The Word of God

… There is little time with the little church, and ask from the good God not to deprive you of the little church, for neither shed will be broken if it has a good shepherd. The shepherd passed the holy law over for he did not look at the Gospel or Scripture, but he looked at the nature; for this nakedness is called "nature." The one born of nature is from sins. The angels will come and will blow the trumpet and the prophet Elijah will come and make order on earth. Pray to be perfect Christians, for the Lord made order at your praying, made order at work and at many holy things, for if He did not make them you would have not been alive until now, and would have been dead. For this God preordained these things and if you always go ahead with these, you will be the island of God. If you obey, God wants to fulfill His plan at the end.

… Oh, sons, the city dwellers will go to the villages and to the mountains, as the news went that the cities will be destroyed. Wherever they go, sons, they will be destroyed. Even if they enter a rock stone they will be destroyed.

… I want a priest and I do not want a parson (black coat). Parsons belong to the Baal. Justinian, the patriarch, was a priest (He belongs to the Romanian Orthodox Church, r.n.) and from stage to stage he had come to the heavenly home. The executioners did not let him (The servants of the communist dictatorship, r.n.) to speak with his mouth who was to come after him. He had someone called "The Romanian." This one who wants to come is Pilate and Caiaphas is the one who take his place.

… All priests who are not according to the law are the priests of the Baal. Those are parsons, they are not priests.
