The Word of God

… When Lord Jesus Christ left for the holy heaven told them: "Children, behave yourself as I go up to heaven, but I will return and you will have great joy". But behold, the Lord has come today with His disciples and some of you have not received Us. Hard time will come but you need to know the good times as well as Lord Jesus come not in good weather but with the storm instead, when the fruit trees come out of the roots, with bad weather and frosty snow; however the Lords says: "Hold on well, as you will be happy if you are not knocked down". But when you will see the sun on your little coat, what shall you say? And in your heart the son, what shall you say? And rays in your mouth? What shall you say when you see executioner who says: "Save me too!"?" What will you do? Will you receive him in your house? Lord will not be there to tell you what to do. What will you do? Noah did not receive anyone in his ark. If you receive him your house will be brought down.

… The demon came from hell with all the angry host, thinking that he can hide the faith under a bushel, thinking that he can set fire on faith, or lock you up so that you may not come, Christian, after Me, but do not give up. Learn the holy law, for as David killed Goliath, the same way you will kill your enemy with the whole of his host, with a single word if you know how to speak it.

… The time is coming, but do not grieve. It is written in the book that we are in the Apocalypse end. There is still a little bit more time to pass, but it is shortened through your weakness, for many Christians will abandon their holiness and will take the side of the one who does not believe in God. Oh, be confidential, My people, for if you fall, God is helping you up. But do not sell your brother even if your head were where your feet are. If you fell and he did not fell, be glad. Do not give your pain to another because of your fall. Do not hate, do not denunciate when your sins have been discovered. Did you hear? Rather cry to water the earth.

… Oh, My beloved people, I punished your ancestors, I brought them under severe torments because they mocked My miracles. Why do you not read in the book about all these things? Why? Why, sons? My flowers, why? The angels are coming to pick you up, My flowers the spiritual ones, because it is written that God will take His part, and the bad part, to pour out fire over it. (See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic fire[1]", r.n.)

You must know that any priesthood that is against you, that they are not My anointed ones and that I do not know them. When they meet Me, they will say: “Did I not work for You” I do not know you, because you wasted My Body and Blood, you robbed them.
