The Word of God at the Feast of the Assumption of the Lord's Mother

I, the Lord, announce Myself at the gates (Gates – those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) on a glorious feast day and enter the book to speak and begin the word with glory and joy and to say to those gathered here under the tent: Peace to you! I say the same to the heavenly powers and to the nine heavens I say to them: Peace to you, here with Me in My little gardens today with the people of My word, above whom We stand invisibly, for it will be to unravel the mystery of the unseen things of God`s creation and to kindle the longing for eternity in hearts and an ever greater longing for the glory of the unseen things of God`s creation, for the heavenly dwellings with which I hold Me after man, after you, for man has no awakening with longing, he does not know how much preparation God makes in His invisible things for those who love Him and desire Him on earth, and behold the long-awaited celebration to come and bring joy and holy experiences and then ascend to Us with comfort, for the heavenly powers have great glory and it is unknown between heaven and earth by men!

There is great glory in the air here, My mother, and it is a sweet feast for you on this day, and We are placing in the book clear mysteries, oh, that the human mind does not understand the comfort prepared in the invisible dwellings of the Lord, and with which We await those who love Us, the least, so that they may open the mysteries of those above, the invisible creation of God, mother.

Oh, blessed be the table here of your celebration and all that We are working for testimony now and the joy of the hearts of those gathered under the tent on your day of glory, My mother!

We are entering secretly under the tent, for the tabernacle of feasting has been spread in the garden, and We are sitting down in secret together with the heavenly powers, who have names given by God and divided works, so that I may be carried on the clouds as it is written, o sons, and come to fulfill, for it is written: «He comes with the clouds, He has the clouds of ascent and descent». I am with you with the clouds, I come with the clouds when I come, with the nine heavens, which are the heavenly powers, and their names are great and are called: thrones, dominions, principalities, powers, archangels, angels, cherubim and seraphim. All are the invisible things of God's creation and are from eternity, they are without beginning like God. Before the invisible creation they are, they were, and with them was and is God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Then I spoke with Father to make the visible, so that We might then make man and so that man might have something to see. We made the heavens and the earth, as it is written how We made them, and then We created man and he saw the visible creation and he did not know the secrets of God and of God`s creation, and if the Lord gave him this creation, man became proud even above his Maker, To Whom gratitude was due from man.

Oh, sons, so was all man then between the earth and the heaven, so he became proud, and in no way did he flinch face to face with this miracle: the heavens and the earth, the visible things of God`s creation, and which are also of God and so that man would then recognize their Maker.

All the visible creations were created by God for man so that I could have him as Mine and so that I could be at the helm of his life, of his steps, of his feelings, of his love. Oh, man has abandoned Me completely, he and his wife, also created by God. It has been over seven thousand years since then, since the unlove of man and his descendants have hurt Me until today. Oh, this is why man must enter into the work! Man has become proud, he has become corrupt, fallen, died, and must be made again, from heaven worked, and then he may be with God again.

Oh, man, you do not understand who you are, why you are, where you are from. You are made by God; you are God`s creation. Oh, you have disobeyed your Maker and have chosen the spirit of pride against God.

Oh, sons gathered at My table of words, man does not know how to behave before his Maker. He no longer stands bound to God and stands free from Me and does his own will, and behold, ingratitude, disobedience and disobedience have taken him away from Me. I have eternal witnesses, the heavenly powers, the heavens of God, the invisible creation of the Lord. Man has left his Father, has left his Maker and taken his freedom, and thus he walks before the heavenly powers, with which I, the Lord, behave between heaven and earth.

Behold, man, because of your rejection of God the Creator, you have not had the part to know and see the heavens of the Lord. You do not even want to repair your mistake for which the first group of angels who served you fell, the hosts of Lucifer, from which satan, the adversary of God, was then established, and out of ten groups only nine remained, and you do not fear God and continue to make a separation between yourself and Him, and the invisible things testify to this.

Man on earth has not had the opportunity to see and know about the invisible things of God, these indescribable and full of glory that does not reach the mind of passing man. Here is a mystery revealed by God, for before the heavens, the earth and all the visible creation of the Lord were, there were the invisible things, there were the heavens, there were the secret dwellings, and here is why man does not see God. Oh, how can he see Him if His dwellings are His invisible things, they are the heavens with which He deals, and man cannot hide or flee from His face? You are seen at every step, man. In vain do you think you can hide. Whenever God has spoken to man to leave His word on earth, He has stood in the cloud, just as He stood on the path of Israel during its journey through the wilderness to Canaan.

I am in the midst of the heavenly powers between heaven and earth and I am near at all times and no one can hide from God, the dwellings of His glory, the powers that serve the Lord forever, and you, man, where do you think you can hide? I am everywhere at all times and therefore I ask you, humble yourself and stay under My shield and no longer do your will secretly, for you have nowhere to hide from the invisible dwellings of God. Oh, don not hide yourself anymore! When I created the visible, I first created the light of God, and so learn to be and work, for light has its work from eternity to eternity, ungrateful man to the Maker of heaven and earth and then yours.

And you, servants of the church, I am asking you to bow down and hear the invisible One, surrounded by the heavenly powers. From the mysterious cloud I am speaking to you: Stop committing the evil upon your heads that you are plotting to sell yourselves together with the whole flock, with the whole nation to wolves hungry for flesh and sin and apostasy. The fear of God is the fear of punishment. Get out from under this tower of Babel while there is still time, get out of the confusion, so that the collapse of this lofty tower does not catch you under it! The work against God is unfolding rapidly. See that it does not collapse on you too!

There is no longer a single supper table like at the beginning of My church, from which it has been breaking away piece by piece until today, and now the Tower of Babel is about to put an end to it. Many will rise from these ruins and enter into the mystery of God with their work, and I urge you, the adversaries: let the piercing of the heart through My word be fulfilled upon you and stop this lawlessness, as for a thousand years the man of antichrist has been working to demolish the church. (Since 1054, since the separation of the western Church – Catholic, from the eastern Church – Orthodox, editor`s note) Oh, wasn`t the demolition that has been done so far enough? Do you want to give the antichrist the right to put his seal on you? Oh, why, children? With the tears of all those in heaven, I am asking you: why do you allow the mystery and the house of God to be sold? Why do you allow yourselves to be sold to those who left the order of the holy fathers a thousand years ago? Do you also now agree with them? Oh, why do you allow the abomination of desolation to enter upon the mystery and the church of Christ? Thrice will I ask you this answer, face to face with Me, the One unseen because of the heavens that cover Me. I have set apart for Myself a seed, a people kept apart, and I stand with My voice above it as when I spoke to Moses so that he might tell his people the word sent by Me. Oh, whom are you afraid of? Shouldn`t you fear God, and not the people who are so lost from the path of life?

Oh, wandering flock, your shepherds are siding with wolves who are laying down the flock and submitting it under the paw of the antichrist, the shepherd of wolves, who is drawing shepherds of the Christian flock to him. Wake up, you Christians of My flock! There is no more sleep. They are taking you through sleep; the wolves are taking you unexpectedly from under the hand of God. Watch and watch again through union and holy faith, for I, the Lord, support you if you persevere towards Me for help, for behold, the shepherds in the churches do only what they want, they, and the wolves lurking to lay My work to the ground.

Let the betrayal stop! Let the wolf`s paw be removed from the path of the church of Christ, the one inherited from ancestors to this day on the hearth of the Romanian nation! Let the traitors and the traitors be frightened and let the power of lies and those who work on it be removed! May Christian Orthodox Romania be an example of an apostolic church and may it remain so! Amen.

O people of My word, O sons, it is the time of apostasy. Pass from the flesh to the spirit that you may know from the Spirit the holy work of the church that remains! Rejoice and be glad as those who have God in you and with you! The gloomy face is not for Christians, but for those who are fearful and hidden within themselves, for they are afraid and troubled, but it is written that fear stands alongside punishment, and this is the fate of the fearful and frowning. It is written in the Scriptures the sign of good and the sign of evil. When you do good, your face is serene and cheerful, but when you do evil, sin knocks at the door, but you should overcome it. Behold, the gloomy face hides sin and fear under it, and fear comes because of sin. Therefore, overcome evil, My children, and do not work it, and do not harbor it within you, and you will be pure and joyful, and you will show that the Lord has dwelt within you and that you show this joy to others, for a gloomy face is not for Christians.

And yet, My Virgin mother, on her feast day, she is placing her word over you, and behold, My mother, with the joy to give them, for you are with Me in the heavenly places and you take care of My country, of My Romania, and especially of the people of My word, mother.

— My Son Jesus has put me to speak to you on my holy feast day. I am embracing you all and this is what I am urging you, sons and daughters of the glory of the Word of Christ:

Love and love again and cherish the Christian garment, a garment without earthly pleasures. The Christian garment brings you glory, protects you from temptations, from the children of the world, and they bow before you if you honor and love the Christian garment. It shows you Whose you are and Whom you love and honor and confess to them. If you are ashamed of this, if you allow yourself to be held accountable for the way you dress and how you behave in public, behold, the signs of coldness towards God appear little by little, and you can unexpectedly lose the path and the protection from above for you. Some of you resemble the children of the world in many things: in behavior, in dress, in worldly customs, in losing the time of salvation, in foolishness, in lack of humility and holy propriety, and the Lord leaves you and is no longer for you if you are not for Him with all the love of your heart and behavior. If you extinguish your love and faith-fulness, and especially the fear of God, the fear of punishment, oh, the Lord can no longer watch over you so that you do not fall into sorrows of all kinds.

There is also Christian attire, there is also monastic attire, and Christian attire is now taken by the world as a new fashion, and the world resembles Christians and Christians resemble the world, they resemble by attire, and the Lord has taught you to live a monastic life, but also by attire, just as I have behaved as the mother of God, and just as the Lord has taught the people of His word to behave and show themselves to the world as sons of God, and I urge you to ask for clarification for what I am telling you, for you must show that you are Christians by attire and that you love humility and the Lord, oh sons.

And again, I am giving you an exhortation: Always cleanse your soul from those things that are not from God, because to be a Christian one must be cleansed all the time, one must have sins forgiven, and one must be diligent in preparing for eternal life, and one must be very diligent and supported for this preparation. The Lord has always said to His people today: „Pass from the body to the spirit!". Behold, leave your body more apart from its necessities, oh, because you give too much time to the body, and you lose with it almost all the time for the life above! Gather yourselves up, so that you do not weep away departed from the glory above of the Lord then! With great humility I am bowing down and exhorting you, for you are the children of Christ, my Son, and you have much glory over you for this. So, let us take joy from each other, let us take holy powers, and today rejoice, for behold, the Lord is with you with the nine heavens of His invisible things, which He will continually reveal to the shame of the unbelievers, and they will be revealed to you more and more, and glory to my Son Who loves you and raises you because you are His!

And You, Son Jesus, establish Your word now and give them power to fulfill it, for today the spirit of teaching has been working for the saints, and You are going speak to them more and more clearly about the glory of the invisible works of God, and Your glory with them will shine in secret until Your glory with them comes to light, and their glory with You and beside You, O dear Son.

— We must work quickly, My mother, because the darkness of the world is spreading rapidly too, but I am with them in the world and I am the light of the world and I have the word with which I carry Myself and through which I can do.

And now, I am saying to you, those gathered under the tent: Peace to you! May the fulfillment of My word be your daily work, but do not be ashamed before God, and I, the Lord, will shine with you, and you will shine with Me, you will shine soon, soon, and this shine will give light, it will give faith to many, oh, children. Amen, amen, amen.
