

The Word of God

... My son, fix the voice of My pot, repair the belief, as the people don't want to believe. They say that it is a woman's voice, not a man's voice and that is why it is not God's voice. I shouted: «Like My trumpet, like My voice» My voice will be heard at the proper time, and the one who will hear will be petrified, as the rocks will smash and the mountains will crush too, hearing My voice. Be satisfied with the way that God shows His voice through My trumpet, as the time for God to show His voice is coming, and it is too bad that you haven't prepared. If you are with Me, you will stand patiently and you will listen to Me: you will not stagger, you will not crush if you are ready.

... God decided to set fire to everything. Keep in mind that only two minutes had passed since the big boss left the factory in Pitesti. (It is about Ceausescu after a visit at the refinery, r.n.) The devil promoted him but you know he will not escape, and you will hear that a difficult trap will catch him since he led the country to ruin; it was not like this since age. He mixed up sheep with goats, he blended the monkeys. Oh, sons, what has he done? Image by image will not be known anymore. If he were a pleasant man to God, He would not allow the creatures to behave rudely. He brought all the breath in fire as it began to burn from place to place. You Christian will see how the whole earth will burn.
