The Word of God at the Feast of the Saint Apostle, the First Martyr and Archdeacon Stephen

In the feasts of the saints I am sitting down into the book with My saints and you should welcome Me, sons who watch for My coming and speaking in the feasts with you.

We are in the days of the feast of birth, and I, the Lord, am telling you not to rest from worries, not yet, sons, that in ten days you have to be ready with the preparation of the feast of Epiphany and to open the gates for the people to enter the celebration.

Oh, so is your work with God, and carry it on your little shoulders, for your power comes from Me, because man is small, small, so that God may be big, My sons. In the world, however, it is otherwise, for the sons of the world, the sons of the people are full of themselves and do not want to know how small man is, and that is why they puff themselves up before one another, oh, and that is why it is not beautiful on earth, sons. And how can it be beautiful on earth when people are so big and strong that God does not fit in with them, when they do not recognize their weaknesses and their so small measure? Oh, that man has no intention of looking and seeing himself well, as for that you must be very smart and wise, in order to look at yourself all the time, and to see yourself if you do look, and to acknowledge all your infirmities and let go of the spirit of pride, the spirit that fully deforms a man, after a man does not know how to behave and be brave that the Lord may take the brave one back in His service and to give him a great job, to crown his life and the works of his life, and then the wages for his works, the payment both on earth and in heaven, sons.

Behold a day of the feast of saints and here I am at the table with them, and We are setting a table of word in the citadel to take those with a longing after God in them, sons! Oh, in the Romanian people there are many names of people with this word in their names, the name of the longing, and they are called: Longing (male), Longing (female), Little Longing, Longing in and so on. (In Romania, diminutives are used for the word – „dor" – longing, like: Dorul, Dora, Doruțul, Dorin, Dorina, Doruleț, and so on, r.n.) Oh, how beautiful! However, it is not only by name that people should be called so, but also by the way of their soul towards God, by the longing in them after Me, full of longing after Me, for only this longing can keep man with God, and he who lives with the Lord without the longing after the Lord, oh that one does not have any power for God and the Lord does not know him.

Oh, sons, only the longing makes man able to know the Lord and then it makes him long for the one expected, to sing His coming and to sing the man's love and longing after Him. At the time of the building up of Christ's church, skilled builders were to be chosen to work with God at the building up of the body of the church, of the Lord's flock, at the man's new birth, and there were enough who came closer for the creation above. And when the twelve apostles saw this zeal for building, they appointed seven of those who were skilled in the Holy Scriptures of that time and gave them this authority, and there was Stephen full of longing, full of the fire of longing for Christ and full of love, for he knew the Scriptures and from them he knew the work of God with the fathers of the people of Israel, and he cared for the Holy Spirit Who was descending upon the everincreasing flock, which had to be taken care of with both those from above and with those from below, and this disciple was worthy.

However, how could the evil spirit endure this defeat, and how could the scribes, the Pharisees and Sadducees of the time, those filled with the vain glory to their teeth, submit? Oh, they immediately planned the loss of Stephen, and the Pharisees and Sadducees stood up with a concocted lie and paid some men to say that they heard Stephen blaspheming Moses and God so that they might accuse him of blaspheming in this way and then to condemn him to death penalty. However, coming before the Sanhedrin, Stephen confronted them all and so they could demand the stoning of Stephen.

Oh, behold the woven work of the lie, of the little and tiny people of the spirit of hatred! However, Stephen told them how he saw Christ on the right hand of God, the Father, and the heavens above open and looking down at the injustice done by the liars.

Oh, how much were working those selected from among the people who worked together with the Holy Spirit and who knew very well the Scriptures set by the Holy Spirit on earth! Oh, and how far from the spirit of the Scriptures were the rulers of the Sanhedrin at that time, sons, those who wove lies to clean the land of Israel from Christians, and their lack of wisdom put to death those full of longing after Christ, after the One Who appeared at that time in Israel, the people of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob!

Oh, this is how the Sanhedrin has been working since then over time, for the disciples of the Holy Spirit died and die and have been given over to torments and death for My name, for their longing of the Lord, sons. Here, in the Romanian people many confessors of the wisdom from above, of My humility worked by them, have perished in prisons and because of hard work; they have been put to death without any mercy, (In the time of the dictatorship of the red communist beast, when some of those who received the confession of the men's sins, continued to „denounce" to „the security of the regime" those they were shepherding, r.n.), while on the chairs, dearly adorned, sat and sit those of the Sanhedrin of every age, and the Holy Spirit has been sighing in those oppressed for My name.

Oh, sons, if I, the Lord, with all the heavenly suites, had not been with great protection over you and over the work of My word, oh, then for more than sixty years, the woven lie would have been trying to do everything possible to bring to destruction the way of My word over the earth, since I, the Lord, have been working from heaven and making My way to come and to leave My word, My exhortation and My commandments against evil and blessings as well for those from heaven on earth!

Oh, sons, I am very vigilant for My walk today. Be very careful to stay under My mantel, for whoever wants to stay under it is protected, sons, and those who do not want and do not stay, become My enemies and then they walk cunningly in My steps with you, and the devil inspires them with visions, dreams and evil things, for woe to those who do not allow themselves to be protected by God and who fall into the temptation of the evil spirit that tries to win them over as opposing workers!

Now, the disciples Stephen, is coming down into the book of My coming as word on earth and is testifying near Me on his day of celebration among saints, and he is full with longing as two thousand years ago and he is entering My book now.

— Bless my entrance with You as word into the citadel of Your word and into the book, Lord! I am only longing, now as I was at that time. And now, Your saints are yearning with their new longing after You, with Your people in feasts of saints, Lord. Oh, we miss Your table of word, Your voice with those who are today at the table on earth, this land in which You gather the heaven as in heaven, the unspeakable beauties worked here with Your frail ones of today, whom You trust to fulfill Your today's coming after two thousand years Lord. Oh, and this victory is great, Your coming of today, dear Lord, and those in heaven stand in amazement looking at Your victory, at Your way and work set on earth according to the sketch from the Scriptures, which has been kept within great mystery to be able to fulfill it completely, and then to leave it to the heavenly and earthly looks so that You may write before them Your victory and its day.

I am giving to these little ones of Yours the gifts of the Holy Spirit, which consumed Me then when I was working over the Christian army, and for Your confession over the unbelieving.

I want you to have a burning spirit, today's little ones of the Word Jesus Christ. Oh, dear ones of the Lord, fill the cups and pour them over the earth, for this prophesied time has come which says that the sons and daughters will prophesy, that old and young men will have holy revelations and holy dreams, holy visions and prophecies, and behold their fulfillment! (See Acts: 2/17) Oh, share far and wide the Lord's entire work with you and fulfill these Scriptures, oh, sons and daughters! Be full of longing for the Lord on earth and stay under His mantle, being like-minded, being of one accord for the glory of our Lord, Jesus Christ! (See Phil. 2:2-5)

Oh, Lord, You have opened the heaven and come down from the right hand of the Father to them and You speak over them, and they share from You. Oh, praise to You for this glory of Yours with them! Praise to Your protection over them! Praise to You for us and from them, for glory we deserve to give You!

— Oh, blessed be the praise you bring to Your Lord and to His work, blessed martyr now! I greeted you, I came out before to meet you when you passed to those unseen of the Lord, of the heaven, of the heavenly hosts, and now I am taking you over with Me where I am going, oh, and We are travelling with the work of the Father, with the mission of My coming with the saints, for this is the time, and this time is much blessed and so is all, all its work from heaven on earth.

Oh, peace to you, sons who are My support! I, the Lord, raise you again, and do not be afraid that you have no rest, for only the body needs rest, but not the spirit, and I, the Lord, am strengthening now your spirit and body and I am saying: Blessed is the power over you, the love, the wisdom and obedience for the great preparation of the feast of Epiphany, sons! And in ten days, I am going to raise you and say: Open the gates for the King of glory to enter with a day of royal feast, with the feast of Epiphany! You will rise and open the gates of the citadel and the people will enter to the feast and We will sit upon the waters, worked by grace, and We will put on the table so that the people may take and drink, that they may wash themselves all the time with the water empowered by the word, and which cuts the power and the work of the enemy devil opposing God and man.

I am blessing again the way, the steps and the hearts of those who start walking from now one with their longing to the spring, here!

Oh, ask so that you may receive and have from Me for the preparation of the stopover of the feast of Epiphany, sons.

I am blessing the spirit of peace, now, at the feast, and always. I am looking after you and over you to help you in everything, and you will know the entire support from Me with you, which will strengthen you in your faith, in your love and longing, oh, in your longing after Me in you, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

25-12-2019/07-01-2020