The Word of God at the feast of the Lord's bodily circumcision and the feast of the Saint hierarch Basil the Great

My word during these days is My testimony, it is the spirit of prophecy, a spirit which does not have to be absent from the earth, for I said that I would be to the end of the time with those who are Mine, and through them from one to another, to rule them through the waves of the time, to protect them, to advise them, to give them the word of My mouth, for I am Who I am, and I did not speak on earth only two thousand years ago when I came from the Father and became a Man by My birth of a mother Virgin, and behold, I am He Who speaks from heaven; I am the Word of God and I come with heavenly armies after Me, for this is how I travel.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I am His Word to the end, as I was at the beginning, and I speak on earth from the Father, and I am not an angel, but I am true God from true God, and the Father Sabaoth has sent Me. I am coming down into the book in My little garden of word from the midst of the Romanian people and I am writing Myself with My feast of today, and near it, with that of My bishop Basil, the one who rebuked the king when this one wanted to change the man's way to God by the heresy that came up then in the midst of the church, trying to overthrow the guide full of care for the destiny of the salvation of My believers, and My watching saints for God's house are great; they are great both in heaven and on earth, for they were the watchmen after the Spirit of God over My house, not according to their spirit, and the spirit of the revelations were with them.

I am sitting down with you at the table, people of My word. I have been spending days of heavenly feast on earth, as I have nowhere to go anymore, as man is everywhere, but you should be a child receiving of God as Samuel, the prophet, was, when he was a child and when I, the Lord, set My Spirit upon him, the spirit of prophecy, and he worked with this guide, working from Me, and then he took care of My way over the people and over the kings, as there was no time for Me to be absent from the earth; I was in those who were faithful and full of My grace for their faith because of their submission before Me, as I bestowed them as gifts upon them. Oh, it would be so well with Me, it would have been so well with them, and it would also be well with those who sit highly over the flock of people too, if they knew Me with you as word upon them, just as I was known by the priest near whom I had set Samuel to stay with him at the middle for the spirit of prophecy! It is not, it was not and it will never and nowhere be My church, but only if I have room within it with the spirit of prophecy, as it was in the time of My disciples with whom I walked two thousand years ago, and with whom My Spirit, the spirit of prophecy, remained, for they were prophets in its midst, as I ordained by My church so that I might be with it to the end of the time, as I promised.

Oh, well My people, I was not able to make the stock of vine sprout, for it became completely dry and therefore, I could no longer find any life in it. I set to work the spirit of prophecy, My zeal, and I started all over again from the beginning with My word and I planted a new vineyard, for I am the One Who has built the heaven and the earth, the man and My church. I do not have to ask the man when I have to come to work on earth after man has spoiled all the things that I have built. Still, I have to listen to the Father in order to come and work, for My work is the obedience to God and not obedience to men.

Oh, there is great noise on earth for the man's way with God and the spirit of prophecy is not in the church, and there is no faith for this. All have deserted Me everywhere and they do no longer know Me by the spirit working from heaven, which has gone out on earth because of the spirit of unbelief, of the man's spirit, hungry of power over the earth. I am coming and finding unbelief and pride in man, and the voice of the Spirit is no longer taken into account, for man has settled down as God in My place and he fell from God when he wanted to be so, and he fell like Lucifer, who wanted to be above God and who changed Me with man, and thus he lost his brightness from Me and became satan, and then he became God's adversary.

Man has tried to get everything but not faith, and the church needs faith, humility, repentance and welcome, for where there is faith and life dedicated to Me, I come and knock, and I come in and then I bring light in everything; I bring the spirit of prophecy and the spirit of the revelation from the heavens and I can do this by the man's faith and humility, and I cannot be with man otherwise in order to give him.

The Holy Spirit breathes over the earth and does not find any place to settle down, for He has always worked to let the man know how to work for each condition and work, as the house in which I have to work on earth with the people has become a den of thieves and the people do not know where they go when they go to the place they know as God's house. Who is to tell them what God with people means? Only those who sit at their table with the book of their faith open on the table; only those still know how to experience Me and how to let Me work and lead them through the storms so that they may not perish because of the pride and because of My removal from them, because of their unbelief in the power and in the work of the Holy Spirit, Who comes in time on earth, as He is the Watcher.

Oh, who is to tell the wandering flock that My name goes out from the earth in such a way that the name of the haughty man may remain on God's behalf and on God's house; on behalf of the wandering flock and without a shepherd on it? The wolves are nothing but wolves, they are not shepherds; I am the Shepherd, but the wolves have removed Me to the sides and they have appeared instead and that is all. I come with the great saints and I show them everywhere what is on earth under the name of church; I show them what the antichrist did and still does to wipe out My name from the people, to be God in My place and to draw the flock towards him. Oh, man cannot correct anything of those that have been torn down, and here it is how I come, and We will make all things new, for I am the beginning and the end of all things, and I start doing a new thing, and this has shot forth buds, but I always have to speak word over satan so that he may know that I am God and not he, as he is My adversary; the adversary of the invincible power between heaven and earth.

Oh, it is a day of holy feast to My memorial. Eight days after My birth I was submitted to the law of physical circumcision so that it may remain over time that God became Man and appeared to the people full of grace and truth. The spirit of prophecy told about Me then that I would be to the falling and to the raising of many in Israel and that I would be as a sign of denial, as it was so, and it is so today. The people, who have set themselves as servants upon people in My name, do not know what God means, as the old Simeon knew from the Holy Spirit when he saw Me a Child, received Me, and spoke his prophecy for Me. Many of the church servants hear, they hear the roaring of this river of word and they do not know what it means, and they say that they are watchers, that they are smart and that they know to give Me out from them, as though My voice of today by this word is not the Holy Spirit. However this word is the Spirit of Truth and no one knows Me. I know all those who deny Me and this word is like a sign of denial, which is born of God and of which the whole breath has to be born again, all the creation again, and I will put the man aside and I will fulfill in this way, and many will believe and will be baptized in this word in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; and still, many will find their salvation, as I said two thousand years ago that I would work. Amen.

I have within My descent the good and the faithful one, My bishop full of the Spirit of Truth, Basil who was Great in word for God before the rulers on the earth in his time. The saints are also coming with Me on earth, because the Spirit of Truth is no longer on earth, and it is only the spirit of man and that is all; however, I, the Lord, am coming and the spirit of prophecy is My testimony; I am working with it from heaven and from earth and I am going with it to the things that have been spoiled and completely crushed by man, which I have made to be. I am working with My saints, with My faithful witnesses, with those in heaven, as on earth, I have only enemies, only wolves, and I stay with the saints and with those who are faithful to Me on earth; moreover, I am working in the spirit of truth upon the whole lie on earth, I have a little garden of word and I am becoming a book in it and I am sharing with it to knowledge so that all may know that the Holy Spirit is breathing now on earth, as the Father and the Son is sending Him to the people to their illumination.

Oh, great bishop among the righteous ones, My servants in heaven, I am writing you down into the book with Me as word so that many may wonder, and whoever wonders remains with his wondering and that is all, but the faithful are My witnesses and the witnesses of the Holy Spirit, Who spoke and speak through the prophets, and He will remain to the end of the time and will build My church, My kingdom, My homeland for the saints. Amen.

— Oh, it is the time for You to work, Shepherd Lord, and it is the time for You to shepherd, for the people have spoiled the way to You for the faithful ones, and they have put it aside. There is no need to ask anyone if they believe or not, but we rather have to work from heaven, Lord. On earth, everything is mingled, for the antichrist is at the end of his road and he looks in the Scriptures to fulfill according to them his work and his haughtiness as long it is his time. It has been long until he has spoiled everything, before he has deceived on the right and on the left with his power, with his dyed face, by which he has gone up to the top for the sake of his dominion over the whole earth, and no David has been found until now to destroy this giant who has mocked God's face and the seat of His glory from above.

Two thousand years ago, You told the disciples not to call anyone father on earth, as only One is Father, the One in heaven, Lord, and You also told them no longer to consider among themselves that one should be greater than the others, but that they should rather serve one another in love, one to be smaller than the other, one to be more serving than the other in his ministry for the brothers. Behold now how much foolishness is on earth! It was written in the Scriptures that this thick darkness, which was made by the lack of faith, would come over the people; and we, Your saints, many of us had prophesied about this black time that it would come and that it would spoil and trample Your entire vineyard under its feet. It was written that it would come and that You would find unbelief, and behold the fulfillment, Lord.

You, those who set yourselves as great over people under the name of shepherds from God, who have ordained you as shepherds? The spirit of prophecy, the spirit of the revelation has to ordain shepherds over the church of the Lamb of God. Oh, why do you put aside the voice of the Holy Spirit and the spirit of the revelation from God? You have done this only to have dominion, and Lucifer lives in you. Oh, what will your answer be that you have become thieves? Look into our lives, into the lives of the Lord servants of old and be ashamed, you, paid shepherds, shepherds hired to sell the flock on the glory for you from it. Oh, where will you hide in such a way that the Lord may not find you and call you to account, because you have stolen His vineyard and give it to the passers-by so that they may trample it under their feet? Oh, after you have trampled over the saints and fathers, by whom the Lord strengthened on their testimony His house and watch over the flock, now you have given yourselves over to the Babylon; you have given yourselves to the mixture and there is no one of you to rebuke you to repentance for the crushing of the Lord's will, from Whose hand you have taken the helm. I rebuked the king straight in his face when he sided with those who went astray from the faith and who misinterpreted the truth, and I did not give myself over to a hand inimical to God for the fear of the scepter of the dominion over the earth. The Lord will require an answer from you, you should know this! You have set each other as shepherds of flocks and have no longer wanted to hear from the Holy Spirit, Who reveals God's will from God! You have covered the truth and you will be called to an account before God. Now you are not afraid, but the fear of God is going to come on earth and you will freeze to death. Oh, repent! The fathers from heaven require you an answer for those that you have spoiled and put aside so that you may embrace the pagans and play with the people's salvation, worshipping on behalf of their name before the man greedy for power, eager to overthrow God and to sit in God's temple as God, as it is written that the man of lawlessness will do in the end of the time. Oh, of what use is this to you? Wake up and listen to the Lord, Who cries out far and wide, asking you to throw aside the decay, as the day is coming when you will be frightened worse than Judas, who was leaving the disciples and constantly went to and from Caiaphas. He had never wanted the other disciples to know about his dishonest ways, but the Lord's eyes had always been upon him and He had tolerated him so that the Scriptures of the Lord's betrayal might be fulfilled, for Judas had walked after his interests in the world, and he had done it in secret until the day when it was disclosed who he walked with, for after he had taken the Lord's Supper with the other disciples, he received satan's power in him and betrayed the Lord, for he was eating from two sides, and those who had bought the Lord from him did not tell him anything; they did not tell him what they were going to do to the Lord he had betrayed, and only after Judas saw what it had come out of his dishonest walk, he said: «I betrayed innocent blood», (Matt. 27:4), but it was too late when he saw that and great fear fell upon him, the great despair.

Behold, you do not have the Lord in you and you did not realize what kind of work you chose when you decided to be servants on God's behalf, and I, the bishop Basil, the Lord's witness on earth and up to heaven, am telling you that you have been nourished with unbelief in vain. God is and you will see that He is and great fear will seize you and you will not be able to hide from it for the fear of God will come down from heaven and it will fall unexpectedly on you, because you have betrayed the Lord. You have to leave room for a question mark, as behold, God is and He is coming with His retinue of saints on earth as word and He is visiting His vineyard, as the clock is beating His coming, and He is coming speaking and searching out. Amen.

Oh, Lord, save Your people and bless Your little inheritance, bless the people of Your word, that of the Romanian people, for the people have violated Your law and You are coming, searching and working, and You start all over again from the beginning and You make them all new; You make them again for they have become corrupted.

Get up, faithful people, and rebuke satan in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ, so that he may lose his power and obey, for I have prophesied upon him a word of reproach, which has to be fulfilled to its end; moreover, you should also speak over the earth the word of reproach for satan and for all his servants, for they hid my book and my prophecy left against satan, and let it be read daily at you to be remembered, and let it command in the name of the Holy Spirit the destruction of satan's work on earth, from the people and from all its nests and secret places. Amen.

You, servants of the Lord's altar into the midst of this people chosen by the Lord for His glory of nowadays, bring prayers to the Lord for His victory, and reproach satan every day, as all the time there is with you a table with clean food on it, fasting from worldly food, as the Lord has asked you to eat monastic food always and to be always prepared, day by day with fasting and prayer, and you have loved to do this and fulfilled so at the Lord's word, for the kind of the devils that swarm from heaven and down to earth no longer have any fear now but of the faithful ones, when they spend their day and night fasting and praying for the Lord's coming and for His victory in the end of the time, that from nowadays. The Lord has asked you to eat monastic food always and you have loved and fulfilled so at the Lord's word, and you have listened to Him. The Lord took you out of the world and you came out of it to be His people set apart for His glory. Have a big heart! The Lord is with you within His coming, within His entire glory full of word! Give Him power to come and build; to come and the Lord to be on earth! Amen.

Lord, have with them a heavenly citadel on earth, as our longing burns in heaven after Your Scriptures set on earth to the least of the Scripture of Your entire fulfillments. Oh, give them the victory with You! Let the angels and the saints be inhabitants with them, and through them to be workers over the earth, and may those who do not love God be cursed, as it is written, for the Lord is coming. Amen.

— I am giving you of My joy with you into the midst of the people of My word, oh, My beloved saints. The time is with the spirit of the darkness on it; however, We have a house on earth, We become light in it, We share Ourselves and build the church, as My saints had built it through their life by their testimony and by the spirit of prophecy. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Prepare for Me, son, a feast of Epiphany now, and strengthen yourself within My Spirit, because I, the Lord, strengthen Myself in you so that we may work much glory and wisdom over those who come and get together near Me and near you at the feast of Epiphany soon. I am sending to you travelling angels together with them to My spring of word and water, confirmed by the word of Epiphany upon it. I am coming into their way with My glory and I am giving them from it so that they may know Me and be faithful. I will strengthen them within Me, as they cannot find anywhere clean pasture anymore, as there is only poison everywhere, there is only faith denial, and it has been foretold through the Scriptures that it would be this; however, for My elected, these hard times will be shortened, for this is what I spoke through the Scriptures, as I promised.

May your hard work for the preparation of the Epiphany feast be blessed, My people! My saints and I are coming to your help, and you should be and stay within the spirit of humility and within the spirit of the infancy from Me to be able to be carried in the arms, son, for My arms are with you. Be faithful, be greatly faithful, for I have promised you and this is how I am going to fulfill. Amen, amen, amen.
