The Word of God at the feast of the Cover of the Lord's Mother

I, the Lord, come down on earth on the clouds of cherubim over My people into the midst of the Romanian people, and I set My food over it before the people so that they may hear of the God's glory in these days, for two thousand years ago I said: «You will see the Son of Man ascending and descending», for I went to the Father in order to come back again with the spirit of comfort on earth, and this is how I am coming, as I promised that I come. Amen.

I am coming on clouds of cherubim and I am using My gates to enter as word into My book of today, and the gates are opening at My voice and this is how I am coming in to feed you from Me, My today's people. Oh, open for Me to come into your being and listen to My word and fulfill it, for I am this word, I and My fulfillment, which I want to be in you in a great measure, My people. I speak with you sweeter and more beautiful then I spoke with Israel when I had Moses between Me and it, for you are at the end of the time; you are not at the beginning, and you need much comfort and much power to be able to be with God, for the evil spirit is worse than anytime and that is why it has become worse and worse, more wounded and more upset. However, you should not be afraid, people nourished by God, for I, the Lord has always given you My hand and I pass you over pains in My arms over the troubles and waves that try to swallow you and I have always cleaned your face and your little garment, for I know the hard time, as its poison is written into the Scripture and you cannot avoid it, but you can prevail against it with God, for I need a victorious people, now, at the end of the time, because I have to fulfill the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead, and then the life of the age to come after the man's ages, and I need you, My people. Oh, let any sort of wind blow, but you stay close to My bosom, for I am God and I can do everything, only for you to be able to believe in Me, to listen to Me and to comfort Me, because I feed you with the spirit of comfort and I give you the gift of holiness, and you, as a baby, come to My bosom and learn your protection from Me, learn to love Me and to believe Me, for he who has faith in My works upon man is great, and everything is possible to the one who has faith, because the Lord can work for him. Amen.

I am into your midst with My mother, the Virgin, My people and we are accompanied by saints, prophets and apostles, and these watch and feed you on My word, and we are carried on the clouds by cherubim, for this is how My coming with the saints is prophesied, and My glory from the end of the time is great, for it is at the end, and the end prepares the beginning and the life of the age that is to be on earth after the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead is fulfilled. Amen.

I have set order into your midst the everyday sacrifice from Me for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead, oh, and how mysteriously I work, My people! In the time of My coming on earth by My birth of the Virgin mother, I fulfilled then the Scriptures spoken by the prophets about Messiah's coming and about God's kingdom on earth with man and all the fulfillments remained mysterious for they have been fulfilled mysteriously for those who believed in them. Those who hoped in earthly achievements for My kingdom with man, they did not understand and then they did not believe in My coming, and I was telling them that God's kingdom was not of this world and that it was in those who loved it in them, and Me as their master, the Master of their lives and love on earth. Oh, today it is the same. I, the Lord, fulfill mysteriously everything I declare, for I do not set the fulfillments on the sons of men, for only on those who are and become God's sons among people, and My promises belong to them, only for them to know to perceive and carry them in them and over them, for My kingdom with them is not of this world, but it is from heaven and it is with the heaven in the midst of the faithful ones, and this heaven is My throne, whose bed is the earth, as it is written.

Oh, the man does not understand My mysteries and My speaking about them. The man does not understand the mysteries of the church. The church is a great mystery because it is My kingdom, which does not have anything in this world through which it passes and is glorified by giving glory to God for its faith in Him. It believes in the Father, in the Son and in the Holy Spirit, confessing the baptism for the forgiveness of sins and waiting for the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age to be.

Oh, there is no church on earth any longer, for the work of the church overcomes the world, as I overcame it. The work of the church is God's kingdom on earth with people, and this mystery is in Christ and in church, it is not in this world. I longingly want the man to understand God's mystery, the mystery of the church, and that is why I have come as word on earth, now, in the end of the time. I have come to teach the man the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens on earth with him and his faith in this fulfillment, and I have come to fulfill. Amen.

Come, mother, let Us work before the people Our speaking with the man, faithful to My coming. Come, mother, to strew over man the wisdom and the faith for the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age that is to come, for this age is not, because what it is, it is and does not pass away, mother. Come, mother, come to make the man's building for the man to be then, because that which is not built is not, mother.

– Oh, the man is not built, he is not made, Son of the Father and mine, for You are the Creator of everything, and in order for You to give birth to the man from above, You have to build in him first the kingdom of the heavens, my dear Son and God of the faithful ones.

Oh, the man cannot love the kingdom of the heavens in him, for the man loves sin in him, and sin is death. The man dips his morsel in sin and eats it and he is not fed with God. Oh, the man cannot have control over himself to take God's kingdom in him then and to glorify it in him, Son Lord. You have come now on earth with the wonder of Your speaking over man, but the man is unfaithful and believes only what he sees, poor of him, for he has corrupted his sight for Your things and he sees only the things of the man. You have come on earth with the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, and Your voice into the midst of Your people is heard by those in the graves, for You have set a daily sacrifice into the midst of Your people and they are called out to resurrection, to remission of sins and then to their resurrection, for the prophet David blessed the Lord and said: «Praise the Lord, my soul, the Lord Who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases. He redeems your life from destruction; Who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies; He will not always accuse; neither will He stay angry forever. He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His loving kindness toward those who fear Him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us. Like a father has compassion on his children, so the Lord, has compassion on those who fear Him. For He knows how we are made. He remembers that we are dust. As for man, his days are grass. As a flower of the field, so he perishes. For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. Its place remembers it no more. But the Lord's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear Him; to those who keep His covenant; to those who remember to obey His precepts». (Ps. 103:1-4; 9-18; 103 Masoretic Text = 102 LXX)

Oh, people of God's word, my Son! He exhorts you to fulfill His precepts that His mercy may always be on you. Oh, teach the people the mystery of the resurrection of the dead, for the people do not know and do not have a teacher to tell them and to teach them the resurrection and the life. Tell them that you are ordained by God to speak and to work the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, and then they may come to life, and they will come to life and testify God's work, Who leads you in these days, and Who speaks over the living and the dead, for my Son spoke two thousand years ago that the time would come for those in the tombs to hear His voice and to come to life. Amen.

Oh, sons and daughters of my Son's word, Who gives birth to man from above! Open the book of His teaching on you and follow His teaching, for the resurrection of the dead comes and the people have to fear God and to fulfill His commandments on earth so that the Lord may remove from them the reward of their transgression. Teach the people their resurrection from sin, their resurrection from death. Tell those who call themselves Christians, that to be a Christian means to live in the spirit, soul and body in Christ and not in this world. And how comes in this world? That is in its desires, for my Son whispered in the ear of those who hear Him speaking; He said that as the man dips his morsel of bread or polenta in the tray with greaves, in the same way he spreads his morsel of sin and spoils his heart, his body against the spirit of the life of my Son, in man. Oh, always watch for your resurrection, always, always for resurrection. Love one another as my Son has loved you. How has He loved you? He laid down His life for you. And you should do the same to each other and work the resurrection in a spirit of humility to each other, and in the same way, you should exhort those who ask you about God, Who speaks with you. Oh, build each other in Christ. This means to love one another as the Lord, Jesus Chris, my Son, has loved you. Oh, I would like to speak very much with you; I would very much build you and teach you very much with the spirit of resurrection by my speaking, but you have much instruction upon you, for the wisdom of the word of my Son upon you is great. Keep watch for one another for the Lord's teaching upon you, for there comes the resurrection of the dead, which waits in the dust of the earth, and this Scripture waits after you. The Lord wants you to be one and one, and all of you to be grown at the same stature, built equally and equally filled with God. Ask for the growth upon you. Set watchmen to feed you from God, to feed you continually, for it is given to them to feed you according to His order. He who takes grown from himself, that one is not a beautiful child, and he who receives growth from the hand of those ordained by God for you, that one is blessed and protected from death, because this means for man to pass from body into spirit. Oh, blessed are those who listen to those who are ordained by God over them! Blessed are those who become a field, for those who sow God's kingdom in man. Blessed are those who listen to the advise and hand of those who work from God upon them, because man has to deny himself and he can do this only in obedience, for there have been great people on earth in their rank and love for God, and when they longed after their salvation more, they bowed down and went to obedience, to selfdenial and to their cross bearing in order to be saved, for he who is saved is he who saves from his self, and man's salvation is nothing else, but the saving life in man.

Oh, listen to God's precepts, you, God's sons, and listen to those who are ordained by God to lead you so that you may be guided sons, obedient sons. Amen.

And as for You, my Lord and Son, teach the sons of men the wisdom of resurrection. Come with this table before them and send angelic hosts to touch their souls by the sweet wind of Your word on earth, word that comforts and which calls and gives life, and have mercy on the Romanian country according to Your promises for it, and crown it with the spirit of the fear of God and then with the spirit of resurrection, and remember the prophecy made to king David, who spoke and said: «As far as the heaven is from the earth, as far as the east is from the west, so far is the Lord's mercy for those who fear Him». Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, oh, mother of those who are built in Me! Your spirit of mother of God's sons is sweet! Let the men's sons learn, mother, for We have to heal the man from the spirit of son. I told those who set Us in the book that as the man dips his morsel of bread or polenta in the tray with greaves, in the same way he dips his morsel in sin and then swallows it up spoiling his heart and body in it against the spirit of My live in man, and We and those who share Us to the people have to teach the people the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, mother. Amen.

Oh, people led by God from heaven and from the earth! Come to be nourished, come, son, and stay and learn. As the chicks of the swallow stay in their nest and receive food from their mother, taking in their little beak from its beak, and as they grow to fly, in the same way you should grow to eat and to grow, to be able to be useful to God and to feed the people with the Spirit of God so that He may grow in people, in such a way that the people may be saved from the bondage of sin. Oh, My people, the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead is worked into your midst on earth. I have built you for the resurrection of the dead and I put into your midst the daily sacrifice and I have not put not in this world and for its children. Oh, My people, your mystery with Me frighten the demons. Therefore, sanctify yourself! Get up every day and be more and more with your spirit above your body, for behold, the spirit is that which gives you life. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Let much and much peace be between Me and you, and this means the fulfillment of God's commandments over your being and between brother and brother. Oh, do not be afraid of bad people; do not be afraid of storm. I am He Who protects you, because you cannot do this. I can, and you should be able to work for God. I can, and you should work resurrection. Amen.

Resurrection to you, My people, and resurrection from your over the sons of men! The Spirit of the resurrection is that which is worked from heaven on earth in these days of the speaking of God's Son over the living and over the dead. I am the resurrection and the life. I was born on earth to be with the people and to remain with them after that to the end of the time and then to give them their resurrection, and to give them the life of the age that is to be, and they should believe it and have it, as My promise is written for those who are faithful and holy, My people. Amen, amen, amen.
