The Word of God at the feast of the Lord's Resurrection

Having come here, at the feast of My Resurrection, you and I, I and you and all those in heaven, those in heaven and those on earth, are telling you now, in My speaking of today, the speaking of My male and female disciples, two thousand years ago after I, the Lord, passing through the cross and through the death on the cross, unimaginable pain of My Spirit and the entire spirit of the heaven, but also the joy of My victory against the devil, as old as five thousand years at that time, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am telling you the news which went then from mouth to mouth to the pain and strain of those who crucified Me, I am telling you this: „Christ has risen!".

Oh, My people, oh, My new and little Jerusalem, I am bringing you from among those in heaven the greeting of My resurrection: „Christ has risen!". I do not have anyone else but you. You should believe what I am telling you, son Jerusalem. Oh, seek all the time to be only Mine, only with Me, for I have only you on the earth. When those, who have got high churchly ranks on the earth or those who learn from books, hear the things that I am telling you now, they start to marvel and have an evil soul, but whenever I speak to you the word, I know what I tell you. All those who have big faith, who have a big heart and good Christian work mind their own business and their salvation according to what they say that they do, but it is not so with you, My people. I have chosen you from among people to set you at the table of word with Me and you are to be My will between earth and heaven and you are to share My word over the earth, the word of the new creation, son, for I have to set a new heaven and a new earth between heaven and earth, as it is written into the Scripture for Me to do, and let these be after that, and I also need to have a people close to Me, freed from worries and completely dedicated to Me, for I bear a lot of worries with you for My victory over the earth, and you are so tiny and so little in number, as the Christians on the earth do not come under My cross, for they have to carry theirs, and My today's cross is hard, and you do no longer have time for you, and how beautiful is this; that is, that man who forgets about himself and gives himself over to Me completely and to My very difficult hardships and so that he may live like this and not like all the Christians who do everything they want on their Christian way as they view it, and as all go, those who do not know sufficiently what God with people on the earth means, and those who do not know what it means man to serve God. Christians always ask everything from God, all from earth and from heaven, but you are other kind of Christians, for you do not ask but you give to God; you give your whole hard work and you are little, sons, and you are weak in respect to those on the earth, since you do not work for you for the master like all the people, because you labor in My vineyard, in My work, and you work hard with Me within My coming, well sons. Oh, you should not believe that you work hard for something else and otherwise. I have you close for Me and not for you, and I have you close for the salvation of many, sons, for I have always come to you as the word of the new birth of the world and of the man, and this is how I gather from here and there people who love God more than they love the flesh and the fleshly pleasures, pleasures, which go into the soul and then bring it into bondage to sin and to separation from God, sons, and I suffer, and I suffer because the Christians and the people do not love Me, well sons, and I suffer that they do not have a ruler upon them to teach them self-denial and then to teach them the seeking after Me, for I am the Master of the heaven and the earth and the Christians and the people do not serve Me, and rather they serve themselves day and night, and then they come to the end of the thread of their life and long after the paradise and after God's mercy for their eternal life then.

I tell you all these to believe Me sufficiently as I do not have anything but you, and also to believe this those who think that they are close to God with their life, with their works, with their election and with their wisdom, but for man is hard to stay close to Me, it is too hard for him. Oh, who was close to Me in My most difficult pain two thousand years ago? No one was able to endure with Me everything I had to bear and pass through at that time, but I had great love and watch for Me, My female disciples, those who had nothing to do but to follow Me and to give Me all their love, all, sons, all their longing, and nothing stood against them, for this is the whole love; it is the force which keeps away any opposing power, any satanic thought, and this was seen then. And I brought My disciples under protection; I protected them by the word spoken upon them and upon those who wanted to seek them for My name, and I kept them for the testimony of My resurrection according to My living with them three years and a half, from place to place on earth for the comfort of the pains everywhere they were coming with those who were very weak, so that I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, could comfort their pains as all those who were sick knew Me and were seeking Me, and My female disciples and all those, who helped them for My glory at that time, served Me and My disciples with zeal, and they took great care and always for the good condition of My work over the earth, and then they took great care to the spirit of confession upon people and kings, for I went to the Father to be with them near Him to the end of the time, as I promised them, and now they all come together around you, My sons of today on the earth, and I am with them near you to the end, and, behold, it is more now in the end, for My word ordains, works and finishes any beginning and it lifts it up to its place, and all the things are mysterious and a new heaven and a new earth is being worked, and the word of the Scripture of the new creation of the world does not lie, but the people of the earth have only fleshly eyes and only earthly mind, because the people do not want to give the eyes of their spirit and its dwelling place, that is the mind, to give to God and the Lord to make them in His image and after His likeness, so that the people may see the Lord and follow Him then as you also follow Him.

Behold, man is born of sin and he lives in vain on the earth and then he suffers forever because he has not understood God in all things; the One Who made the heaven, the earth and then the man for this creation, well sons. Moreover, if I have spoken to you, then I am also speaking to the sons of the earth and I am telling them the greeting of My resurrection, too.

Oh, sons of men, oh, sons of the earth, Christ has risen! I, Myself, I, the Lord, bring you the greeting of My resurrection. Pay attention, oh, pay attention that the Lord in the beginning made the heaven and the earth and gave the earth as an inheritance to the people; however, the heaven, who inherits the heaven? Oh, who really inherits the heaven, sons of the earth? If the heaven did not give it, would the earth and the people on it have life, and all the creation that serves the life of the people on earth?

Oh, pay attention to where the life on the earth comes from. From the earth only death comes upon people, but life comes from heaven. I call you with longing, I call you out with mourning; seek after your life from heaven, as life is from heaven, and behold, life becomes word upon you, as it is written in the Scriptures that in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God, and the same was in the beginning with God and all things were made through Him, and in Him was life. Oh, I was the Word, and I was from the beginning with God and everything was made by Me, and life was in Me, and I gave life to the creation after I had spoken the word to make the heaven and earth, and after two thousand years from My resurrection from the dead, here I am, speaking now over the earth: Christ has risen! For two thousand years ago, I came on earth and I became the Son of Man and I live thirty-three years among people, and in the end, after I had stayed with My disciples for three years and a half, I went to die on the cross to bring back everything the man had spoiled in paradise seven thousand years ago and to give him a reason to leave off sin and to come back to God, to come to the One Who has suffered for him, to his Maker, for man has completely forsaken Me and he forsook Me even from paradise.

I am coming with the paradise after you, I am calling you into its mystery and I am helping you to be able to love your life and to forsake the sting of death, for sin is death, oh sons of the earth. However, now I am coming and giving you the heaven as your inheritance, if you want to listen to Me on the earth, for I also lived on the earth but I completely listened to My Father God, and My will was His will, not Mine, and I was the Son of My Father, as I did come from Him on the earth, and even more, I carried Him within Me forever, as He also carried Me within Him, and I did His work.

The Son of the Lord, the Son of the heaven also died for you two thousand years ago, oh, sons of men, but the Lord resurrected Him on the third day and gave Himself to be your Savior. Oh, you should also live before Me as I lived before the Father doing His entire will, all His work, and you will not live in vain on earth if you listen to do so. Oh, stand up! No matter how sinful you may be, I have power from the Father to forgive you, to wipe out your sins and to give you the garment of My resurrection, My body and blood, to be always alive, always, for within Me is life, oh, sons of the earth, but become sons of the heaven on earth as I also was, and when the earth is going to come to its new creation, the new heaven will be given to you as your inheritance, and all the angels and all the saints in heaven stay and wait for those who are saved to come and to inherit, those who call the Lord, for it is written: «And whoever will call on the name of the Lord shall be saved!». (Joel: 2/32) Amen.

Oh, on this Sunday of the feast of My Resurrection, on the first day of the week, I am calling you to resurrection; I am calling you, Romanian people. Oh, stand up! I am calling you longingly and I mysteriously speak My word upon you. Stand up, oh, My country of My second coming from the Father on the earth to the people! When in the beginning I made the heaven and the earth, I spoke the word, and they were made and appeared and they were ordained at their place. Now, in the end, I am speaking the word upon you and I am saying: Become a new heaven and a new earth, oh, Romanian people, as on your land I have the crop of My word, the word of My mouth, which comes on the whisper of the wind, carried by the clouds of the Lord's glory and it comes to you to lift you up, oh, My country of today. I have the little garden of My word on your hearth, where I am descending in a place prepared to Me to come and to speak from the throne and to rule with an iron rod the nations of the earth, as it is written for Me to fulfill. Oh, open yourself and receive My coming! Christ has risen, I, the Lord, tell you, My country of today, and I am telling you today and tomorrow, and you should learn to inherit the heaven and the saints of the heaven to inherit on your land, too, and your land to become heaven for those in heaven as heavenly church on the earth. Oh, come to My help, come to help the Lord your God, as I did not go to Jerusalem since I have come to you, but I have come to you, I am spending with you and I am speaking the word of the new beginning, even if the Christian people always go to Jerusalem for what they may find there about My passing on the earth there two thousand years ago when Jerusalem did not welcome Me; and behold, now as then, My tracks testify there to the judgment of those who did not believe then and who do not believe today in My coming at that time and in My coming of nowadays, which is written in the Scriptures to be now. And as two thousand years ago I came because it had been written for Me to come, the same is today, I am coming because it has been written for Me to come, and I am descending and fulfilling My coming and the word of My coming, and I am preparing mysteriously the new creation: the new heaven and the new earth, and behold, I am preparing heirs, and concerning you, I have been earnestly been calling you, oh, My country of longing, as I long for you and I have been longing for you for two thousand years; I have been longing for you since the Father Sabaoth decided to have your land as My support and glory for My second coming, because Jerusalem cast Me away from its midst, and those who live today are the sons of those who crucified Me at that time there.

Oh, peace to you, My country, My Romania! Your land is Mine. I have ordained in it the mystery of My coming as word on the earth now, in the end of the time, and I do not want, oh, I do not want that the people in you to cast Me away as Jerusalem did, after I had called out to Him so much to gather it as the hen gathers her chickens, but they did not want and put Me away from their midst and banished Me from among them.

Oh, peace to you, land of My glory in the end of the time, Romanian people, My longing for two thousand years, and behold, I have My glory upon you and upon the people of My today's word over the earth and My throne; and, My river of word, which flows from My throne to wash your face, to wash your land, and you may be My glory, as I am your glory too, I and My word into your midst. Amen, amen, amen.
