The Word of God at the feast of the Holy Spirit Descending – the second day

The work of the Holy Spirit is glorified within a great mystery over the man, for man, because of his lack of steadfastness, would hardly give the answer to God's greatness, Who guides the man. I have stayed with My heaven of saints and angels in the sky of the white tent, under which I have called My people to My table, My people of old, and My today's people. I have looked with fatherly fondness. I have made them sit down, look and listen to the voice of the feast, all those who were remembered after they left their bodies, and I, the Lord, have become word of Holy Spirit. The hearts of those who have come together have been comforted from My work with you upon them, working children, but we need, sons, more working and testifying disciples, for the work of testimony has got the power all the time to call the people to resurrection, to faith, humility and then to life.

Behold now, the spirit of confession is coming into My book with My people and is teaching it this gift, for confession is a great, great gift. With it My apostles were calling from the people those who stood up for the love of God and to the faith that saved the man from the death of his sins. Behold, the spirit of confession is glorified by the teaching with power from near Me through the saints who have come together at the spring in a day of the Holy Spirit's feast, and I will give them the voice of those who confess, the voice of My saints. Amen.

– Having come with You, in a mystery of Holy Spirit of the feast of the Pentecost, we confess, Lord, those that are not seen by human eyes, but they are seen by the spirit of faith and then by the spirit of the love for the heavenly things, oh, merciful Teacher. Oh, how beautifully You have been teaching the people today! Oh, how beautifully we have also stayed, listening and eating from Your mouth! We, Your saints, were on earth as well, and we are now again from near You, Your confessors upon people. Our life full of You on the earth was confessing on earth and in heaven, Lord, for our love for You was glorified in us and it was confessing its work as well. Oh, You should also have this kind of disciples, Lord, and let their number increase, and let You be comforted, for great, so great and so painful, Your pain and Your wound are from man's lack of love, from his lack of faith and from his such great departure from You, Lord. The meat the man goes on eating by killing the animal or the bird to eat meat, this man's great fall darkens his body, his mind, his heart and his power to stop doing this sin. The man cannot turn back into the Scriptures of the life commandments, and in which is said: «Man, you shall not kill». Oh, Lord, oh, Lord, oh, Lord! How hard it is for You on earth with man, but how merciful You are for man! You could not, and You have been waiting for two thousand years to be able to do, but You could not rejoice over a people, totally clean from the spirit of meat, Lord. The spirit of meat is that which has dominion over man, and the man, even if he tries to love You, he cannot love You, Lord, for You need to be loved with all man's being and work, and not in a very small portion, Lord. Oh, how shall the man be able to work out the commandments of life and which You wrote on a stone by a finger of fire to leave them to the people; how shall the people be able to take them upon them when they do not look and do not want not to forget that on the top of the commandments stays written the commandment to love God with all man's mind, with all his soul and with all his might, to be able to fulfill then all the other commandments written under the greatest commandments, the mother of the commandments, the mother which gives birth to all the other commandments in the man who fulfills Your first commandment over man? Oh, who shall fulfill the commandments of life without first fulfilling the first one among them, Lord? We, Your confessing saints, speak the word of our testimony for You and we speak to Your people of old and then to the one who is born now and from now on, to fulfill in him the life and its commandments, and we say this: Listen Israel to the Lord commandments Who tells you: «You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not give false testimony; you shall not covet those that are not yours, for when the Lord wrote the commandments of life, there came thunders and lightning and heavenly trumpets, and all the mountain was smoking, and Israel saw it, trembled and was very much afraid, for God came down in a mountain of fire and smoke was coming up on the mountain like the smoke in a furnace, and all the mountain was trembling under this glory», (See Ex. 20), as it is written in the Scriptures. Listen, Israel of today and tomorrow, listen to the voice of the commandments and be filled with consuming zeal for the Lord, your God, for since then and up to these days, the Lord has not been able to rejoice over a people fulfilling of commandments, for the man cannot believe and not eat meat.

Oh, Israel, oh, Jerusalem, the man shall not eat meat, for the Lord wrote with His finger of fire the commandments of life and told the man not to eat meat, for when He said «You shall not kill», He also said to the man no to eat meat. Oh, do not look, do not look into the Scriptures that write that the man ate meat and the Lord spoke like man. Oh, the man is not supposed to do this. The man has to look into the commandments and fulfill them. Amen. This is what we confess, the Lord's saints, the saints with whom the Lord comes, when He comes as word on the earth, accompanied by His glory, by His angels and saints. He who kills to eat, that one also commits adultery after that, for meat eating separates the man from God, and the man chooses his body and his taste, as Israel chose its meat, and because of it, it has no longer loved God.

Oh, people of the Lord, do not be small in your wisdom. Oh, the man shall not eat meat. The man has to come back at his beginning and to look at the Lord's voice when the Lord told the man what to eat on the earth and then He told him what to eat from heaven. The man has to read in the Scriptures from the beginning and see the man's fall in them by his disobedience and to learn from this and tremble, and then to take the way of life, the way with obedience to God in it. Amen.

We, Your saints, Lord, have spoken to Your people that has come to the spring and confessed to it Your pain from man and called out to it to listen to You and we told him that the man does not have to eat meat, but to eat only what You told him to eat. Amen. We wanted to confess to comfort You, Lord, for the spirit of confession has power by its work, and behold, now there stay to confess You those who are remembered with their soul on the altar to which they are called to their resurrection, Lord, and behold, this is how it is getting complete the spirit of testimony, which is working now from near You and teaching Your people the wisdom of life, oh, Lord of the saints and of Your confessors. Amen, amen, amen.

– Out of the great people and as numerous as all the ages of people to this time, Lord, out of those so great in number remembered now on Your altar of fire, in which the sins of the people are given to be burned so that they may be forgiven and then their bodies to come to life after that, we, those who were removed from the body of Your people that has heard Your voice in this time, we also confess that Your true people of today is that which sanctifies itself for You in their body, in their soul and in their spirit, Lord. As long as we were on the earth in the body of Your people, we have not done worked out in us the spirit and the body of life, for we had no wisdom and did not learn the life from the Scriptures. We speak to Your people of yesterday, and we also speak to the people of today, and we speak to it, those who are confessing now from those that are not seen, and in which are seen those that are made by people, as long as they live on the earth, we speak to it and we tell it in plain language not to eat meat; it should no longer eat meat from now on. And we tell all the people on the earth that the man does not have to eat meat, for the man is not supposed to commit sexual immorality, but he rather needs to read in the Scriptures the commandments left by You for man, Lord. We tell Your people of yesterday and today, we tell it that obedience to You is its salvation, and then the salvation of the earth and its people on it, Lord; and we tell it to come near more and more to the spring of Your voice and to eat and come to life, for death is nothing else than disobedience that puts away the resurrection and life from man. We confess our disobedience, which brought us to sufferance on earth and then to tears and remorse in heaven, but we have Your trumpet as our great intercessor in heaven, the vessel from which we drank on the earth by Your word, which we did not listen to it out of our lack of wisdom.

We thank You that You gave from Your people as mercy for us those that work with You for the salvation of the human people, Lord. Oh, keep them under your invincible shield and always, always teach them to listen to You, for the human people from here and the one on the earth, need Your servants, clean and holy by obedience and sacrifice, Lord. And now, we thank them that they love us, and we confess from near You the word of the Scriptures, word with power of resurrection in it, and which says this: «Love is as strong as death and it prevails against it». Amen, amen, amen.

– And now, I, the Lord, being comforted from the spirit of confession, am resting My Spirit and the spirit of those who take Me as word on the earth, and I will make the word come down again, to make complete the work of this long day of feast of the Holy Spirit, a threefold day of feast over My people, and that I may teach My people and help it to fulfill Me in it. Amen. Comforting it, I will teach it and calling it I will call it, and I will draw it near to its salvation from Me. Amen, amen, amen.

15/28-05-2007