The Word of God at The feast of thirteen years from the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of New Jerusalem

My godly hand is blessing from the Father with power and with the work of the angels and of the saints the feast of the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem on earth. My hand is steadfast covering with all the heavenly powers My place of threefold feasting of the New Passover, and My disciples of two thousand years ago always work with powers of bishop, always at My table of new Passover within the new kingdom of My Father, for I give My Father all My earnings, all My work and I also give Myself always to Him, for He gave all things to Me, and I work in Him and I give Him everything that I work, and I also submit Myself to Him, for I am His perfect disciple. Amen, amen, amen.

Listen to My voice and put it down into the book, children who stay as the gates of My entrance into Jerusalem and into the book, sons. I want to feed My people who left the world to become My inheritance, My kingdom, and to keep it by My angel and to glorify Myself over it with great signs and with a great protection, for I am its Comforter from the Father and I am the word upon it. Amen.

I am the Almighty One, and the man is weak and feeble and I only can take care of My people and I teach it to love its Creator and to be patient waiting for Him, for the man on earth is not used to wait, to be patient and to love My hard way after man, and that is why I suffered and I cried with all My body, blood and water, for every man who is not used to waiting for God and to walk patiently on His way as the saints were patient working for their crown from Me, for the crown of the patience of the saints. Amen.

I am the merciful One and I keep My vine and My inheritance, and for this victory you have to stay well set in a spirit of patience and to serve Me only with a spirit of obedience between Me and you, between you and those who guide you for Me, My people Jerusalem. Oh, it is a great feast in heaven and on earth for the Father, for the Son and for the Holy Spirit and for all the heavenly powers of the saints and angels, My people. I exhort you to prayer with longing and with sweetness in it before Me, for the man without insistent prayer and always well pleased to Me is caught by the devil, and that is why I told My apostles through the Spirit and to My disciples: «Love one another with all your power», and this is nothing else but work of Holy Spirit between brother and brother, between disciple and disciple, for only in this way the man remains into Me and I into Him, and the one who does not get used to the face of the Holy Spirit in him, he who does not give Me food from him with the work of Holy Spirit, that one stands up and throws Me down for him. However, I teach you to be My kingdom, My people, because I feed you always with it, and you shall fight for the love that I put into your midst with all your power, for you to have life through it, son, and it is woe to the man who eats bread alone, and that is why I give the man from the table of My word, which has become My love in you, Jerusalem of today, and even the king, or the judge, or the worldly shepherd, or the seller, or the one, who does not fulfill My word, or any other foreign spirit that has not got anything in Me, could not overcome it from its being, because I am the Almighty One and I can work with all those who are covered by My hand without being afraid from the one who separates the man from God, without bowing to the man foreign to God.

Oh, children nourished with life from heaven and with its way! The life from heaven has only one way with a great mystery on it, and its work is confessed, and this is the mystery of life, so that the whole testimony that is brought before Me may stay in the mouth of two or three witnesses. Amen.

Oh, what a beautiful work! The testifying work kills all the devil's power, and My flock is safe and kept by the little hand, for I am in heaven and on earth at the same time, and let all those by this time who did not do their work with obedience and with knowledge as among those in heaven, let those know that I am the Lord your God, and if I am, I truly am, and I tell all those who are ignorant and unwise concerning the things in heaven and I tell them that rebellion, as well as the repentance without power and a clean heart, are not useful with God and are useful with the devil instead, and blessed are those who are spiritual and who fulfill in the spirit working by love and who are chosen out of love, as they are seen by their fruits, and I tell these that they should strengthen themselves within the confessing spirit, and to strengthen themselves even more, for this people is written in heaven like God's kingdom on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

After I went to be in the Father to make a dwelling place in Him for those who loved Me confessing My work from the Father, I left confessing disciples, and John, the beloved one, was testifying about Me: «And the life was revealed and we have seen and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us, and that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and your fellowship is with the Father and with His Son. And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled, and this message, which we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all». (1 John 1:2-5) Amen.

Oh, My people, it is the feast of the heaven with you on earth. It is the day of feast when I, the Lord, separated the ages, the heavenly one from the earthly one, and I have made the kingdom of the heavens in a place chosen by Me from the beginning of new heaven and new earth. Amen.

It is a day to learn and testify. Walk in My light to have communion with one another and to be cleansed by any sin through My blood, for I am faithful and righteous in all My word and I wipe out the sins and all injustice for the one who comes back with love and testifies about his way with Me. The one who keeps My ways is the one who knows Me. The one who keeps My word, My love is truly perfect in him, and I know those who are Mine through it. Amen.

He who says that is Mine, that one has to walk as I walked and to reveal himself as I did in order to be known, for no one is able to be a friend or a brother if he does not show himself who he is and what he does. I have told you, children of My people, that the known work and the work done in obedience is the guard of life and the death of the evil spirit that digs at the root of the strong trees. However, the strong trees are strengthened in the storms, for they are solitary in their root first, and then in their visible part. Their roots join together for they stay close to each other and they remain strong during the storms making their root even deeper and they are not thrown down. Only the solitary fruit tree in the field is torn down, but those who stay together are joined and stand up during the storms; during storms and not during the mild weather, sons. Amen. I have taught you all, for I speak for all when I speak and I have spoken this for the Father, for the Son and for the Holy Spirit to bless you with wisdom and through it, with a gentle and humble spirit like the one of a child, for woe to the great man, and blessed are the children, because the Father takes care of His children. Amen.

Behold a feast of word, a day of memorial, when I, the Lord, stretched out the tent with a strong hand upon you, children anointed in this time by the hand of the Lord and of His angels. I am the One Who has the clouds as ascending and descending, walking on the wings of the winds and making My angels spirits and My servants flames of fire. In the beginning I founded the earth and its foundation and it will not be thrown down forever. In the end I will found a new heaven, a new earth and a New Jerusalem, as it is written, and that which is new makes what was before to pass away, and I founded a throne for Myself, and out of the throne I speak the word over the earth and I make My winds messengers and the flames of fire My servants, as I did on the mountain before Moses when wrote the commandments of life with flames of fire. This is how I will also work out the heaven and the earth in the end and I adjust Myself with the work of the Holy Spirit so that you may carry it, sons. However, the spirit of My word is also a flame of fire today and there is faith in those who have it as their worker from Me over those who are sanctified, and blessed, seven thousand times blessed are those who believe and sanctify themselves for Me, the One Who have the clouds as ascending and descending and I walk on the wings of the winds with the angels and with a chariot of fire. Amen.

Oh children who have become wise by the word of life, life is a commandment, sons, and I have told you to exhort the sons of the chosen people to be a flame of the Holy Spirit and the people to be as in the kingdom of the heavens and not as on earth, because I wrote the commandments of life with flames of fire, and the life has to be the fulfillment of the commandments of life. Amen. Day by day you should speak the commandments of life and their mysteries and their work in you and speak about your work everywhere, children of the new kingdom. I want to make you on earth the clouds of My ascending and descending for the man's heart and to be carried by the wind of the Holy Spirit and to appear as flames of fire among the people, for that is why I founded Jerusalem and I called it new and I called it this way so that those that have been by this time to pass away, because those that are not are visible and those that are visible are not. Amen.

Oh, do not love those that are not but love only those that are, sons, and learn what a mystery you are and do believe in this mystery to shine with it over the earth seven times more than the sun, for the Holy Spirit and His temples on earth are the sun and the moon that keep watch over the new heaven and the new earth, as it is written into the Scriptures about the new citadel, which has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its torch is the Lamb, and the nations will walk in its light and the kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of their nations into it. (See Rev. 21:23-24)

I speak with the power of the Holy Spirit, because it is the feast of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, and you, those who stay under My burden to give being to My word into the book, bring Me down on earth when I give Myself to you as word, for I call you My ascending and descending, wings of wind and flames of fire by which I write My word of the eternal life on earth. Amen. I sit with you at the table of the kingdom of the heavens and I have with Me all the heavenly powers, all the saints and all the angels, and we bless both the manger of the word and you, those who stay for Me like an ark in which I gathered the spring of My word for the people who receive from it to their life. Amen.

I bless from the Father those who are anointed with a strong hand for the threefold sacrifice in the little garden of My word, and let no enemy touch them, no matter how hard My cross of today might be upon them. Let all the enemies put an end to their wickedness and their envy, because there is no harsher sin, or more ardent or more destroying sin like the envy, which feeds with pride and haughtiness to blindness the one who does not have Me in him, and he has only his own self in him. Let all the spirits opposing to My walking with those who are anointed by My strong hand in this time be broken and let them go away in places untraveled by My elected ones, because the people of My word and My anointed ones into its midst for it are My church, My inheritance, and the gates of the hell will not overcome it. Amen.

I also comfort secretly My bishop through whom it has remained on earth the testimony of the appearance of the stone of the New Jerusalem, and I clothe him in the armor of My angel Michael, the angel of My people, that is My inheritance. I protect it from all the dogs that bark at him, for the dogs that bark do not bite, and little by little I give him the crown of patience until its fullness, when the saints and the angels will decorate him. I comfort him in secret and I make him feel the Comforter from Me, and I expedite the time of his love and of his decoration, for I have great mercy of all those who have no life in them, and those who are set over the people under the name of My servants are antichrists, they are not shepherds and they have no mercy on man, but they have only empty glory and empty speaking, which has no effect on anyone, as My life also has no effect upon them as well. I will start touching them and I will put down their pride and I will bring them to humiliation, because I have so great mercy on those who have no life in them and I will raise a shepherd according to My heart and everything will be refreshed at his holy voice. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of the beginning of new age, life is commandment, My people. I wrote with flames of fire on the stone the commandments of life, and whoever lives by them becomes a flame of fire. Speak out the commandments of life and do fulfill even stronger the commandment, which contains them all in it, and love My word, which is given to you by those who take it from Me, as Moses also took the commandments of life and brought them down to Israel who forgot about God for itself.

Make holy the days of My coming to you as word and hallowed be the name of My Father in you, who do His will on earth as in heaven. Do it, My people, and forgive your brother as your Father also forgives you, and you will not know the temptation, but you will know the salvation forever, which He, the Lord God, prepares it for you and keeps you always in it. Amen. Become My feast and My rest, Jerusalem, and blessed be by Me and by you the day when I with you and with My witness, the one from the church of the world, the bishop Irineu, wrote on earth, on stone, the new age, the kingdom of the heavens, a new heaven and a new earth on earth, for the kingdom of God, for the salvation, for the power and for the reign of His Christ through those who have overcome through the blood of the Lamb and through the word of their testimony; He overcame and overcomes for the fullness of the patience of the saints, as it is written into the Scriptures, My people. Amen.

My life in man is God's commandment written with fire on earth. Show yourself in Me, for it is the time of the appearance of God's glory! Show Me in you, for great and glorified is the mystery of My life in man, the mystery of the disciple of God's Lamb, and get used, My people, to your life every moment, for death means everything that is not life, and you should be only life on earth, only word of Holy Spirit, and you should be wholly within Me and I within you, for it is the time of the Lord's appearance on earth, My people, people of the new age on earth. I have separated the ages with you, New Jerusalem, and I have spoken to the nations of the earth about this mystery, and you should be the sign of the mystery of eternal life and you should live this way before Me, and always, always you should make My coming into your midst, so that I may make you My coming and to appear with you to everyone, and the entire heaven and the entire earth to see My coming with you, child confessing of life and of its mysteries on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, sons from the manger of My word listen and accomplish the preparation of feast for the feast of the great prophet Elijah, the forerunner of My second coming from near the Father. Gather the people together announcing it about this feast and celebrate it with dear prayers, with songs of praise, with a godly spirit between Me and you, among you, in order that I may be your Comforter among you, together with the saints who will celebrate in heaven and on earth, in those that are not seen and in those that are seen, the great Elijah, the prophet, who has always accompanied My coming, the way of My coming, for great is his work between heaven and earth for My descending as word from the Father. Persevere more and more within your watching and within your insistent prayers for you and for all the flesh that has a soul in it. Bring great supplications for everything that you and I need on earth. But most of all love your time with Me and all that you and I with you need on earth will be given in abundance, for the work of My Gospel has great reward, sons.

Be good all the time. Be heavenly and pray to the heaven and never be separated from God and from the saints. Be gentle and do not forget about the spirit of humility, which makes the man beautiful before Me through the angels who serve the gentle and the humble one in his heart. Amen, amen, amen.
