

The Word of God

Why do you eat fire? It is heard from heaven that Christians sit at the table with heathens who consume fire. It is heard from heaven when the man says: "Friend, give me a fire," and his friend gives him gladly a fire. He has made piles of fire on the ground. This is what man earns on earth: fire which will soon burn everything. Israel, if I were in your place I would drown from what lies ahead of you, I would burn myself from what is in your hand. Israel, because of your iniquity, which reached its high peaks, will perish. Run today! Israel run away from fire, run! Seek, that your spirit is not dead yet; it is still somewhere in life. Go and seek it and be reconciled to it. Ask it to receive and forgive you, and the angel to stand at your right hand, that the angel proclaims the wilderness which torments you. Israel, My people, eat the manna from God to heal your spirit, to heal your spirit and body. Eat manna, for today only on bread and meat and fire lives the man who is alienated from God. Oh, holy image, why have you defiled and painted and made you abhorred to God.

Before My birth you were a pagan, as you did not have the law, and then the Lord, Jesus Christ came to give light and to strengthen the ancestral law, but there are persons who do not want to come to the new law; they simply do not want and live like in the old days. As if Moses had lived and still prophesied, he would have come and would have been refreshed into My work. Do you believe it? And then it would have been the same. Moses would have not been believed and he would have stayed there in his old time. Sons, the Lord tells you that those of then match one another, that is, they match the man of today, who is without the Spirit of God. They say that they are with Me, but do they not see well that God took them out by the holy cross and also took the sinners out of the hell? But these, from the old time, do not believe into the wood that was sanctified through Me, and consider it as an enemy to God. But do you see how they do not understand? I ask you: Do not be foolish, for God declared sufficiently well by the prophets, to learn to know the times that come. They do not want to know the Revelation. They say that the Lord comes, but they do not see the cross. They say that the Lord comes, but they do not love His Mother, and dishonor her.

... Priesthood does not live according to the prophecy but by the priesthood. And behold, the shepherds, instead of loving the good sheep they love the foolish ones. Write this prophecy to be seen on the judgment; the priesthood instead of loving the little sheep good for milk, good for wool and good for deeds, instead of appreciating them, they hate and despise them removing them from the holy ones. The shepherds will make files (Security Service of the Communist regime, r.n.) and will take the good little sheep to court saying: "bad sect" as it was said. If someone of these shepherds will say to you, "sect", tell them: "Get behind me, satan, for you do not know your job!" Do not be ashamed son, and tell the shepherd in his face the truthful thing.

... After the collapse and blow of these kings (From the Revolution, on 1989, r.n.) there will be flocks, flocks of birds in monasteries.
