The Word of God at the Feast of the Assumption

The trumpets are sounding above in heaven; the angels are sounding for a heavenly feast in heaven and on the earth. I, the Lord, am standing in front of the heavenly hosts and We are arriving in the citadel of My word on the hearth of the Romanian people and on Our arriving We salute you with Our greeting:

Peace to you, sons in the citadel! Peace and comfort, dear sons! Let Us stand before you in tears and We are whispering with a sighing voice and propriety, sons. Oh, do not get sad, not in this way, sons. Tears of joy have seized Our spirits. We are sighing of love in a sigh of comfort, oh, for Our wonder is great when We look here, when We look at you and your love for Us is great on this moment of great feast.

Oh, with so much burning fire you have set yourselves to the work for the preparation, for the reception and for the heavenly feast together with Us, the ones in heaven with you now! Oh, you have forgotten so much about yourselves that you so greatly prepared this holy day here, sons, everything out of your love for Us, everything out of holy submission, dear sons! May your faith be great in the Lord's coming now, in the end of the time, My coming to you as word, in order to put Me on the way to walk with the word and to sow the land from margins to margins with the seal of My mouth as in the beginning of the world, with the word, dear sons!

Oh, if with My coming of nowadays I have not found faith on earth, I have found faith with you in My today's word, by which Father is sending Me to spread it all over so that it may come then the kingdom of the heavens on earth and the end of those without God and their trespasses now, as it written. Two thousand years ago, I spoke with mourning: «Never-theless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?». (Luke: 18/8)

I've knocked at the gate of the people, known to be the house and table of God, (At the „Christian" churches, r.n.), and I have been left outside knocking and talking alone, for those who are sitting high over the church and over the people do not have ears to hear. I have knocked and called for a long time that they may open and hear what I have to say, but I have not found any faith but only faith denial, as I said two thousand years ago that before My coming for the end of the lawlessness and unbelief on earth, there would come the denial of faith first, and behold this Scripture has been fulfilled, but I keep coming more and more; I am coming for those who have faith, I am coming for those who wait for Me to come, (See Hebrews: 9/28) and in order for someone to do My will is that he may do My will and be ready for Me to come.

Tears of consolation are running down Our faces, those in heaven, and they are running down for you, sons. We are sighing unspeakably, seized with your love with which you have worked hard and prepared for Us a festive bedding here. The heavenly procession is sitting down with you on this day of glory above and below and it is My Mother Virgin in the midst of this glory and she is comforted by My love in you for Us. Oh, comfort her with your spirits, sons. Receive comfort from Us, too, for We have looked at your superb garments and prepared Ourselves like you and We came likewise, dressed for the feast, all dressed in Romanian costumes, all like you, sons. And even more, near My mother Virgin, the saints of the house of the voivode (Prince) Constantine Brâncoveanu were put by her on her day of feast, all in apparel of the rulers of the country, Romanian nobles, and what Romanians!

Oh, sons, for My mother Virgin at the table with them, behold, when the evening is coming, you should warm cabbage food and sit at the their table of memorial and you should put on the table grapes, wine, fruit and food pleasant to the heaven, taken from paradise, sons, for I, the Lord, set you by My word on the way to heaven, step by step; I have taught you to walk up step by step on the way to heaven, oh, for all the Christians of this word did not and do not know why I, the Lord, have brought word and exhortation to paradise, but if they had good faith in My word, they could have worked too on the land the walking to paradise but the faith in the man's heart is weak, sons. Oh, for only love can, only it, but when a man has love only of himself, behold, he cannot be separated in two, oh, and he cannot not walk with divided love, and I, the Lord, am left outside even by those who know Me by this word, for if you do not have love, then you have nothing and you can do nothing.

Therefore, we have at the today's table the martyrs, torn down by the beasts of the time for their faith in God and for the steadfastness of their faith and people, oh, and we do not have just common people at the table but the ruler of the Romanian Country himself, who looked at the death of his children, encouraging them not to be afraid, not to deny their faith, not to choose betrayal but death as Christ did and the resurrection in which they believed, as only Christian believe.

All these great martyrs are clothed with the royal and Romanian adornments and we all who are gathered are the same because we are on the hearth of the Romanian people, the land in which the antichrist man cries with terror and who is called to give an account to the One against Whom he stands with a great army, only that the power is in My hand in heaven and on earth, as Father clothed Me after I overcame death and satan by the cross, and the opposing man has no mind and he fights in vain, poor of him, and I am sitting on the throne of eternal glory and I am with the work of the renewal of the world over the earth, as it is written and I am saying this:

Oh, well satan well, you cannot overcome the King God. Oh, it is not as with the king, whose pillow the thieves stole from his seat by releasing a flea to sting him so that he might jump up from his chair. Oh, it is not so with God. In vain you keep dreaming of the throne of all greatness. You do not deserve this, the one who are against God and against His flock, because you deserve only fire, which you prepare for yourselves, and you do not know to do something else but only want the throne of shame to build it higher and higher, which will throw you down for eternity, for this is written in the Scriptures against the one who fights against God. Therefore, willing or not, you are submitted to God and to His Will Who is defeating you in your fight against Him, and behold, you have already been defeated, you are judged by your own evil work.

Oh, My mother, the Lord your God is your Son, mother. Oh, what great is your exaltation, My mother! How great was your modesty for which you were born on earth to have it and to work it always in you, mother! After the angel had told you that you would give birth to God, you said: «My soul magnifies the Lord. My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, for He has looked at the humble state of His handmaid. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed». (Luke: 1/46-48) Yes, but in order for the nations on earth to love you, they would be to do the will of God and, behold, We are loved by those who do the will of God, and We are received with what is announced to them from heaven, oh, and so We comfort ourselves, and even with a little hand of obedient hearts, We are fulfilling the Scriptures, mother. (John: 14/21; Romans: 2/28,29) And We are speaking on this day in the midst of those who received Us to have a dwelling house with them and that they may be our guests, that they may be Our children, My mother. And now give them holy gifts, oh give them, mother!

— Let Us give them angels, Jesus Son, let them give them angels, dear Son. Let Us mark their borders with the names and spirits of angels from time to time, from pillar to pillar, and We will give them an example to follow, to strengthen the borders and then the Romanian country has to be strengthened with the angels at the border so that the antichrist man may know whose country is this and that his blind army may draw back, for the time clearly shows that You, Lord, are the Protector and the Savior of those who love You and are listening to You now, and they will still grow within these and will grow by the outpouring of the grace from above, which will appear and mark God's kingdom and those with its name on their forehead. And behold how much We have to work over this land blessed from ancestors to be for God, and they are working now from above, from Our presence, according to Your plan from the Scriptures, Lord Son, and We are going to release burning prayers over the sons of the Romanian land to be faithful, those who are faithful the greatness that come over this nation with great fathers in heaven, oh, for the Romanian people has great favor among those in heaven, and especially those who are great over it in their time on earth and who engraved Your name in stone and wood and in the spirit of the nation, and with whom You overcame the pagans as many times as this nation has fallen under the cross and which has especially been blessed even from the beginning of the creation of the world, and then once with Your birth on earth, and You are looking at this land as to a being You have loved, as to the richness given from the Father for the time of Your coming back in the end of the time, Son, dear Jesus.

We are working from heaven everything that is to be worked, but especially We have to work a steadfast people, clean in his heart, good and great in his faith, for the faith which is not changed to the end, only those who have it will be written as sons of faith, oh, only those, Lord, and the other ones have a very small heart and have no place for the Lord in it to the end, and they give Him on those that are on earth and on the people that are on earth, and those who are not steadfast make Us wounds, as it has been all the time for Us to endure from those who are not steadfast and who have a lot of pride, oh, for they do not learn from me, from my humility, which has come close to me, oh, and You clothed me in greatness because of my humility, dear Son.

I am speaking with them now. I am searching the life and the heart of Your people, and I want to strengthen the spirit of the holy brotherhood over them and I am telling them as to a spiritual family, as to some sons of the same holy family and I am telling them this:

Oh, sons, oh, sons, do not separate from one another lest satan may tempt you in case he finds you without watching upon you and upon each other and that he may be able to turn you into his tools. The one without any confessor for him all the time is taken by the devil and brought into temptation and then he is written down as a son of the darkness, which does not want to be known with its inclinations and works, but the spirit of brotherhood casts away any temptation, it has angels at the borders and it has protection at the borders as well, sons.

Oh, you are a people taught by God. How really, would remain among those some from whom the worldly man is supposed to receive teaching and work in order to follow?

Oh, sons, the worldly man does in such a way that all may be only eyes and ears and then they may be able to say: Behold, we know!

Behold what you have to work: First you have as holy work obedience to God and to the spirit of brotherhood, sons. Then you have to work the gentleness and humility of heart, seen in your works, in your fulfillment, in your feeling, all seen at work among brothers. Let the sensitive and burning prayer feed the love of your heart and the wisdom coming from above, sons. Then fasting and the humble eating at the table with food, your love seen in everything, in your conduct, in your movement, in your humility, in your contentment, in your joy, in a reconciling spirit, in forgiving the evil, in sacrifice, sons.

Oh, what happiness would come to heaven so that this people may understand in all this time of this work what this word, what its spirit and its price are.

The man is cold in his heart for God and it is too much for him, and for the Lord is very little. Oh, Son Jesus Christ, whoever did not enter the ark perished. Whoever did not listen to the callings of salvation, took as a joke the news of the flood that was to come and the same is with those today, who seek after their earthly life day by day, and You are calling them in vain, Lord, for pride has always made a man fall; however, first pride made the angels fall, even the angels, oh, Lord. You have come to man with holiness, not with the wedding. You have come with the Holy Spirit to put Him in the bodies that are clean from sin, from fleshly desires, oh, and those who know this have sin and they live in sin. Day by day the antichrist's people try to destroy the mystery of Your church, which has been working on earth for more than two thousand years waiting for its Bridegroom, and there is no one to watch in the church now for it is only world in it. You have always called out to the sons of the world to save them from the great tribulation, too, and now I am trying to call them as well and I want to have mercy on them saying this to them:

Oh, sons of the world do no longer touch the woman, for the woe will be terrible for those who will have in their womb, for those who will be with child, as it is written. (See Matt. 24/19; Mark: 13/17;) Oh, do no longer rejoice over the venomous pleasure of sin, for this pleasure, which makes you draw to one another, will come into your way with bitterness and with its eternal curse, oh, and who will wipe out your sigh during this time of pain and trouble?

Oh, be for my Son, Jesus Christ, be bride and be the joy of bride. Keep away from satan's voice, from all his tempting tools, for the whole good with which he is trying to smile at you now is only a lie. I am calling you now to my Son Jesus Christ. I have the Romanian country in my arms for the Lord has within it the mystery of His word working over the earth and over the sons who are listening to His will now.

Oh, get dressed in the Romanian style, Romanian sons, for there has not been another people to have more beautiful apparel than the Romanian people, and the heaven is full with Romanian in their costumes, according to holy traditions like Christ's will.

Oh, be careful not to violate the commandments of life, the ten commandments and the regulations for the food of the body, for this way with the Lord is the way to heaven, and the law of the heaven opens the heaven for the one who keeps it.

Oh, be healthy in the fulfillment of the Lord's will! Do not be sick or keep on being sick when it comes to violate the holy laws of life, for there is nothing else on earth to give you life and health more than the guarding of the holiness and the heaven in you, if you work it in you.

Oh, Jesus Son, I am in tears with the joy of the today's glory here, at the feast for me, but I am in tears of joy. I am as in the sweetest heaven when I am in the work of their love for Us. It is beautiful to see all that they have prepared so beautifully for Us as the bedding in this day of holy feast, my day of coming in heaven to You, my Son Jesus.

I am embracing you gently at my warm bosom, loving sons. Hold dear your love, sons! Submit to those who keep your hand to be always beautiful, and always, always with God, sons! May your faith be a fire and let it give birth to a new world! May your prayer be powerful over this stormy time even if the wind does not blow! He who has an eye to see knows what I am saying about this stormy time, which puts down faith, love and the watching for these.

It is so sweet for me here. I have the people of voivodes, (Princes, tr. n.) once with my day of feast, who were given to be martyred for their faith from fathers. Take their examples, sons! You have great intercessors in heaven.

And now again and again, I am embracing you for your sweet gift on my day of glory. Your feeling, your love and their work is great, sons! Oh, there is no longer on earth anywhere as with you, but you have the Lord with you, sons, and you have from Him, and here it is how rich you are in God!

Grace, grace upon you, more and more grace! I am returning this greeting to you because of so much sweetness of spirit what you have given me. Peace to you! Take my teaching upon you, oh, sons!

— Oh, mother, what a high condition keeps Us now in tears of spirit, My mother. We are sharing whispers of Spirit among Us from the happiness that is coming from them now, as a man seized with a sudden joy cries and starts speaking with whispers of sighing from the great power of the feeling far above expectations, mother. You have given them power of love, grace and faith with grace; you have given them power of holiness, and behold, you have given to the sons of the world, too, but let those We love keep away from those who do not sanctify themselves for Us, and to whom We are still calling and giving exhortation to heaven.

Those who have fallen from My little boat sigh every time with longing whenever great feasts are coming here, in the garden where they were once when they were Mine. Some fell because of weakness, some fell because of pride, some because of discontent or pretentions, some because of the lack of humility, others because of foolishness and still others because of satan's envy, oh, for they step in the schemes on the way which were done on purpose by satan's servants who lie in wait for the steps of those who are sanctified by My today's word, oh, for I always told and tell them: „Come out of the world, My people", and I know why I have been telling them this. I see satan's servants hidden in the neighborhood, especially in those who are within closeness. I see how he is making paid and unpaid schemes, for envy and jaundice spoil the mind all the time, and if I tell you and there is no obedience for My watch, oh, what shall I do to you now, sons? It would have been good for you to have loved Me from all that tried to work you, to save from yourselves, but you did not do this. My places with My people are places of worship, and he who flees from these flees from his protection. Behold I am telling from the Scriptures and I am saying again: If My people had listened to Me, I would have humbled their enemies completely!

Oh, sons, I need to have an obedient people to overcome the antichrist with it. I need a victorious people, but only by obedience, sons. Oh, do not give the eternal life on the temporary one; do not make this mistake, sons. The body, this enemy of your eternal life wants you to give it all its right over you, but you should wake up and overcome; overcome with Me, sons! Do not forget that the mistakes are not cancelled before Me by keeping them hidden, but they are brought into the light to be accused and taken from those who have committed them.

Behold, I am teaching you, those who are close by those that I have asked from the Christian of New Jerusalem to fulfill. Sons, sons, listen: You do not know with whom you speak when you speak, you do not know what that one does with your words tomorrow and why he seeks to speak with you. This is how the folders became thick (Of the former security of the dictatorship of the red communist beast, r.n.), this is how it was gathered and kept everything that two by two were speaking. No one believed in the time of My trumpet Virginia, no one believed when I was saying that there were traitors of mysteries, of brothers, that there were traitors who took the news to Caiaphas and Herod, and behold, come and see now your hidden work, which you do not know where it came to be well kept on satan's work. Therefore, everything I, the Lord, bring to be known is because I see well satan's work with which he blames you, and for some no longer to have time for repentance after that.

Oh, how great God is among you, sons, grown under the glory of My word! He is coming to grow you and to let you know when He sees the danger lying in wait for you, that because of your disobedience and lack of fulfillment for the watch of your lives.

I, sons, remain your support if you want to have support, for a man cannot help you, because he is only a man, not God.

I have spoken to you in a godly way, I have taught you as the One Who knows and sees, and I have asked you sweetly. I am asking you to obey, sons! Behold, I have here the spring of the glory of My word, for without it you die with respect to Me, sons. Therefore, keep your faith and do not deny this watching word upon you and My mercy upon you, for you have eaten at My table, you have sat at the table with God, sons.

Now I am coming to an end with My speaking and I am embracing you as a thankfulness gift for such a beautiful welcome on Our day with you, sons from the citadel, and with you, those who have come close now at this great feast.

I suffer, We suffer deeply in heaven because the world from the church has seen to its business (Because the Romanian Orthodox Church keeps the feasts on the new style, r.n.), and unfortunately, because the spirit of the church sleeps completely; it is deaf for My calling. However, I have stored My richness from ancestors and those who have made the ways crooked and sinned in this way, have remained with sin, and that is why so many evil things come over the earth, as the fish always rots from the head and is completely rotten and the people go astray from the mystery of the church of Jesus Christ. However, I do not bow the work of My word to anyone, but I am calling to those who have denied Me, for they denied My word just as Jerusalem denied Me two thousand years ago, and then I also denied it.

I am laying down My feather now, but not before writing first with it: Peace to you, sons, peace to you! We are giving you our embrace with tears of great welcome received from you, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.
