The Word of God at the Feast of the Circumcision of the Lord's Body.
The feast of the Saint Hierarch Basil, the Great

Peace to you, peace over the citadel of My word; open My book with you and set My word in it, sons!

I am above with the host of saints, for the Lord is waking with His company, not alone, and I am on this day of feast with confessors from heaven, and all My fellowship and theirs with you becomes word, sons.

I came down on earth by the obedience to My Father, Who had sent Me to become flesh like a man and to pay before Him for the salvation of the man lost from God's glory by his disobedience to the Lord. I, the Son of the Father God, had to come in the flesh, to obey and to return into My glory with the redemption of the man gained by the enemy satan, for the man did not listen to his Creator in paradise but to the enemy of his Creator and his, for he gained the man to do his will, and I was sent by My Father to be born on earth, to grow and to work for his coming back to God, oh, and this is how I worked step by step. I was born and brought to My parents at the temple after eight days and I obeyed according to the Israel's law of the circumcision in the flesh and that confirmed Me as a man in the flesh, and then by obedience I worked everything I had to do, to fulfill by My coming two thousand years ago, oh, and since then I have been waiting for man, and the Father has been waiting for him too, to look at the place from where satan took him when he separated him from God, the Creator, oh, and I have been waiting to see that he is working for his return.

The years have spun, but I, the Lord, have made confessing disciples and put them to work and further set the work with which I have come to leave among the people so that some of them may come after Me to the obedience to God, for their coming back to God. My house was founded, My flock starting through the twelve apostles after My ascension near the Father, to My place from the eternal glory, and I have been working since then and up to this day.

Oh, sons, some of the confessing people have raised for the Son of God, for the Holy Spirit the Comforter, started to do His work after My ascension near the Father. The Holy Spirit has made a praised dwelling place in those who have joined with faith and great love to My coming of that time, to everything that I left to be worked further until My coming back again from the Father, and in the people who have not got time to believe and to wait, and they are taken by surprise, as it written, oh, and people sleep; they sleep like the five foolish virgins from the parable of the ten virgins, of which five watched for the Lord and the other five did not, and the Bridegroom is coming and keeps coming, but He is coming only to those who watch.

I have in heaven among the confessors the hierarch Basil on this day with his day of feast in the hosts of the saint hierarchs, oh, and behold, I am coming with My table at you, in My citadel with you, sons, for I am coming with you here as word on earth. When I left to the Father two thousand years ago, I had with Me the disciples and those who believed in My coming of that time and in everything I left to be worked on earth by My confessors. Now it is the same with My coming again from the Father after man; I have near Me those who believe in My coming as word on earth after two thousand years as it was written (1Thess: 3/13; Jude: 1/14; Apoc: 19/14.) that I would come again.

I am coming with the clouds, for this is how My walking is; it is not of today or yesterday, but I have always come in this way between heaven and earth with My word, which did not stop and does not stop form its work, oh, and God's work cannot be stopped in heaven and on earth, and behold, God is confessing through His confessor, and come, you disciple of Christ, sit down as word near My word into the book with your confession, with your Lord!

— Come Lord, with Your walking, with the word by which You confess that You are the One Who is and Who is coming! There is so much need of You on earth and over the people, as much as no one knows anymore, no one has the measure of the lack of God in the lives of the people, Lord. You are merciful and want to forgive the human kind, so much lost from You, oh, and in this way You have always wanted to forgive the sons of Israel, who were falling in bondage and sufferance because of their estrangement from God, and who were calling You to them when they were suffering forsaken among the foreign people, oh, and then they were turning back and sinning again, and then again they were calling You to save them from perishing, and this is how that people were behaving until they worked through their rulers at Your death by the cross of Your crucifixion, oh, but You have loved the world, Lord, and You rose alive through the cross and appeared as a great God and true God, but satan cannot be at peace with this truth, and behold him in the spirit of the man's pride who plays important and strong in the fight against You, oh, and the earth is full of people of the spirit of haughtiness, and the spirit is not seen and has power as it is not seen, and I was Your servant, Lord, and I fought in Your name against the spirit of perdition over the people to quiet to put away from the people the opposing work against God and against man!

I have spoken cessation by the word to the work of the evil spirit, who bring people into bondage, and I have worked with mercy to graze Your flock to Your heavenly pasture, to Your will with the man on earth so that man may no longer do satan's will, so that he may no longer work at his fall again and again, to gather pains on earth again and again, and then in heaven, for everything man does, everything follows him in heaven then, oh, and he does not know this, since he does not care so that he may not gather an evil reward, pains and tears for him, for his eternal live after that.

I suffered as You did for the man's destiny. I fought against satan to overcome him and to save the man from this bondage, but now I want to call out from Your presence and to tell it loudly to be heard into the ears of the men's hearts the truth that I am speaking now, and behold, I am saying this:

Oh, people on earth, faithful or not faithful to God, bow to believe what I am saying to you: Everything you work on earth to your salvation or to your punishment follows you then in the life to come. Your love of God and holiness, these bring you near God, and the carelessness of soul and the sin worked by you brings you together with the sinners.

The Lord is coming as He did two thousand years ago and He is speaking over the earth so that you may hear Him. The Lord is calling you as He called Adam in paradise after he had sinned by his disobedience. Oh, bow and hear how God is calling you and ask you to work your happiness with Him, the holiness that keeps you near the Lord and the Lord near you and then a palace of heaven to you!

Oh, sons of God, and you, sons of men, raise to the Lord and work with your steps only those that will remain that you may also remain with them, for the sin and all those worked without God are those that will not remain and they will pile up in the place of perdition and they will wait there those what worked them on earth.

Oh, listen to Basil, God's confessor! Resist satan! Satan separated the man from God and from paradise. Flee from satan, flee all the time, but also watch all the time to flee all the time and no longer to give him any time to have advantage against you, for behold how easy he is putting the man down, oh, and there are so few who still stand up by waking from their fall.

Lord, Your will is the man's sanctification, the lack of his sinning. This has to know and not forget the one who wants to choose life with God on earth and then in heaven. A man needs a teacher all the time, for the man has no mind for You in him, and that is why he needs exhortation, awakening, forgiveness, correction in order to stand watch to living prayer, to the holy work for You and for him, to Your building in him, Lord, to have God as his master and that man may bring the Lord on earth.

Oh, man, how much time you have lost in your life on earth! Stop and give away your evil work and take the Lord's work to have it as your work! Do not gather on earth, for you gather punishment if you do so. Gather in heaven if you want a place with the Lord! Love the Lord, as if you cannot do this from all of your heart, you cannot do His will and do the opposite, the things that are not with the Lord and with His life of man on earth as much as He lived, keeping in secret the glory of His divinity, for the Lord is gentle and humble and He teaches us all these.

Oh, Lord, with zeal I have spoken for You from Your presence to the people on earth. I am asking You with a burning prayer, bring down over the people the spirit of the love of God, bring down to them the work of the return to You for this life pleased to You in them and among them! Help them to be holy and then to keep themselves Yours, so that the spirit of satan may no longer have anything to peck for him of the men's life, but only You, only God's angels to have something to bring to heaven to the men's heavenly life, Lord! Oh, listen to my prayer for man and come with the heaven on earth! Work great miracles so that the people may see the light and follow it! This is how Your saints are speaking and this is how they are waiting, oh, Lord. Amen.

— I am blessing your prayer and exhortation to the people, confessing disciple! And as for you, satan, listen to God and to God's servants, be afraid and step aside, for My way with the saints goes towards heaven and earth and it levels and cleans your wrong doings! Be, therefore, ashamed! This time has come, oh, to be seen, and it will be seen that God is overcoming!

Oh, sons in the citadel, I always have here with you a table with My saints, with My coming to you with them. Ask for the Lord to come with a visible glory so that the people may believe and learn, for behold, they are not taught, not used to their coming back to God, with a holy life on earth, for satan is very diligent in doing evil things and he gets into the man's way to make him fall from God.

Oh, sons, call out to the saints, strengthen with the saints and with the angels the borders here and strengthen one another with them. Strengthen by the calling of the saints the borders of God's Romania, both up and down, for this is God's will!

And now, sons, prepare for a feast of Epiphany and prepare the feast. We are calling over the waters the power of the Holy Spirit, the Creator of miracles for the way of God over the earth and in the men's hearts, and God's blessing will be poured out from waters into waters, and My angels will fulfill this, for My place from here with you is a great miracle, sons, but it did not want to understand this those who had the chance to come near and understand and then to become holy with their life, with their self-denial for God's will with then after that. But even some among those who came near departed from their obedience to the Lord and chose to do something else and their evil things face to face with the Lord to go up to God.

May your sitting down in a spirit of the feast of Epiphany be blessed, sons, so that we may lift up to the Father prayer, glory and obedience, and peace to you in all My work upon you, for I have you closer to Me, sons, and those who keep near you for My will with them and in them, oh, sons, in those who speak according to the truth: Lord, may Your will be done! Amen, amen, amen.
