

The Word of God

... A wind from west and north brought unclean spirits; it brought them by planes, by trucks, by trains and by all means of transport to destroy you in your country, in your house. Do you see what he did; the one who wanted to be master over Romania and a friend with many people? (Ceaușescu, r.n.). Behold, they will also come into your houses if you are not faithful. Your cross will bring them death and they will not be stuck to your house, and this cross will eat up the evil ones. You are asked: „Put away from your house everything that is being brought to your destruction, as everything will be destroyed”. Did you hear? Keep in mind these words. Do no longer lose your time with hoe; do no longer lose your time with your shovel, and do no longer lose your time with earthly things, and rather get busy with the spiritual food.

My little sheep, the earth is full of sheep, but they are not of your value, they are not as expensive as you are. You will see how the little sheep is sold, for nothing, but there will be no one to pay you, the one who wants to buy you today. Do not sell yourself for drinking. Do not sell yourself for a steak or a good meal. Do not go crazy for a woman. Do not lose your price that God gave you.
