The Word of God at The Feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

The absolution of the curse of St. Nifon, in the city of Târgovişte. The prophet Daniel sees the fulfillment of his prophecy about the seventy weeks of years (490 years: 1507-1997; chapter 9/24). The Patriarch Nifon declares from heaven the absolution of the curse pronounced by him in 1507 over the city of Târgovişte, as a result of the iniquities committed in the city with the will of the lord of the country, the woivode Radu.

I am, and I am called the Word of God, as it is written: «He comes with the clouds and with the tens of thousands of saints, and His name is called the Word of God». (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) Amen.

I am the One Who is. I come from heaven on earth and I become word and Bridegroom, as the Lamb's wedding came, and His bride is ready. Blessed are those who are called to the Lamb's wedding supper.

I am the Great Bishop, Who passed through the heavens and suffered among the people and with the people, being tempted in every way possible like the people, yet without sin. I did not take this honor alone, but My Father gave it to Me, as it is written: «You are My Son; Today I have begotten You. You are Priest forever in the order of Melchizedek».

I am the One Who is, but the people, which I came through from My Father, did not receive Me as My Father's messenger, and as a result, I went to the gentiles of the earth, and My Father gave Romania to Me since My birth, to be the country of My coming back with the clouds, the country of the glory of the last days, for as I ascended to My Father, the same way I will come; I come with the clouds and with the tens of thousands of saints, and I come, coming. Amen.

I come to you, the country of My wedding, as I have you from My Father to be the country for My coming back among the people. Receive Me! I come as word to you, as I have the people of My word into your midst, a warm manger in which the Word of God is being born from above, and Which comes with the clouds, like the bird which makes its nest at the eaves of a house, where it lays down its chickens to breed and to feed them, crossing the air and coming, flying up and down, flying down and up and then coming down again to feed her chickens, to grow and teach them to fly up into the sky. I am the One Who is. I come with the clouds to you, My country of wedding: «I come with the saints on the white horse, and hosts from heaven come after Me riding on white horses, and the word comes out of My mouth, and on My thighs; and on My coat I have a written name: „The king of Kings and the Lord of the Lords"», as it is written into the Scriptures that I come.

When I had to lift up Jerusalem again, which was ruined because of its sins, I heard a calling from the earth, to come and save Israel oppressed by the reward of its iniquities. I heard Daniel, who reminded Me of My promises for Israel, confessing before Me the sins of his people, and humiliating himself for Israel, and I came down to him and declared: «Seventy weeks are decreed on Jerusalem until the lawlessness will overcome its limitations, until the Holy One of the Saints comes to suffer for the man, and He will throw the city down and it will be hard until the end. But I will come in the end and I will make a covenant with many in one week, and many of those, who sleep in the dust of the earth, will rise and the wise people will give light». And Daniel was praying, saying: «Master, when?». But I answered him: «Daniel, all these words are sealed until the end, and in the end many will be cleansed, whitened and cleared, and no one among those without law will understand My words, but only the wise people will understand, for the wise people keep aside from the way of the lawlessness and they stay only with the Holy Spirit, the Counselor of the wise people. And you, Daniel, you will get up and you will receive your inheritance in the time of the end. Amen».

I had the sons of My word intercede for you, for your resurrection, oh, Romania country, My wedding country, the country of the brightness prophesied by the prophet Daniel. I come to you as the word of the Holy Spirit, and I come to make a reconciliation agreement with you. I come from the Father and I have a manger in you, and I am being born as word and I feed you with My hidden mysteries, as you were the one under the cross, but I have loved you since your birth and I have lifted you up and I chose you as My country, and I gave you birth of Me and I gave you My name and I called you Christian, after My name, by the one sent to you (The St. apostle Andrew, r.n.) with a little garment of baptism, with water and with the Holy Spirit, and I called you Romanian, the people of My country. And I have watched over you in joy and sorrow and I have protected you to be and to have you, as Father gave you to Me at the same time with My birth, giving you birth of Me. Your story is beautiful in heaven, and here is what I do: I come as word on your land and I write your mystery to you, and I become book in you and I write with you My story and I announce you as Mine, so that every nation on the earth may hear that you are the fulfillment for My coming.

But you have a knot in you, oh My country, and I have come to removed it from you. I enter on a white horse as in Jerusalem and I become word upon you, and I work by My word and I break your binding that is on you. You have been brought under the law because of your iniquities, for the one who sins, is punished by the law. Seventy weeks of years are over you, since I have put the bond over you, for it is written: «If one of the citadel sins, the whole citadel suffers from this iniquity». And after four hundred and ninety years, as this is what it means about those written into the book of Daniel, about those seventy weeks, I have come to you and I declared upon you to untie the knot put over you for such a long time, and hearing you did not hear, but I have worked and I untied your knot. And now I come and I tell you what I have done for you, My country, My loved one under the cross. I have built a new stone, a new vine, a new branch. I gave you a little white stone, and I wrote on it with My own hand: «The Word of God», and no one understands what is written on it, «no one but the receiver», as it is written into the Scriptures; no one but the people of My word, into whose midst I have become a book for you, My country, to bless you and to lift you up from the dust little by little, as it is written that «I will rise many from the dust of the earth: some to everlasting life and some to everlasting judgment».

I gave birth from My word to a people in you, and I have chosen My bride from you, My country. I made a clean church in you, a church after My will, and not after the man's will, as the lawlessness from the church has been pressing hard on Me, and I needed a church with holy and complete members, with a clean body, which is called My church. I raised a clean people in you for Me, a living church, so that I may have with what to work absolution on you. And now I have come into the midst of the multitudes from you and I announce you into the middle of the people of My word, and I announce you that I have come to lift you up. Get up, I say to you! Amen, amen, amen.

I am the One Who is and I stay into your midst with the sons of My word, sons anointed by Me, the Bishop of the Father Sabaoth, standing on the right side of the throne of the greatness in heavens, as I brought Myself as a sacrifice before My Father, as any bishop brings offering for his sins and for those of his people. And behold, I am with the sons of My word into your midst, My country, and here is what I speak with them:

Sons anointed, the four hundred and ninety years have passed; seventy weeks of years have passed since the bond was put over Romanian and over its church, as here I had a bishop in My image and after My likeness, who anathematized the lawlessness which he saw that it was made, and then he came to Me after he was banished from the seat of the church. It is written: «The one, who does not love God, let him be accursed». Oh, the lawlessness overran its margins, and the bishop Nifon declared a word against it, and this bond has remained. And now I come to declare an awakening over My country to get it out from under this guilt.

Anointed sons, I want to work through you, as I am well pleased in you and I love you, as you also love Me by fulfilling My commandments, as it is written: «He, who keeps My commandments, that one loves Me». Lift up your hand into My name to the Father and say at the same time with Me, the Bishop of the heaven:

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, those that are bound over Romania are broken and loosened, and let them be loosened both in heaven and on earth. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the Romanian country is blessed with the blessings of the heaven, with the blessings of the air, with the blessing of the earth chosen by God, with the blessings of the everlasting heights, with the blessings of the bosoms of the heaven. Amen. I am the One Who is, and I bless by the word coming with the clouds:

The Romanian country is blessed, with the gift of the holy faith, and by faith let her be filled with My everlasting gifts, as I come with the new age, the endless one; I come with the heaven and with the new earth over the old ones, and let the lawlessness be thrown into the fire, and let the man rise to the blessed ones of the heavenly gifts. I am the One, Who reconciles the people to the Father. I am the One, Who reconciles the faithful man to the Father. I am the One Who is. Amen.

When Moses asked Me what he was to tell Israel when he went to take the Israelites out of Egypt by My strong hand, and when he asked Me: «Lord, who should I tell them that You are?», this is what I told him to tell them about Me: «I am He Who is». This is what I also tell you, sons of My word: I am the One Who is, I am the One Who send you, and you are My messengers, you are My gift over the people, who will believe in Me through you. Amen.

I have come with the clouds and with the saints and I have My bishop with Me, the patriarch Nifon, for everybody. I am in him and he is in Me, and he declares from Me, the word from the word upon you, oh My country:

– Oh, Lord, the God of the living, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob! Oh, Lord, the God of the living of the Romanian people! I am written down in heaven as Romanian, as here I had the last calling, and You called me to become Romanian and to be named holy by the Romanian people and by the whole faithful world.

Oh, Lord, Bishop, Who stands on the right side of the throne of the greatness in heavens! There have passed over Romanian seventy weeks of years until the number of the years was fulfilled, and to the end of these years You had made a people pleased to You in Romania, and You became word upon it.

You came with the feast of the Palm Sunday in the ruling city of Romania, (Târgovişte, r.n.), Lord, and I am also with you among the tens of thousands of saints that You come with. Bless Romania and fulfill with it a new heaven and a new earth and a new word and a new Passover, as you have a people in it. The sons of Your word have prayed to You as the prophet Daniel also prayed for Jerusalem. I also bless the sons of Your word into Your name, so that the Romanian people may know that they are Your messengers for Romania. Help Romania and give her the gift of the holy faith, to be able to do Your will by faith and to fulfill Your last Scriptures, Lord, as You are fulfilled in her with Your coming, as You come coming, and You become word over her and you shine by the word, and she shines under the light of Your word, and those prophesied for her have come upon her.

Oh, country of the Lord, get up and receive the glory of God! I say to you: get up and rise, as I have come with the Lord to you and I touch your head and declare a blessing for you and I remove those that are bound on you to be loosened in heaven as well. The prayer of the sons from the garden of the Lord's was heard, and I come with the Lord and fulfill the blessing over you.

And You, Lord, glorify Yourself into Your loved people, which You have been pleased with. Amen.

− Oh, bishop, what you bound into My name was bound, and what you absolve into My name, I also absolve and put the blessing and holiness over those that are cleansed by the word. Amen.

And you, sons anointed over this time, lift up your hands once again and say once with Me: „Father, I thank you that you have listened to us". Amen.

Do not be sad that no one blesses you on the earth, sons, as you are My blessed ones and belong to My Father Sabaoth. No one blessed Me on the earth either. All cursed Me and gave Me over to suffer. You should not wait for the blessing from the people, Romanian Israel, for you should be like Me, little son. I also want to have someone on the earth to be like Me, as the people of the empty glory are too many on the earth; too many lords are on the earth, and I, the Lord, am brought down by the man's glory.

Romanian Israel, My little vine, My new vine, My sweet vine, you let yourself be grafted and You knew Me as your Master when I came to see My fruit and to reap it. Yield fruit, Israel, through the gift of the faith. Give blessing from your blessing. I give you the things of Mine from what is Mine, so that Romania may have God. Amen.

It is a day of the entrance feast in Jerusalem. I come in with the heavenly Jerusalem in you, My wedding country, and I celebrate a wedding of new age in you with My bride people, and you are My wedding guest, My country. It is a feast of the Palm Sunday, and My people sing in you with branches of flowers in their hands. My country, embrace My bride and receive Me through My messengers. I am in them and they are in Me. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Bless is He, Who comes to you into the name of the Lord.

Peace to you, city of Târgovişte! Peace to you, and mat you be glad and become the New Jerusalem before Me! I tell you: get up and rise and become love before Me!

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I write Myself with you into the Book of the Truth, My country, My loved Romania, My wedding country, and you will be and will shine with My glory, as I am the One Who is, and I am well pleased with you. Amen, amen, amen.

(This word of absolution from the curse of the saint Nifon was read thoroughly at the gate of the city of Târgovişte before the multitudes, which were gathered together on this feast announced beforehand.)

07/20-04-1997