the haven and carried from glory to glory. May you be blessed, My new people, and may those that love you and those that believe that you are from God into the world, be blessed. May all that have a clean heart for you be blessed and know the fruit of My blessing, as this is how I pay to those that love you! I pay them and I also pay those that do not love you; I pay them with their work; with work and reward.

May this day of glory be blessed, as the village of My word is today in a celebration of the heaven on your earth. There shall nowhere be more beautiful and more heavenly than it will be here, where I, the Lord, had worked by the word. Behold, I make them all new. I, the Lord, work again by the word, as in the beginning, and I make a new heaven and a new earth; a new man and a new and heavenly age. I will seed from a little and tiny seed a new heaven and a new earth, at My word.

Peace to you, and may the New Jerusalem be upon you, those who celebrate the earth on the earth! Peace to you! May a celebration with peace and eternal glory come out from your hearts full of the fruit of the faith for the Lord's coming! I am coming soon. May My welcome by the people of the New Jerusalem be blessed!

Peace to you, children of the New Jerusalem! The Holy Spirit is coming upon you by My word that is sanctifying you. Sanctify yourself, Jerusalem, and keep yourself with a garment of glory. I am God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. May the Spirit of comfort make you sprout, Jerusalem! Peace to you from the Lord, your God!

I am. I am the Word of God. I am not a weak God. I speak into Romanian and bless My people from the middle of Romania. Peace to you, My loved people, as I am the Lord, your God!

May your journey to your things be blessed, people which came to the heavenly feast! I am with My peace upon you. Amen, amen, amen.
